G. O. P. IS HUNTING FOR PEACEMAKER

Liberal Reward Will Be Given to Any Person Who Can Bring Factions Back Into Harmony.

ROOSEVELT A VAIN HOPE.

Regulars Had Counted Upon Him to Force the Insurgents Into Line, but He Refuses to Do It.

BY JOHN CALLAN O'LAUGHLIN.

Washington, D. C., July 6.—The Republican party is prepared to reward any person who can restore harmony in its ranks and guarantee results in the November election.

The party is no nearer peace today than at any time since before the fight over the Aldrich tariff law. It was hoped by the regulars that when Mr. Roosevelt returned home he would destroy insurgency by the simple method of indorsing the administration. He has not done so.

It was believed by the president that the enactment of the legislative pledges made by the party in its national platform would give both wings of the party a common base upon which to stand. It has not had this effect. It was expected that the announcement of the retirement of Senators Aldrich and Hale and the liberalization of the rules of the house of representatives would draw the factions closer together and enable an understanding which would be advantageous to the whole party. This expectation has not been realized.

"Old Guard" Loses Power.

These beliefs and hopes are repeated at this time because of the movement which has been inaugurated by the leading Republicans designed to remove the differences and insure entrance of the party into the campaign with more unity than now exists.

The success of this movement is handicapped, however, by the present situation. The "old guard," as such, is gone, but the interests which it represented are as strong today as they ever have been and are searching vigorously to find the means to continue to exert their influence upon legislation. Aldrich and Hale were peerless leaders, but on the day congress adjourned their leadership ended and new men must take their places in the senate.

A similar situation presents itself in the house. Cannon and his ring are finished. They unquestionably will exercise a strong influence in the future, but their control over the lower branch of congress is gone. During the next session of congress neither Aldrich nor Cannon will be an important factor in the legislative situation, for their doom will be sealed in the elections in November.

Things Which Handicap Harmony.

As reviewed by the Republican leaders who have been considering the situation, the things which militate against harmony in the party are:

(1) Popular approval of insurgency, as indicated by the control by this wing of the party of the state conventions in Indiana, Iowa, and South Dakota, and the spread of this brand of politics all over the country.

(2) The reception by former President Roosevelt of the insurgents and his discussion with them of the political conditions.

(3) Continuance of the feeling over the Aldrich tariff law.

(4) Continuance of Secretary Ballinger in the cabinet and a further display of temper by the president and his subordinates as indicated by their attitude toward Director Newell of the reclamation service.

(5) The willingness of certain influential regular Republicans to lose the house in order to place the responsibility therefor upon the insurgents.

Course Sought by President.

If the president could have his way the various state conventions would give a reasonable measure of approval to the accomplishments of the party during the last session and avoid any reference to party strife. He feels that, aside from the Aldrich law, there is no real ground for dispute. He has praised the conservative progressives for aiding him in the enactment of a satisfactory postal savings bill. He believes the insurgents and himself can stand together in the defense of the railroad rate bill, the land withdrawal act, and the various other measures which were passed during the session just ended. So far as the Aldrich law is concerned, he is having his tariff experts act as a commission investigating the industrial conditions with a view to a scientific revision of the schedules.

But the insurgents take a different view. The more radical do not approve of some of the important features of the postal savings bill. If it had not been for their attitude, they assert, the railroad law would not have been as much in the interest of the people as it is.

So far as the tariff is concerned, they point out that it was only the result of their agitation that the tariff experts were authorized and that the appropriation for them to continue their work was granted. Consequently, they insist that much of the credit belongs to them, and they are not willing to share it with Mr. Taft.

Want Taft to Use Club.

The regulars of course are behind the president. The more radical of these would like to have Mr. Taft take a club and go after the men who have been criticising him. For instance, they would hail with glee the defeat of Senator Beveridge in Indiana, though the state might be lost to the party for a couple of years. Senator La Follette's annihilation would give them even more pleasure, whatever the effect upon the party in Wisconsin.

But the more politic of the regulars do not believe in such a war. They want harmony and they intend to get it. They realize that Roosevelt is the key to the situation. If he would advise the insurgents to lay down their arms and work for party success they would do so, in the judgment of these regulars. But Mr. Roosevelt apparently is not contemplating pursuing a policy of this kind. He is ready to confer with both insurgents and regulars. He will support Insurgent Beveridge for reelection in Indiana and Lodge, the regular, in Massachusetts.

So the regulars must expect disappoint-

Get the Full 100%

It costs a theatrical manager just as much to stage a play before a scattering audience as before a crowded house. It is advertising—steady, judicious, persistent publicity—that keeps all seats filled, turning loss into profit.

If you are spending your time and energy without getting full 100% in results, watch for overlooked advertising opportunities. Study the varied uses to which others are putting Tribune want ads. The Tribune's classified columns offer many ways of wringing profit out of present sources of loss, and the study of each day's want ads is a business education in itself.

I. C. GETS $600,000 FROM CAR FIRM

OTHERS MAY SETTLE, TOO.

The Illinois Central railroad yesterday received a large monetary settlement for the withdrawal of its suit against the Blue Island Rolling Mill company.

The exact terms were not made public, but the amount was said to have been not far from the claim of $600,000 made in the suit.

This is one of five cases against several car repair companies for alleged frauds. The amount involved has been placed at $1,500,000.

The fact of the settlement was disclosed yesterday after Judge Windes had dismissed the suit of the railroad against the Blue Island company on application, and was confirmed later by Murry Nelson Jr., special attorney for the Illinois Central.

Other settlements are said to be in prospect.

Admits Case Is Settled.

"It is true that a settlement has been made," said Mr. Nelson, "and the terms are satisfactory to us," but he declined to go into details.

The bills of this company against the Illinois Central amounted to $1,460,309 for the repairing of 5,084 cars between September, 1907, and December, 1909. It is alleged in the bill that F. H. Niles and Henry C. Ostermann, officials of the car company, in collusion with Joseph E. Buker, O. S. Keith, William Renshaw, and J. M. Taylor, former officials of the road, had padded the bills by inserting items for work never done, such as roofs for coal cars which have no roofs and doors for flat cars by using railroad materials without giving credit for it, and that the profits had been divided between the conspirators.

Charges Against Other Companies.

The other companies against which charges were preferred were the American Car and Equipment company, the Memphis Car company, the West Pullman Car company, and the International Car company of New Orleans. Receivers have been appointed for the Memphis, International, and Blue Island concerns, and an application for the naming of a receiver for the West Pullman company is pending before Judge Walker.

Suit Started by Blue Island Co.

The legal procedure growing out of the investigation was started by the Blue Island company, which sued the Illinois Central on April 16 for $35,000 in bills held up by the road. Detective William J. Burns filed bills for an accounting against the other car companies and the former officials of the road. Later an injunction was obtained restraining the Blue Island company from prosecuting its suit and the Chicago Title and Trust company was appointed receiver.

Criminal Proceedings Possible.

Testimony of J. H. Brebach, former secretary of the Memphis Car company, has been heard for several days in the suit against that concern at Memphis. Brebach testified that President Ostermann had instructed him that charges for repairs on cars sent to the shops "ought to average $275," and that large sums of money apparently without an accounting had been paid over to Renshaw. No evidence has been heard in any of the suits filed in Chicago. They probably will be settled out of court.

Criminal proceedings may be heard by the grand jury. It is understood that the evidence has been placed before State's Attorney Wayman.

Ask Receiver for Car Firm.

In an amended bill filed in the afternoon by the Illinois Central in the Circuit court the appointment of a receiver for the West Pullman car works was requested through "fear that certain records of the latter concern would be destroyed and made available for evidence." The bill also charged that the company is not worth more than $200,000 and that an automobile firm is using the plant.

Ostermann, formerly president of the Ostermann Manufacturing company, now the West Pullman company, is supposed to have a bank account of $100,000 in the Central Trust company, and the bill asked that the receiver, should one be appointed, be given power to take charge of this money.

This money is said to be part of the $750,000 lost by the Illinois Central railroad through alleged fraud.

Professor Tells Summer School Class in Biology How Environment Causes Various Species.

Fifteen years of experiment with potato bugs have convinced Prof. William L. Tower, biologist of the University of Chicago, that environment causes variation of species. Prof. Tower in a lecture yesterday before summer students of the university, told the results of his research in Arizona and New Mexico.

"This theory has long been held, and I feel that I have proven it without chance of controversy," said Prof. Tower.

"I took three species of potato bug to the southwest. I put them in different parts of the country, and in time each section produced a different type. The outcome of these experiments has convinced me that experimental evolution is still in its infancy."

20-STORY HOME FOR 'CHANGE

WOULD USE PRESENT SITE.

Meeting Called for Tomorrow to Discuss Complete Details.

A definite step was taken yesterday toward the erection of a twenty story building on the site of the present board of trade structure. The building committee completed the inspection of proposed plans, and President A. Stamford White called a meeting of the board of trade to be held tomorrow to receive the committee's report.

While the details of the plans to be submitted by the building committee have not been made public, it is understood that they have received the approval of the foremost architects in the city.

The tentative plan that will be submitted for the approval of the members provides for a building twenty stories high. The trading room will occupy about the first three stories above the main floor.

Measures for Splendid Light.

An inside court is provided for, which will give even better lighting facilities than at present, although the trading hall now takes up the space of about six stories. It is planned to have the building strictly modern in every way and to make it especially desirable for tenants.

It is admitted that the present site of the Board of Trade building is one of the most desirable in the city of Chicago. The value of the property without the building is roughly estimated at about $2,500,000 and the gross valuation placed on the property with the present building is about $3,450,000.

The property covers a space at the corner of La Salle street and Jackson boulevard of 240 feet by 174 feet, and with this location it is believed that offices in a modern building will be easily rented to high grade tenants.

Under Consideration Some Time.

The proposition has been under consideration for several months, the building committee having been in consultation at different times with many different real estate men, who have pronounced the project to raze the present building and erect a modern skyscraper as decidedly feasible and advisable. At present the building now standing is regarded as a little antiquated.

While it is understood that the committee will recommend that the proposed plan be adopted, nothing will be done, it is stated, until May, 1911, when some of the present leases expire. This is in case the plans to be submitted are acceptable to the members of the board.

Members to Ratify Plans.

In any event the plans after being given consideration at the meeting will have to be formally ratified by a ballot vote of the membership. Only preliminary action can be taken at the general meeting.

Some members are opposed to the idea of a skyscraper, preferring to erect a building that will be exclusively for the use of members and containing little if any renting space.

ACCUSES GOTHAM FIRE CHIEF.

Charge of Incompetency Is Filed Against Croker by Committee of Inquiry.

New York, July 6.—Although no formal report has yet been made public, a New York newspaper will say tomorrow that a majority of a committee of inquiry has reported to Commissioner Waldo that Chief Croker of the New York fire department is guilty of incompetence, mismanagement, bad judgment, and nine other offenses.

Owing to the extraordinary demand for the pink sporting section of The Tribune of Tuesday morning containing 4 pages of details of the fight between Jeffries and Johnson, The Tribune will today print a Supplementary edition.

BLACK TO BE AUTUMN STYLE IS DICTUM FROM ST. LOUIS.

Fashion Forecast Via Missouri City Declares Men Must Assume Part Mourning for Late King Edward.

St. Louis, Mo., July 6.—[Special.]—You must wear mourning next fall or content yourself with not being included in the smart set. Advance and authentic information from London is to the effect that all patterns for suitings will be of black, with just a sprinkling of white spots through it to remove to a slight degree the deep mourning effect.

The styles will be on exhibition at the annual fashion show of the Merchant Tailors' league, which will be held here in September. Thousands of tailors in the central west and south will attend the meeting.

London is in mourning for the late King Edward, and London is the place where styles are created—for men. Some of the leading garment makers of the city already have received ideas from the English fashion makers, and all are to the effect that to be stylish this fall one must wear black.

Two styles are suggested for fall suitings. Those of the rough Scotch goods and patterns of diagonal goods with the white spots scattered about three-sixteenths of an inch apart.

Frock coats will be the whole thing this fall. They will differ from the ordinary cutaway, but the coats will be long and in effect about the same as the old cutaway.

WILL SHOWS HATE FOR BROTHER

Riverhead, N. Y., July 6.—[Special.]—Hatred of one brother for another is shown in the will of Nathan C. Jessup, a farmer, who died recently at Westhampton, filed today in the Surrogate's court. The testator's brother, Franklin P. Jessup, also of Westhampton, who died about a year ago, quarreled with the farmer years ago, and the two never spoke to each other afterwards.

So bitter was Nathan Jessup against his brother that he directed in his will that none of his property ever shall go to F. P. Jessup or any of his children. He left his estate to a nephew, John N. Jessup of Chicago, with this provision. He also directed that his land be kept and used for agricultural purposes solely. The estate is valued at $10,000.

IMPERILS LIFE; RESCUES BOY

HEARS APPEALS FOR HELP.

Arrives Too Late to Save One Lad but Seizes His Brother.

Harold Russell Carroll, 13 years old, son of George V. Carroll, a publisher living at 522 Linden avenue, Wilmette, was drowned yesterday while wading with his brother Everett in a harbor of the drainage canal near the family residence.

The brother, who is 12 years old, was rescued from a similar fate by John Quinn, a fisherman living near by, who heard the boys' cries for help and plunged into the water without removing any of his clothing.

Last week the boys were given money to buy a boat on their promise not to purchase or use any firecrackers on the Fourth of July. The new boat arrived in the afternoon and they carried it to the mouth of the canal to sail it in the shallow water.

Steps Into Deep Channel.

They decided to postpone a trial of the boat and were wading in shallow water when Harold stepped into a deep channel that had recently been excavated. He sank and as he arose Everett grabbed his arm and was also dragged into deep water.

Harold is believed to have been seized with a cramp and sank again. Everett was struggling in the water when Quinn arrived.

Everett was revived by Dr. Byron Stolp. The body of his brother was recovered by members of the Evanston life saving crew.

Mrs. Carroll is almost prostrated from grief. A telegram was received from her husband, who is in New York, and is on the way to Wilmette.

Boy Wrestler Also Drowned.

While playing with a companion near the bank of the north branch of the Chicago river Ladislaw Roldyga, 9 years old, of 857 North Carpenter street, was drowned during the day. Roldyga and Andrew Kosal, 10 years old, 855 North Carpenter street, a playmate, were wrestling, and Roldyga accidentally fell into the river and sank before aid could reach him. The body was recovered by policemen of the West Chicago avenue station.

Lillian Slaughter, colored, 7 years old, of 129 West Thirty-ninth street, was drowned in the morning while bathing in the lake at the foot of East Thirty-seventh street. Patrolmen recovered the body.

The body of H. Johnson, 25 years old, of 8263 East Ninety-first street, who was drowned in the Calumet river Tuesday night when he fell from a boat, was recovered during the day.

OPENS AN INQUIRY INTO JURY FIXING.

WIFE TELLS BRIBE STORY.

NEW TRIAL IS SET FOR JULY 20

Following the voting of an indictment yesterday for an alleged attempt to corrupt a juror in the Lee O'Neil Browne case, State's Attorney Wayman began a renewed and widened search for evidence of possible other attempts to influence the verdict.

The jury in the case disagreed, standing eight for conviction to four for acquittal.

Yesterday's work was the voting of an indictment against John E. Maloy, a Woodlawn grocer, whose place of business is Sixty-third street and Washington avenue. The true bill will be returned today.

Juror Morford's Wife a Witness.

The juror who, according to testimony given by his wife and father before the grand jury, was sought with the alleged intent of purchase was Oscar T. Morford. The wife, according to the account, never carried the insinuating suggestion to her husband, proudly keeping silence until he came home to tell her that during the long hours in the jury room he had voted steadfastly for the conviction of Browne.

Then she told him, and after several days of reflection he informed Mr. Wayman.

Morford, who is a switchman, lives at 6818 Jefferson avenue. He was one of the eight who stood for the conviction of Browne from the time the case was placed in the hands of the jury.

Wife Tells Story to Jury.

His wife, Mrs. Bessie Morford, told the grand jury that her husband had known Maloy in a business way for several years and that the grocer first alluded to the Browne trial when she visited the store on the Saturday after the jury had been impaneled.

"Here are some cigars," she said the grocer remarked, giving them to her. "Take them to your husband when you go to see him and whisper to him that there will be quite a lump of money in it for him if he will hold out for the acquittal of Browne, and he won't have to work in the yards any more."

Mrs. Morford testified that she went to the store the following Monday and Maloy asked her if she had seen her husband. When she told him she had not she asserted the grocer said:

"I am sorry. You ought to tell him. If he holds out for Browne there will be a lump of money in it, as I told you."

"I told my father-in-law about it," the woman told the jury, "but I said nothing to my husband until he came home after the jury was excused."

Talks of "Big Sum of Money."

The father of the juror, T. G. Morford, is a gate tender at Taylor street for the Chicago and Western Indiana railroad. He testified, it is said, that Maloy told him he was sorry he had not been able to see Juror Morford before he was chosen to sit in the Browne trial. The grocer is declared to have remarked that the juryman could have got "a bunch of money" for holding out for the acquittal of Browne.

Before the Morford charges were presented to the grand jury, Mr. Wayman caused a thorough investigation to be made. The grocer is said to have admitted to Thomas McGuire, head of the McGuire & White detective agency, that he had talked in a joking way to Mrs. Morford, and said:

"I suppose those jurors who held out for acquittal will get a big lump of money."

Maloy was questioned closely by McGuire, but all that passed between them was not given out by Mr. Wayman or the grocer. Maloy asserted that McGuire said to him:

"If you are the go between in this matter, you had better give us full information."

"I didn't say much except that I knew absolutely nothing about the affair," Maloy insisted.

The grocer intimated that he may have given the detective the names of other persons he thought might have an interest in reaching Juror Morford.

Admits Giving the Cigars.

Maloy characterized the grand jury's action as "tommyrot" when seen in his grocery store at the corner of East Sixty-third street and Washington avenue.

"I care nothing about Wayman or his indictments," he said. "This is the biggest joke I ever heard of. It is true that I gave Mrs. Morford some cigars for her husband, but I didn't ask her to tell him to hold out for acquittal or anything else except to say to give him my regards.

"I don't know Browne or Lorimer, so why should I be interested in the outcome of this case. I have heard there are some persons in this neighborhood that are much interested in it, but I am not one of them. I don't care to say who they are. I am no politician and take no interest in politics.

"I have known the Morfords a long time and have carried them on my books. They have an account here now. Morford was in straitened circumstances once and I got him his last job, which paid him $150 a month. This is the way I am repaid.

"Cigars the Only Evidence."

"It's all bunk about me saying anything to Morford's father about getting his son to stand out for Browne's acquittal. I never did that. I've given Morford lots of cigars. Why should a little thing like that be a cause for indictment? That's all the evidence against me.

"Morford was in here yesterday buying groceries. He said nothing about this affair.

Let Wayman arrest me. I am not afraid of such charges as this."

The grocer refused to say whether he was a Republican or a Democrat.

Mrs. Morford at her residence verified her grand jury story.

"Maloy told me the first time that if I would do as he told me my husband would never have to work as a switchman again," she said.

"Whisper It in His Ear."

"The next time I went to the store he asked me if I had seen Mr. Morford, and when I told him I had not, he appeared disappointed and asked if I expected to see him again before the trial was over. He said to be sure and tell him what he had said, if I did.

"'Whisper it in his ear when the bailiff is not around,' he asserted.

"I told my husband the whole story as soon as he came home from the trial."

According to attaches of the state's attorney's office, Morford was reluctant to go before the grand jury or to have his father and wife become witnesses, because he said he hated the notoriety.

Mr. Wayman refused in the evening to say whether he had other evidence in the jury corruption case beside that presented to the inquisitorial body.

"The true bill has been voted; that's all I can say," he said.

Tell of Signals in Court.

During the trial of Browne several spectators in the courtroom reported to the state's attorney's representatives that there seemed to be persons in the room trying to signal to Morford. One report was to the effect that a man was seen to give a railroad signal, "Go ahead." Whether or not Morford saw any of these signals is not known, as he was one of the few members of the panel who refused to discuss the case following his discharge.

It was said by other jurors that Morford was one of the most earnest in his arguments with the four jurors who "held out" to acquit Browne. He insisted that the evidence had proved Browne guilty.

Morford's chief opponent in all the arguments was Charles Spare, who lives in the vicinity of the residence of Senator Lorimer. Spare is the juror who brought a $50,000 damage suit against the state's attorney, alleging that Mr. Wayman injured his standing by referring to him as the juror who was preventing a verdict of guilty against Browne.

Browne Won't Talk of It.

The indictment came as a surprise to Browne and his attorneys, although they were in Judge McSurely's court in the morning where Browne's case was on the call, while the Morfords were waiting in the Criminal court building to go before the grand jury. Neither Browne nor his attorneys would discuss the stories related by the Morfords or the probable effect of the indictment on the case of their client.

"This indictment doesn't bother us," said W. S. Forrest, chief counsel for the minority leader. "I don't care to express any opinion."

Then as an afterthought the attorney continued:

McSurely Will Not Hear Case.

It became known late in the afternoon, following a lengthy conference between Mr. Wayman and Mr. Forrest that Judge McSurely would not sit at the second hearing of evidence in the bribery case. After the conference both attorneys said that no judge had been agreed upon.

"We will have no trouble about getting together on the choice of a judge," said Mr. Forrest. "Mr. Wayman and I talked about many other things besides the judge."

Aked if it was the plan of the defense to place Browne on the witness stand at the coming trial Mr. Forrest said:

"I cannot say about that now. His lawyers will conduct the trial. I would never let a client take the witness stand just because he wanted to."

Those who heard the attorney inferred from the remark that Browne was eager to tell his story to the jury.

Browne's trial will be started Wednesday, July 20. This date was agreed upon by the lawyers in Judge McSurley's court when the case was called in the morning. The defense still has considerable preparatory work to do before the hearing, the attorneys say, and Mr. Wayman agreed to continue the hearing two weeks.

BRODERICK FAILS TO APPEAR.

Springfield, Ill., July 6.—Senator John Broderick of Chicago and Representative Joseph S. Clark of Vandalia, indicted in the legislative bribery inquiry, Broderick for bribery and Clark for conspiracy to bribe, failed to appear in the Sangamon Circuit court today to give bond. State's Attorney Burke was informed by counsel for Broderick that the senator would be here tomorrow. Nothing was heard from Clark.

UNITED SOCIETIES CHIEFS OPEN PERSONAL LIBERTY WAR.

Meet and Map Out Plans for Campaign in Which Efforts Will Be Made to Elect Friendly Solons.

War counsel by chiefs of the United Societies was held, battle lines of the state legislative and senatorial campaign were drawn, and scouts whose duty it will be to find out how strong the enemy is and learn the best places for attack were appointed last night by the executive committee of the personal liberty organizations.

More detailed plans for the part the United Societies are to take in a campaign to put personal liberty supporters in the state senate and legislature will be formed by a special committee to be named for that purpose today by Walter R. Michaelis, president of the associated organizations. Michaelis himself, Anton J. Cermak, Ald. Herman Bowler, A. W. May, and C. R. Jandus will in all probability constitute the committee.

The evening's meeting, at which fifty of the seventy members of the executive committee were present, was devoted chiefly to a discussion of prospective methods of attack upon the opponents of their personal liberty ideas and to the appointment of four committees—one on political action, a press committee, another on organization, and one on finance.

These are the names of men chosen to serve on the political action committee, which is regarded of chief importance: John A. Cervenka, Fritz Glogauer, Matthew Huss, John A. Smejkal, C. R. Jandus, Charles H. Kellerman, Joseph Helmeniak, E. J. Richter, George Landau, Nicholas Michaels, and A. W. May.

"This is a fight to win," said Ald. Bowler, who is treasurer of the United Societies. "We're going to cover this campaign in every quarter, and for the sole purpose of getting men in the legislature and senate who stand for the principles of our organization.

"Candidates who are against us will have the fight of their lives. Those who are with us, be they Democrats or Republicans, will have our hearty support."

Marguerite Pelletier, 15 years old, who says she ran away from the residence of her parents at Waterbury, Conn., was found yesterday by a policeman wandering about Camp Dickinson in Grant park. When questioned she said she left Connecticut last Sunday. Her reason for running away from home, she said, was a desire "to see the world." The Waterbury police were notified.

Four Hurt in Runaway.

Four persons were badly hurt yesterday in a runaway between Hammond and Valparaiso when a horse became frightened at a girl riding a bicycle. Joseph Fortin of Chicago, an architect, was cut about the head and his nose fractured. A. E. Labreque of Valparaiso had his leg fractured. His nephew also was injured and Mrs. Labreque was badly bruised.

DEMOCRATS SHAPE COUNTY PLATFORM

SLATE IS NOT READY.

Selection of Candidates May Be Completed at Meeting Called for Today.

An appeal to Cook county voters, with a declaration of principles to which all party candidates for public office are asked to subscribe in writing, was given out last night by the Democratic slatemakers at the end of their second day's deliberations.

It was stated that no candidates for the primaries had been chosen finally, but this task will be attacked and probably completed at a meeting called for noon today. The preliminary work, it was asserted, indicated success in reaching a harmonious agreement.

In the slatemakers' statement there are embodied resolutions which all local Democratic conventions are asked to adopt. Party voters are urged to repudiate legislators seeking renomination if their conduct at Springfield invited "reasonable suspicion" of participation in "in the infamous jackpot" or in the fund used to bribe lawmakers to vote for William Lorimer for United States senator. The nomination of two Democrats for the house from every senatorial district is demanded.

Ban on Tainted Legislators.

"Resolved, That the late revelations of corrupt practice in the Illinois legislature imperatively call for a discontinuance of that Republican control in state affairs which for a generation past has made Springfield the vortex of corrupt political trading and criminal grafting.

"The Democratic party is bound by every sentiment of party profession and patriotic principle to repudiate all connection with this infamous régime; and we therefore declare that no Democratic member of the legislature who at the last session thereof, by his conduct, invited a reasonable suspicion that he shared in the spoils of the infamous 'jackpot' or received bribes to vote for William Lorimer for the United States senate, can properly and consistently seek for further honors from the Democratic party."

Exposures by Commission Heeded.

Exposures by the Merriam commission are cited by the resolutions as demonstrating "audacious official corruption," for which blame is placed on the Republican party. Then follows a declaration "for the principle of public ownership of all public utilities as fast as it can be obtained under existing conditions." The tariff is blamed for the high cost of living.

"We pledge the party and all of its candidates to use every proper influence to obtain speedily a law applicable to the entire state and every political subdivision thereof establishing the principles of the initiative, the referendum, the recall, and a corrupt practices act, the initiative being obtainable upon a petition of 8 per cent of the voters, the referendum upon 5 per cent, the recall upon 30 per cent, and a majority of the votes cast upon any question submitted to the people to be conclusive and mandatory on all public officials."

"Personal Liberty" Is Advocated.

"Personal liberty," especially in view of "Chicago's cosmopolitan population," is advocated and condemnation is recorded upon "all sumptuary legislation and administration which is not plainly necessary to the preservation of the public peace and order."

Objection is made to the personnel of the board of review, partly because all three members are Republicans, who have held their positions since the board was instituted, and partly because of their business relations with institutions that come under their consideration for taxation.

Tax dodging "by wealthy corporations" is held abominable and as a remedy it is suggested that adequate salaries be paid members of the boards of assessors and review, with the requirement that they devote their entire time to the duties and engage in no outside business.

Want People to Choose Senators.

Demands are voiced for day labor, where "proper," as a substitute for the contract system in public work; for the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people; for extended county civil service and for a law making it an offense for any corporation to give public officials transportation free or at a reduced rate.

The final resolution declares, in the interest of "economy in government," that "excessive salaries should be reduced, sinecures abolished, stuffed payrolls purged, and public contracts let under utmost publicity and strict competition."

Signed to the address, which is said to have been adopted by a unanimous vote, are the names of the committeemen—Andrew M. Lawrence, chairman; Carter H. Harrison, Edward F. Dunne, James Hamilton Lewis, William L. O'Connell, William E. Dever, Thomas J. Webb, Roy D. Keehn, and John E. Traeger.

BROKER G. A. STULZ FAILS.

Cincinnati Agent of Chicago Firm Said to Have Been Caught in New York Market.

Reports from Cincinnati last night stated that George A. Stulz, representative in that city of the Capital Investment company, a Chicago brokerage concern, had failed. Stulz closed his office in the Traction building yesterday and posted a sign on the door that he would close out all accounts. No reason is given for the failure, but it is said that the recent breaks in the New York stock market caught many customers and practically killed the trading. Stulz left his telegraph operator, J. F. Robertson, in charge to pay all debts. He said the liabilities were $250 and assets $8,000. Richard I. Marr of Chicago is president of the company. He could not be reached last night.

ADMIT MONEY ORDER THEFTS.

Three Men Held in Milwaukee with $2,000 in Possession Say They Came from Chicago.

Three men are under arrest in Milwaukee charged with attempting to pass express company money orders, said to have been stolen from the United States Express company, in Chicago. They are said to have confessed.

They gave the names of Ernest Anderson, William Miller, and Martin E. Lee and all said they lived in Chicago.

NEW GARY DEPOT IS OPEN.

The new $250,000 Union depot, which will be used jointly by the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern and the Baltimore and Ohio railroads, is open for traffic. It is located at the foot of Broadway. No formal ceremonies marked the opening. The depot accommodates 400 passengers and is built of steel, concrete, and marble. Auxiliary baggage and express buildings are attached to it. The structure is the result of the advice of Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation, who told the builders to prepare for a city of a quarter of a million.

DOUBTS CITY HARBOR PLAN

Brundage Says City Cannot Condemn Proposed Site.

OTHER PLACES IN VIEW.

Calumet River and Sixteenth Street Locations Open.

The municipal harbor plans received a blow yesterday in an opinion rendered by Corporation Counsel Brundage.

He said he believed the lake shore north from the Chicago river mouth, now occupied by two docking companies, could not be condemned by the city for the purpose of building harbor docks, as the law specified property must be condemned for a use "higher up."

Although there are two other possible locations for the proposed harbor, the shore north from the mouth of the river was considered the ideal spot.

Announcement of the city's purpose to have a municipally owned and operated harbor has now brought the city fathers up to the most serious question of finding a place to put the harbor. The plans for an improved city, presented to the citizens by the Commercial club and backed by that and the city plans commission, contemplate the building of a commercial harbor just north of the mouth of the river, but the difficulty confronting the city officials there is that James H. Pugh and the Chicago Canal and Dock company own the shore lands.

Do Not Specify Site.

The resolutions presented by Ald. Dever and passed by the council Tuesday night, declare for a municipal harbor, but do not specify any particular site. There is not much of the shore line between the north and south boundaries of the city that is available for harbor purposes, and unless the council decides upon the Calumet harbor in South Chicago, also provided for in the city plans, practically the only available site is around Sixteenth street, and from there south for four or five blocks.

"The statute provides that a municipality can condemn property to be used for a 'higher purpose,'" says Mr. Brundage regarding the north shore, "but that does not give us the right to condemn the Pugh property, which avowedly he intends using for the construction of a harbor, in order that the city may go into the same business.

Must Find Another Site.

"If we cannot use the Pugh site, and I do not see how we could unless Pugh willingly sells it to the city, then we must find some other site.

"Pugh hasn't started work on his docks yet, and until he does the city cannot do anything. If he does start we will stop him with the police, and then he will have to bring either an injunction suit or a mandamus suit, and the case will be fought out in the courts to determine just what his rights and the city's rights are."

ANNUAL P.-O. INSPECTION ON.

James E. Stuart and Thirty-five Assistants Take Inventories and Look Over Accounts.

Chief Postoffice Inspector James E. Stuart and a staff of thirty-five inspectors yesterday began the annual general inspection of the Chicago postoffice and its 350 substations.

Twelve inspectors are at work at the main postoffice, two in each division. The others are at work in the substations.

An inventory of stamps and general postal supplies is being taken and the accounts in all branches are being checked up. The work will take ten days or two weeks, and when it is concluded a report on it will be forwarded to the postal department at Washington.

OBITUARY.

ADOLPH HELLER, a retired Chicago packer, died Tuesday afternoon at the Minor hospital in Seattle, following an operation for an abscess on one of his ears. He had been spending the winter in California and was on his way home by the way of Seattle a month ago when he was taken sick. Mr. Heller was born in Germany and came to this country with his parents when a child. At the of 18 he entered the wholesale butcher business in Milwaukee. Then he ran a packing house in Sioux City, Ia., and later in Nebraska City, Neb. At one time he was a member of the board of trade in Chicago and was associated with P. B. Weare in the commission business. The body will be interred at Milwaukee next Sunday.

WILLIAM PRESTON HENRY, aged 53, is dead in Newark, N. J. He was born in Rochester, N. Y., and had been connected with the business departments of the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle, the Syracuse Post-Standard, the Newark Evening News and the New York Evening Journal.

J. W. BAUGH, 72 years old, died yesterday in Mt. Vernon, Ill. He recently retired from the editorship of the Mt. Vernon News. He founded the Jefferson County Democrat and Mining Life, the first paper published in the Rocky mountains outside of Denver.

MRS. E. O. GROSVENOR, aged 80, widow of Michigan's war time governor, is dead at her home in Jonesville. Her husband died three months ago.

MRS. MARY McKNIGHT, the first white child born in Whiteside county, Illinois, is dead at the age of 75.

F. A. SMITH of Burlington, Ia., a wealthy retired business man, died last night. He was 80 years old.

BESIEGED RESTAURANT MAN STILL MASTER OF CITADEL.

A. O. Simpson Has Ouster Suit of the Western Union Company Put Off Until Tomorrow.

Arthur Owen Simpson, besieged restaurant owner on the top floor of the Western Union building, still was master of his citadel at midnight, following a day of action on the part of his friends outside the fortress.

The ouster suit was continued until tomorrow by Judge Girten at Simpson's request. He also filed damage suits against the company on behalf of two minor employes.

The suits, each for $25,000, were brought on behalf of Stephen Brodwolf, stepson of the restaurant keeper, and Peter Killen. It was said the damages were demanded because of indignities received at the hands of the guards.

Simpson has plenty of food and lots of hydrant water.

STABBER HELD IN $10,000 BAIL.

Victim in Camp Logan Hospital—Fugitive Refuses to Go to Trial Without Extradition.

Joe Stanridge was held in $10,000 bonds yesterday at Winthrop Harbor on a charge of assaulting with a deadly weapon Ed Walsh, a soldier of the Seventh regiment, Illinois infantry. Walsh is in a critical condition, according to reports from the hospital at Camp Logan. Stanridge attacked and stabbed him Tuesday at Nieaber's saloon, north of Winthrop Harbor, following an argument over the Jeffries-Johnson fight. Stanridge insists that extradition papers must be issued if he is to return to Kenosha county.

REPUBLICANS FIX PART OF SLATE

All Superior Court Judges Except Chetlain Said to Be Sure of Nomination.

PARLEY AT PEASE'S HOUSE

Rinaker Assured of County Court and Cutting the Probate Tribunal.

The Republican county slate will be completed this afternoon. It would have been finished last night at a conference of the "Big Five," held at the residence of James Pease in Lake View, but there were minor points of difference over certain places on the ticket which could not be adjusted without confabs of the leaders in the respective sections of the city.

It is the purpose to submit the list of major offices to the county managing committee of forty-one, which will meet at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at county headquarters, 76 Fifth avenue. The indications are that the finishing touches, except for the judicial places and for the county commissionerships, will be placed upon the slate at that session.

The policy likely to be suggested by the "Big Five" at the meeting tomorrow is to have a subcommittee named which will be empowered to go over the list of candidates for the bench and county board.

All but Chetlain Sure of Places.

All the retiring Superior court judges, with the exception of Judge Arthur Chetlain, are sure of renomination, so far as the organization slate is concerned.

Judge Lewis Rinaker will be re-slated for county judge and Judge Charles S. Cutting is to be renominated for Probate judge. For one of the Superior court judgeships, Municipal Court Judge Stephen A. Foster of the Thirty-third ward is considered a likely choice. The north side wishes to name the successor to Judge Chetlain.

The northwest side is marked up for the candidate for Judge McEwen's vacancy. The north side also wants the successor on the Circuit bench to George A. Carpenter, who is now a federal judge.

While no expression could be obtained from any of the men who sat in last night, it seems that the trouble spot in finishing up the job arose over the Probate court clerkship. Attempts are being made to secure the renomination of Clerk Guy Guernsey, and in this Guernsey's friends have the support of the Hyde Park and Town of Lake representatives. The hitch comes in the south town wards—the First, Second, Third, Fourth, and Fifth.

Four Wards Against Guernsey.

It is rumored that four of the wards are for the renomination of Guernsey. The Second ward organization, ostensibly in the hands of Col. Chauncey Dewey, is insisting upon his name being placed upon the slate.

No word was given out as to whom the north side has decided upon as its candidate for sheriff. There is no reason on the surface to discount the earlier reports that Frank Vogler will be the ultimate choice. Thomas J. Healy of the Thirtieth ward is assured of the slate place for county treasurer. Criminal Court Clerk Abe Harris will not be renominated, but it is not certain, according to the reports, that John Kjellander has been agreed upon. The place may go to some anti-Lorimerite in one of the west side wards, possibly from the north end of the Thirteenth.

Deneen and Busse at Conference.

In the conference were Gov. Deneen, representing the Town of Lake and the Hyde Park wards; Mayor Busse, speaking for the north side as well as for the First, Third, Fourth, Fifth, and Eighth wards; Postmaster D. A. Campbell on behalf of the northwest side; James Pease for Lake View; and Assessor William H. Weber for the country towns. The conferees were in session from 8 o'clock until after midnight.

NEGRO SWARMS TO GREET J. JOHNSON

Colored Population Plans an Ovation of Its Own When Police Stop Parade.

AUTOS TO CARRY VICTOR.

Residence and Theater Proposed Scenes of Demonstration; Protest by Colored Preacher.

Chicago's streets and boulevards will not be used today as an arena for a homecoming celebration by colored citizens to Jack Johnson, the conquering hero of Reno.

Chief of Police Steward with the sanction of Mayor Busse refused yesterday to issue a permit for an automobile parade headed by a brass band and cordon of police, which had been arranged for the heavyweight champion by his colored friends.

That Johnson will be met by a large and enthusiastic gathering of his local friends and admirers when he steps off the special car at the Northwestern station at noon is inevitable, and no attempt will be made by the police to interfere with the reception plans so far, but any sort of an attempt to prolong the demonstration out into the streets will be met with vigorous opposition by numerous policemen who will be stationed in the vicinity of the station and along the proposed "line of march" for that purpose.

Do Not Fear Riots.

It was not so much that Chief Steward and the mayor are afraid of riots and clashes between the whites and blacks that caused them to refuse the permit as it was their opinion that the return home of a prize fighter is not a proper occasion for a parade. Having recently refused the Salvation army a permit to parade through the downtown streets with a band, Chief Steward thinks they would have just cause for complaint if he should turn around now and grant this privilege to persons whose only object is to escort to his home a man who successfully "put to sleep" a white man in Reno, Nev., thereby gaining the title of heavyweight champion pugilist of the world.

Chief Steward did not say this in so many words to Bob Mott, Sam Summerfield, and the other members of the delegation which called upon him for the permit. What he did tell them was that "the police department is not granting any parade permits today," and when they pressed him for the reason he said it would "interfere with traffic upon the streets, which is congested enough, anyhow."

Secure Permit from Schuettler.

It leaked out in the afternoon that the "parade committee" had nearly slipped over a little joke on Chief Steward, and that a permit for the parade had actually been issued by Assistant Chief Schuettler. Charles Essig, a partner of Summerfield's, got the permit, and, although he still holds it, it will not be honored by the police, if any attempt is made to use it. Essig, it is said, went to Chief Steward Tuesday for a parade permit, and was told that he might have one provided the south park commissioners gave a permit for that part of the parade to be held on Michigan boulevard.

Chief Steward was counting upon the south park commissioners not to issue a permit, but Essig's view was so optimistic that he immediately betook himself to the office of Assistant Chief Schuettler, and, it is said, told him "the chief says it's all right for you to give me a permit." The permit was issued, but when Chief Steward heard about it later he ordered it revoked without any unnecessary overflow of words.

Autos to Greet Johnson.

Although there will not be a regular parade, the colored folk will not utterly fail in an attempt to "make a splurge" over this big event in their world. Some hundreds of them will go to the Northwestern station in automobiles and there will be an effort made by the drivers to maintain a line both going and returning.

In the uncongested parts of the city this attempt may be fairly successful, but the chief of police has issued no orders rescinding the regular traffic rules of the streets, and in the absence of such an order the crossing police will continue to blow their whistles at regular intervals whether it disrupts the line or not.

According to those who have charge of the reception there will be no need for police protection, because only the reputable colored citizens of Chicago have been invited to take part in welcoming the champion home. There will be no band at the station, but the Eighth Regiment band will be stationed at his home at 3344 Wabash avenue, where there will be plenty of music when the champion rounds into Wabash avenue from Thirty-third street.

Resent Steward's Act.

Members of the Johnson reception committee were indignant over the action of Chief Steward. Robert T. Mott, master of ceremonies of the demonstration, said the plans of the committee included nothing that could be construed as boisterous or undignified.

"Everything would have been quiet and orderly," he said. "If Mr. Jeffries had won the fight and a demonstration had been arranged here in his honor there would have been no attempt on the part of the city administration to block the plans or stop the exhibition of the fight pictures, either."

Mott, who owns the Pekin theater, said he expected to exhibit the moving pictures of the fight at Reno. They will be ready for reproduction in about a week.

Former Detective Raps Steward.

Lieut. John E. Hawkins, a former city detective, asserted that there would have been no danger of any race troubles had the parade been allowed as planned.

"If the parade had been held trouble could easily have been averted unless the police had failed to do their duty," he said. "If there had been an experienced police official in Chief Steward's place there would have been no thought of trouble and the parade would have been permitted."

Louis B. Anderson, assistant county attorney, said he could see no good reason for objecting to the citizens and friends of the fighter meeting him at the station and escorting him home. Dave McKee Jackson, undertaker; Dr. R. M. Stokes, proprietor of the Standard pharmacy, and William H. Clark, politician, voiced similar views. Edward Greene, former state legislator, said he could see no cause for fearing any hostile demonstration if the parade was held.

"The reception was being handled by the conservative business men and citizens of the black race," Jesse Binga, banker and real estate dealer, said, "and there would have been no blatant demonstration, as the police seem to have feared."

Chairman Bob Mott of the reception committee, although slightly perturbed over the action of the city authorities' ban on some features of the reception, said Jack Johnson will be given a welcome, but strictly within the laws.

Boom Johnson for Alderman.

John Arthur Johnson will run into his own boom for alderman from the Second ward when he arrives from Reno.

Monday night some of those who won wagers appeared in an automobile.

"Our Next Alderman."

Up and down State street the automobile ran at the full speed limit with side trips to Wabash avenue, north and south. Wherever a group of unbleached Americans was passed there were cheers to reward the excursionists.

Believe Easy Victory Due.

As far north as "Andy" Craig's State street saloon, then south again to "Bob" Mott's place at Twenty-seventh street and State, the shouting load of "boomers" roved. When they were tired out they decided that Johnson would have an easy time defeating Ald. Harding next spring.

"We've lost out in politics before because we haven't stuck together," is the argument Mott and his fellow boomers have been spreading through the Second ward, where there are several thousand colored voters. "Let's get together for Johnson."

Forty automobiles will leave the Pekin theater for the Northwestern depot at 11 o'clock this morning. A large sightseeing auto will carry the Pekin theater actors and actresses. There will be no banners or pennants of any kinds on the cars, as the south park officials have placed a ban on this feature.

The automobiles will go north in Michigan avenue to Rush street, across the river, and west in Wells street to the depot. The champion's mother, sisters, and brothers have been given a car by the committee; Johnson will return home in one of the committeemen's cars.

The return trip will be over the same course. All colored people are expected to turn out and welcome Johnson when he reaches home.

The colored organizations will be on hand when the champion arrives at his home.

As soon as Johnson has spent a few moments with his family he will be asked to address the people of his race from the front porch and hold whatever kind of reception he pleases.

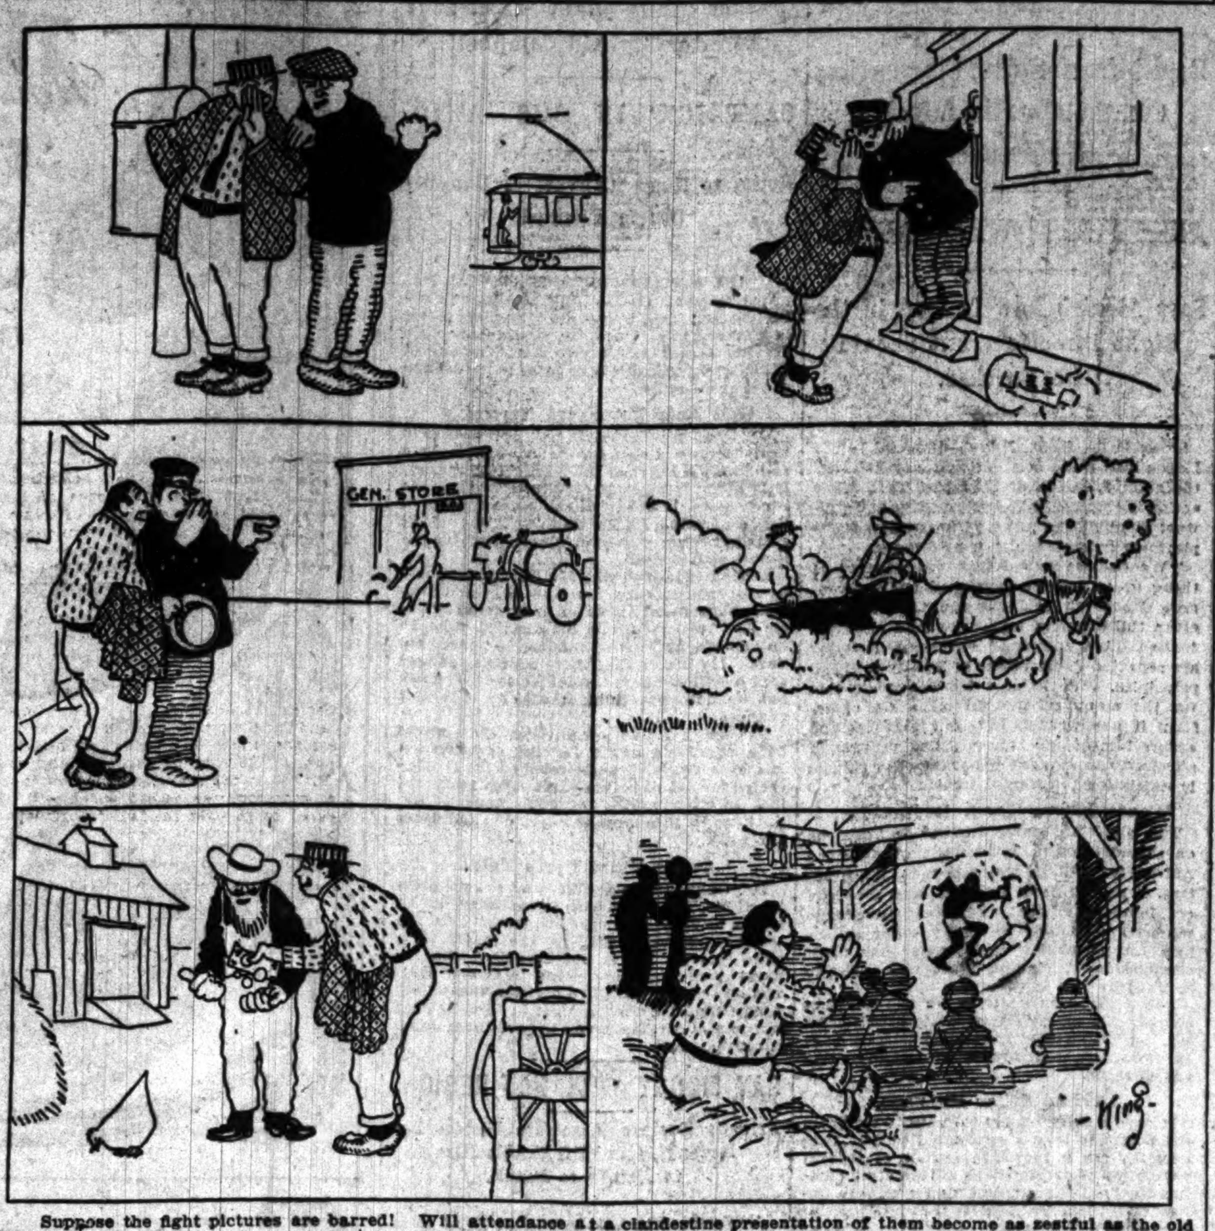
In the evening he will attend a banquet at the Pekin theater.

Minister Opposes Demonstration.

The Rev. J. F. Thomas, president of the African ministers' conference, expressed disapproval of the proposed Johnson demonstration, and he intends to call a meeting of the conference for Monday, when a systematic campaign will be mapped out to overcome the glorification of Johnson, which will include an effort to suppress the exhibition of the fight pictures in Chicago.

"I'm sorry that such a demonstration of welcome has been planned and shall do all I can to counteract it," he said. "Prize fighting is a brutal sport which should be prohibited in all states, and if it is not prohibited it ought to be at least discredited by all men who have any pretense of civilization, whether they be black or white. I am going to preach a sermon on the brutality of prize fighting next Sunday and I shall ask my people to do all they can to discourage it in the future."

If the Fight Pictures Are Barred in Chicago



Suppose the fight pictures are barred! Will attendance at a clandestine presentation of them become as zestful as the old time custom of stealing off to the countryside to see a pair of pugs belt each other in some farmer's barn? Instead of the secret "mill" will it be the secret "film show"? The cartoonist thinks so.

FIGHT MAY CAUSE RACE WAR, IS FEAR OF THE LONDON PRESS

Battle at Reno Is Not Proof of Negro Ability or Equality, Is Contention of One Paper.

LONDON, July 7, 4 a. m.—Racial conflicts following the Jeffries-Johnson fight at Reno is the theme of general discussion in the British press. Varying opinions are expressed, but the universal admission is that Johnson's victory has made the race problem for the United States much harder than before.

"It is useless to hold up the hand of reprobation here," says the Daily Telegraph in an editorial. "These things are brutal and vile, but behind them lies the absolute necessity to keep the negro race a little in check.

"If it once gets out of hand there will be worse scenes under the Stars and Stripes than have ever yet been witnessed there."

The Times in an editorial today contends that the fight at Reno, which was conducted creditably and in a fair and orderly manner, proves nothing. "A thousand picked American whites," the paper says, "would probably beat on equal terms a thousand picked negroes in any conflict or form of physical endurance.

"The American feeling must be recognized. It is easy in England, where there is no color problem, to express indignation at the lynchings. If confronted with entirely similar conditions there is much reason to fear that Englishmen would not be more tolerant. The pivot of the whole question is the worldwide instinctive feeling against color intermarriages."

FIGHT FAN SHORN OF MUSTACHE

McCarthy Staked Pride on Jeffries Against County Assessor Clerk's Head of Hair.

Edward J. McCarthy shaved off his mustache because Jeffries lost at Reno. McCarthy is chief deputy in the Cook county controller's office. Hugh Smith of the assessor's office bet a head of hair against McCarthy's mustache. Smith has no mustache. McCarthy endured the tonsorial operation on Tuesday night. When he came home his wife looked startled. When he came to the office he was mistaken for a stranger. McCarthy is now growing a mustache.

NEGRO PASTOR SCORES FIGHT.

Evanston, Ill., Minister Hissed by Black Sunday School Teachers for Expressing Views.

Lovejoy, Ill., July 6.—[Special.]—"I do not consider we gained as a race by Johnson defeating Jeffries in a brutal fight," declared the Rev. E. H. Fletcher of Evanston, Ill., negro president of the Sunday School Teachers' institute of the Wood River Baptist Sunday school convention, here today.

"I would have prize fighting stopped everywhere. Long live California's authorities who prevented the fight there."

Shouts of amen were mingled with hisses and a loud chorus of "no." The women present were equally divided on the question.

FIGHT PROOF OF EQUALITY?

Professor Says Johnson Victory Shows Negro's Rights.

LAUDS BLACKS' PROGRESS.

California Savant Says Intermarriage Will Merge Race.

"The negro has made wonderful progress and no longer can he be called the white man's inferior. The recent prize fight proves to some extent the truthfulness of the theory that he no longer belongs to an inferior class."

This opinion was voiced by Prof. W. L. Hamilton of the University of California yesterday before members of a class in sociology at the summer school of Northwestern university. His theory is that negroes are not a distinct race, but are tanned members of the Caucasian race.

Prof. Hamilton contended that within 300 years the negro would become extinct in America. The climate and intermarriage, he said, gradually would accomplish this result.

FIGHT TALK FATAL TO NEGRO.

Omaha Black Shot and Killed by Opponent in Controversy Lasting Two Days.

Omaha, Neb., July 6.—As the result of a quarrel over the merits of the Jeffries-Johnson fight at Reno one negro, Rufe Coleman, was shot and killed and Lulu Newman was shot twice today by Eugene Jackson, also a negro. The shooting occurred at the Coleman flat, where it is stated the quarrel had been continuous since Tuesday evening. Jackson was locked up.

WANT TOWN NAMED "JOHNSON."

Residents of New Village on the Ohio River Would Call Place After Negro.

Evansville, Ind., July 6.—[Special.]—Residents of this city are seeking a name for a new town being built on the Kentucky side of the Ohio river, opposite here. Several have suggested that it be named in honor of Jack Johnson, the champion heavyweight.

WOMAN ROUTS TWO BURGLARS.

Finds Them in House When She Returns from Morning Visit to Neighbor.

Mrs. Joseph Willitts yesterday attacked two burglars in her residence at 886 North Clark street and succeeded in recovering a part of the goods that they had piled together.

Mrs. Willitts had been visiting a neighbor during the morning and when she returned to her house she encountered a man in the front room piling her silverware upon the floor. She dashed toward him and the man turned and struck her. She struck back and forced the burglar to retreat. Then another man joined the one in the front room and the two overpowered her.

Mrs. Willitts was choked until she was half unconscious, but when the burglars turned to leave the house she revived sufficiently to follow them. She was joined by several neighbors and the burglars were chased two blocks when they disappeared after turning into an alley.

SUES WOMAN AND TWO SONS.

Defendant Says Revolver Was Discharged Accidentally While Boys Were Playing.

Louis Jordan, through Micel Jordan, began suit for $10,000 in the Superior court yesterday against Edward, Louis, and Elizabeth Flader of 1533 Edgewater place.

Mrs. Flader last night said that Mr. Jordan's son, Louis, was playing with her sons and that the latter had a revolver which went off accidentally, the bullet striking the Jordan boy in the head.

The injured boy, however, has recovered from the injury, according to Mrs. Flader, who said that she did not know why the suit should have been filed.

WOMEN PRAY FOR RAIN; GET IT.

Shower Follows the Supplications of Group of Fifty Residents of Aurora, Ill.

Fifty women gathered at the residence of Mrs. Charles Kirchner in Aurora yesterday morning and prayed three hours for rain. In the afternoon at 2 o'clock the first shower in thirty-three days fell. The shower only settled the dust, however, and Mrs. Kirchner and her neighbors have asked all the women in the city to join with them in prayers today. The women are alarmed because the wells are going dry.

SEE MOVE TO REVIVE RACING

QUICK ACTION HINTED AT.

Wayman and Strassheim Say They Would Stop Bookmaking.

Rumors that an attempt to revive horse racing in Cook county by a meeting at the Hawthorne track in August—Aug. 8 was mentioned as the opening day—came to the attention of State's Attorney Wayman and Sheriff Strassheim yesterday. Their comments indicated that the promoters of a meet, if such is planned with betting adjuncts, were wasting their time.

Thomas Carey, who has $40,000 in the property, secured by a second mortgage, said he hoped the day would come when racing would be allowed and he admitted that several propositions had been submitted to him recently, but he asserted he did not contemplate any move in the face of the law or of public opinion.

To Enforce Anti-Gambling Law.

"If any attempt is made to hold races at Hawthorne with bookmaking or other form of betting," said State's Attorney Wayman, "the anti-gambling law will be strictly enforced. I do not think a race meet is contemplated."

"Hawthorne race track lies outside the city, so that the police of Chicago would not have jurisdiction if betting were to be attempted at a race meet," said Sheriff Strassheim. "As soon as I heard that bookmaking or other form of wagering was contemplated, I would send deputy sheriffs to stop it."

"I wish the rumors, which I have been hearing for several days, were true," said John Condon, the blind owner of the Harlem race track and principal owner of the Latonia and Louisville tracks. "However, I do not expect racing can be revived here, even with betting 'on the nod,' without enactment of a racing bill at Springfield.

Condon Hopes It's True.

"It is in hope of a shift in public sentiment—or perhaps a chance for a popular expression of opinion through a referendum clause on an act of the general assembly—that I maintain my plant at Harlem, where the improvements cost $300,000 and the yearly expense of maintenance in idleness is $6,000, without a cent of return. It is beautiful now, I am told, with its greensward and with the golf links and their bunkers, and I dislike even to think of cutting it up into building lots."

The reports of coming racing at Hawthorne were current in several sporting centers, but the prevalent opinion was that, as on other occasions, nothing would come of the talk.

MISTAKE PIPE FOR REVOLVER.

Two Men Allow Burglar to Rob Them in House at Point of "Pistol."

Mistaking a clay pipe for a revolver yesterday morning, J. W. Costigan and Adolph Kerr, 660 Wells street, allowed a burglar to search their clothing without resisting. The thief on leaving the house was seen to enter a building across the street.

Policemen Mullance and Ryan were sent to the house and when they entered the hallway they found Jacob Thomas, 1444 North Park avenue, in a corner. Costigan and Kerr are said to have identified him. Several of Kerr's valuables were found on him.

The clay pipe also was found and Thomas admitted that this was what he had used in intimidating Costigan and Kerr.

NORTH SHORE GETS SHOWERS.

Drought Is Broken in Area from Irving Park Boulevard to Lake Forest.

While the greater part of Chicago was suffering from the continued drought, Evanston and other north shore towns yesterday were visited with a refreshing rain. There were two showers, one a light one about 2:30 o'clock and the second a heavy downpour an hour later. In Highland Park and Lake Forest the rainfall was abundant, leaving large pools of water in the streets. Rain fell also as far south as Irving Park boulevard, Chicago.

SUES WIFE IN RECORD TIME.

Head of Tailoring Firm Seeks Divorce Four Hours After Jealousy Is Aroused.

Four hours after he is alleged to have discovered his wife, Mathilda E. Brophy, in the company of another man, William H. Brophy, president of the firm of Storms & Brophy, manufacturing tailors, yesterday filed suit for divorce. Mr. and Mrs. Brophy were married Jan. 22, 1897.

MORE CITIES BAR FIGHT PICTURES

OWNERS PLAN TO FIGHT.

Gov. Deneen Says It Is Not in His Power to Prevent Exhibits.

Action to prevent the production of moving pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight was taken yesterday in various cities throughout the country. As the result of state laws and orders by executive officers nine states and twenty-five cities now are closed to the reproduction upon canvas of the fistic encounter. The governor of another state, Indiana, is willing to prohibit the show if possible.

The men in the syndicate which paid $116,000 to the principals in the fight and who expected to "clean up" millions on their films will resort to the courts of the several states to determine their right to produce the pictures. One of the best known moving picture men in the country, who has a big interest in the syndicate, said in Philadelphia yesterday that the agitation against the display of the pictures would be fought.

He said that too much money had been invested by the syndicate, which represents twelve different interests, to stand by and see the fight pictures prohibited without making a contest to determine the right of city authorities to stop the display. The pictures, he further announced, would be placed on view in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, and several other cities on July 15.

Where Pictures Are Forbidden.

Arkansas,
Georgia,
Iowa,
Maine,
Maryland,
Massachusetts,
Montana,
Texas,
Virginia.

The officials of the following cities also issued orders or prepared to take other action against allowing the pictures to be shown:

Atlanta, Ga.
Baltimore, Md.
Birming'm, Ala.
Boston, Mass.
Buffalo, N. Y.
Charleston, S. C.
Cincinnati, O.
Detroit, Mich.
Fort Worth, Tex.
Harrisburg, Pa.
Lexington, Ky.
Little Rock, Ark.
Macomb, Ill.
Milwaukee, Wis.
Mobile, Ala.
New Orleans, La.
Newport, Ky.
Portsmouth, Va.
Providence, R. I.
Rochester, N. Y.
Richmond, Va.
Saginaw, Mich.
Savannah, Ga.
St. Louis, Mo.
Washington.

Deneen Refuses to Act.

Efforts were made to have Gov. Deneen prohibit any exhibitions of the pictures in Illinois. Although he declared it to be his personal opinion that prize fight pictures should not be shown, he told those who were seeking to have him interfere with such exhibitions that it was not in his power to do so.

Gov. Deneen has been spending the last day or two in Chicago, and yesterday morning he was called to the telephone and was told that a delegation of ministers in Springfield wanted him to stop the fight pictures from being shown.

"I told them," he said, "that I had no authority to stop any exhibition of pictures, and that it was a matter for the city council of Springfield or of any other city in the state or the town or village authorities to attend to.

"I was asked whether I approved of having these pictures exhibited, and my reply was that as long as Illinois has laws upon the statute books prohibiting prize fights, I thought that the exhibition of photographic reproductions should be stopped also, and I sincerely hope that these pictures will be prohibited, but that is a purely personal opinion, and I have no right to order them stopped."

Plan Opposition in Chicago.

The Chicago Christian Endeavor union yesterday began active preparations to prevent the fight films being shown in Chicago. A. G. Fegert, superintendent of the Christian citizenship department, said the executive committee would be called together today and a plan of campaign against the showing of the pictures mapped out. The advisory committee of ministers of the union will be invited to attend and representatives from other religious organizations of Chicago will be welcomed.

"We want to put the fight pictures out of business," Mr. Fegert said, "and we are willing to help in any plan or accept the assistance of all good citizens. Our union stands for clean sports and does all it can to encourage them. Prize fighting, however, does not belong in this category, and the pictures are as demoralizing as the fight itself. One feature of the anti-moving fight picture campaign will be an attempt to get every minister in Chicago to denounce these degrading exhibitions from the pulpits next Sunday."

Mr. Fegert sent the following telegram to William Shaw of Boston, general secretary of the Christian Endeavor movement:

"Chicago Christian Endeavorers, 15,000 strong, commend your aggressiveness against the display of the fight pictures. Will try to stop them here. We will also take action at the state convention to be held next week in Waukegan, Ill."

Police Chief Is Waiting.

Chief of Police Steward refused to comment upon the possibility of prohibiting the exhibition of the fight pictures in Chicago, saying that the question had not come up to him yet and that he could do nothing until an attempt was made to show them.

"When the pictures are brought here, if they are brought at all, and an attempt is made to show them, I will get an opinion from the corporation counsel as to whether I have a right to stop the exhibition or not, if a protest is made. If no protest is made I don't know whether I should interfere or not."

Members of the corporation counsel's staff were inclined yesterday to the opinion that there is no ordinance prohibiting the exhibition of fight pictures, and that as attendance at such an exhibition is entirely voluntary it would hardly come within the province of the police department to stop them on the ground that they are offensive to the morals of the citizens. It was conceded that the council might, if it chose, pass an ordinance prohibiting the showing of these and all other fight pictures, but aldermen around the city hall did not take such a proposition seriously.

WOMEN MADE BALD

By Taking Too Many Trips in Automobiles.

According to a dispatch in the New York Journal on March 14, 1910, a distinguished dermatologist says, among other things, that motoring is bad for women's hair and that they must "either cut down the number of auto trips or run the awful chances of becoming bald." The quantity of dust, dirt and disease germs that settle upon the head and hair while riding in automobiles is something dreadful, as every rider knows. There is really but one thing to do, and that is to wash the scalp and hair thoroughly. Don't use ordinary soaps or shampoos, because they often contain too much alkali and that makes the hair fall out. Use Birt's Head Wash for cleansing the head, and use it just as often as you please, for it is the finest and best preparation known for this purpose. It is made of Refined Soap, Cochin Cocoanut Oil, White of Eggs, Glycerin and Salicylic Acid. It not only frees the scalp of every vestige of dirt, dust and germs, but stimulates the scalp, removes dandruff, and leaves a glossy, silky sheen on the hair. You have no idea how refreshing and delightful it feels after a shampoo. It is now put up in 25c tubes for the accommodation of automobilists and travelers, as well as in the [illegible]

POPE HONORS CHICAGO SOCIETY

Takes Direct Charge of Catholic Church Extension.

CLIMAX OF GREAT LABORS.

Father Kelley Returns with Papal Brief and Gold Medal.

The Very Rev. Francis Clement Kelley, president of the Catholic Church Extension society, has returned to Chicago from a three months' trip to Rome, bearing, as the result of his labors, a brief of Pope Pius X. canonically establishing the society.

This brief is a piece of legislation of considerable importance to the Roman Catholic church in the United States, and of particular interest to Chicagoans because of the change it makes in the archbishopric of Chicago.

The Catholic Church Extension society, established less than five years ago at the home of Archbishop Quigley, and operating simply as a private institution, has in that short time become one of the most powerful organizations in the Catholic church in the United States. It has built 450 churches in poor districts, built a seminary for priests in the Philippine Islands, established American teaching sisters in Porto Rico, and built up a magazine with the largest circulation of any Catholic magazine in the world.

Society Given Full Rights.

In recognition of these accomplishments the pope has changed the society from a private unofficial organization of Catholics to an institution with full canonical rights and privileges, an integral part of the Catholic church, governed by himself through the mediation of a "cardinal protector" at Rome and a "chancellor" and "president" in Chicago.

The particular interest to Chicagoans lies in the fact that the office of chancellor thus established—the highest office of the society in the United States—shall be held by the archbishop of Chicago and his successors in perpetuity. This means that the head of the society, instead of being responsible to a board of managers, will be responsible directly to Rome. It also means that the chief offices of the society never can be removed from Chicago and that the power and dignity incident to the office of archbishop of Chicago will almost be doubled.

Pope Will Appoint Head.

Another important part of the legislation provides that the president of the society, instead of being elected by the board of managers, as formerly, shall be chosen and appointed by the pope himself, as in the case of bishops. Dr. Kelley's term will expire Oct. 18, at which time the new legislation is to go into effect. The board of managers will then select three names and forward them to Rome as those of men worthy to fill the position. The pope is usually guided by such a recommendation, but may select any one he pleases. It is also provided that the president shall serve only five years.

Cardinal Sebastian Martinelli, second papal delegate to the United States, has been appointed by the pope as the first cardinal protector of the society. He must be consulted on all important matters, and an annual report of all the proceedings of the society must be made to him.

Father Kelley was accompanied on his mission by Ambrose Petry, K. C. G., a founder of the society, and the Rev. E. L. Roe, one of the vice presidents. He also bears a gold medal presented to the society by the pope in recognition of the work done, and an autograph letter written by the pope himself specially selecting the society to take care of the religious situation in the Philippine Islands and asking American bishops and archbishops to assist it in this matter. Another brief granting special privileges to the society is expected to be issued soon.

Speaks of Roosevelt Incident.

Father Kelley arrived in Rome shortly after the Roosevelt incident. He attributes it to the interference of Ambassador Leishmann, and to the haste of Col. Roosevelt in making public the private dispatches.

"The American ambassador was responsible," he said. "He was accredited to the quirinal, not to the vatican, yet he went out of his way to interfere in the matter. He gave Mr. Roosevelt advice that was both unnecessary and misleading. He caused Mr. Roosevelt to misunderstand the very friendly attitude of the cardinal secretary, Merry del Val, who is more than friendly to America and Americans."

7,075 Convicted by Wayman.

The semi-annual report of the state's attorney's office shows a total of 7,075 convictions, 4,267 of which are Municipal court cases, the rest being in the Criminal court. The report was made to the county judges.

ROOSEVELT PLANS POLITICAL WORK

ANGERED BY ONE REPORT

Objects to Being Quoted as Offering His Support to Poindexter.

New York, July 6.—[Special.]—Col. Theodore Roosevelt is to talk politics with the regulars as well as with the insurgents of his party. He announced this fact today when he arrived in New York, after an automobile ride from Oyster Bay, he announced that he was to see William Barnes Jr. and James W. Wadsworth Jr. These men are two of the leaders of the New York state Republican organization which last week went counter to the wishes of Gov. Hughes and Col. Roosevelt and defeated the direct nominations bill.

Roosevelt set no date for his interview with these men. His talk with Mr. Barnes will be delayed for some time, as the Albany man sailed today for Europe for a rest of a month. The colonel refused to make any comment on Mr. Barnes' statement of yesterday that he didn't "take his orders from a former president or a governor."

Col. Roosevelt said also that he was to see Senator Beveridge of Indiana and Congressman Hamilton Fish of New York soon.

Angered by Poindexter Talk.

Col. Roosevelt today took exception to dispatches from Oyster Bay last night in which he was quoted as saying that he would support Miles Poindexter in his contest for a seat in the United States senate from Washington.

Col. Roosevelt stipulated that he must not be directly quoted as saying that he had decided to support Mr. Poindexter, and feels that he was misrepresented in the dispatches which quoted him as having said in so many words that he had promised his aid to the congressman. The colonel did not deny today, either in his statement or otherwise, that he would give this support.

Statement Made by Roosevelt.

The following statement was given out by Mr. Roosevelt:

"Col. Roosevelt will see many senators and congressmen, assemblymen, and other public officials, representing all phases of public opinion. He declines to be responsible for any statements excepting those which he himself makes. He has said nothing and intends to say nothing as to any contests for a nomination. If he has anything to say on such a subject it will be over his own signature.

"All that Mr. Roosevelt said in this case was that he was pleased to find that, as he had expected from Mr. Poindexter's past record, Mr. Poindexter was in hearty sympathy with Mr. Roosevelt's views as to conservation and similar subjects.

"Mr. Roosevelt expressed no opinion about the senatorial contest and Mr. Roosevelt believes Mr. Poindexter is not reponsible for the statements which have appeared. Certainly in so far as these statements have quoted Mr. Roosevelt, except as above indicated, they had no foundation whatever in fact."

Denies Office in Equitable.

Mr. Roosevelt denied today the report that he had accepted the office of trustee of the Equitable Life Assurance society, as successor to the late Grover Cleveland.

"There is absolutely no truth to the rumor," said Roosevelt. "I know nothing about the matter whatever. If the position were offered to me I would not accept it."

It was reported a few weeks ago that when J. P. Morgan, who controls the Equitable society, returned from abroad he would announce the appointment of Roosevelt as one of the trustees.

The colonel received a delegation of Pittsburg men today and promised to make an address in Pittsburg in the fall. His visitors were H. D. W. English, president of the Pittsburg Civic commission; Allen T. Burns, secretary of the commission, and Charles F. Weller, general secretary of the Associated Charities of Pittsburg. His address is to be delivered in the Pittsburg exposition building and will be on some subject bearing on civics.

Dudley Foulke of Indiana spent tonight at Sagamore Hill. He is the man to whom Col. Roosevelt wrote a number of open letters on political subjects while he was president. John Burroughs, the naturalist, also is a guest at Sagamore Hill over night.

Calls Poindexter "Socialist."

Washington, D. C., July 6.—[Special.]—Secretary of the Interior Ballinger paid his respects today to Congressman Miles Poindexter, who yesterday visited Mr. Roosevelt at Oyster Bay. The secretary said that if the reports of the interview were correct, Mr. Roosevelt had been led astray by the people claiming to be his friends.

"I do not consider Representative Poindexter a Republican," continued Secretary Ballinger. "He is a rank Socialist, or if he is not one, he will be one soon."

Friends of the Taft administration here believe that Mr. Roosevelt's reception to Mr. Poindexter, the only man in public life in Washington, the home state of Secretary Ballinger, to espouse the cause of Gifford Pinchot in the Ballinger-Pinchot row, indicates that differences exist between President Taft and the former president on the question of conservation as administered by the present head of the interior department. They appear to be of the opinion that the retirement of Mr. Ballinger from the cabinet would heal a breach that may widen if Mr. Ballinger remains in office.

[illegible]onservation has been injected into the [illegible]ign in Washington state.

Newell to Be Dismissed.

[illegible]ismissal of Frederick H. Newell from [illegible]ce of director of the reclamation service [illegible]s impending. President Taft authorized Secretary Ballinger to remove him and to transfer the duties he has discharged to Brig. Gen. Marshall, formerly chief of engineers, ho was appointed consulting engineer of the reclamation service.

Secretary Ballinger has made repeated efforts to force Mr. Newell to resign. The two men have never gotten along together. Ballinger disliked the policy of the director of the reclamation service, and the latter objected to the restrictions the secretary sought to impose upon his work. Moreover, Newell belonged to the Garfield-Pinchot combination, which in itself was sufficient to damn him in the eyes of the present head of the interior department. Newell has refused to resign, insisting, like Pinchot, that if any separation from the government were to occur, it must be through the medium of an order issued by the secretary and approved by the president.

The removal of Newell will enable a more harmonious execution of the Ballinger policy with respect to the reclamation works. The board created by the Bond reclamation law will convene about July 20. This board will at once take up the question of what projects shall be carried forward. When it acts, the secretary of the interior will give instructions for the appropriation of the necessary moneys.

Sees Trick on Roosevelt.

Portland, Ore., July 6.—Former United States Senator John L. Wilson, who is a candidate for the United States senatorship from Washington, said:

"There is so much error of fact contained in the dispatch from Oyster Bay concerning the Roosevelt-Poindexter interview that it is hard for me to form a statement, but Col. Roosevelt appears either to have been misled or is not familiar with political conditions in this state.

"In the first place, Senator Piles is not a candidate to succeed himself. In the second place, Secretary Ballinger is not taking any part in the senatorial contest whatever. Ballinger is not the head of the Republican party in this state, nor the head of any wing of any party.

"Of the six candidates for United States senator, Thomas Burke, John E. Humphreys, J. M. Ashton, and myself are personal friends of Ballinger, but Mr. Ballinger is not politically friendly to any one of us over any other one of us."

Guildhall Speech Denounced.

Col. Roosevelt's Guildhall speech will be a topic of debate in the national convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, which will convene here on Tuesday, July 11. The pockets of the Irish orators on their way to attend the convention are reported by the National Hibernian, the order's official organ, to bulge with resolutions intended to protest against Col. Roosevelt's advice to the English on how to rule the colonies.

On the other hand, it is said Mr. Roosevelt will have a number of defenders in the convention, delegates who prefer to see in Roosevelt's speech a reproach to English rule.

ROOSEVELT ON DIRECT PRIMARIES.

New York, July 6.—Theodore Roosevelt deals with Gov. Hughes, the New York legislature, and primary reform in a signed editorial article in the current number of the Outlook. Mr. Roosevelt writes as follows:

"I believe Gov. Hughes has been supported by the bulk of wisest and most disinterested public opinion as regards most of his measures and positions, and I think this has been markedly the case as regards direct primary nominations.

"I know that many honest and sincere men are on principle opposed to Gov. Hughes on this point, and I know also that the proposed reform will possibly accomplish less than its extreme advocates expect; while I am well aware, as of course all thinking men must be, that the worth of any such measure in the last resort depends upon the character of the voters, and that no patent device will ever secure good government unless the people themselves devote sufficient energy, time, and judgment to make the device work. Finally, I freely admit that here and there, where the principle of direct nominations has been applied in too crude shape or wrongheadedly, it has, while abolishing certain evils, produced or accentuated others—in certain cases, for instance, putting a premium upon the lavish expenditure of money.

"But while I freely admit al lthis, I nevertheless feel, in the first place, that on the fundamental issue of direct primary nominations, Gov. Hughes is right, and in the second place, that as the measure finally came up for action in the state legislature it was well nigh free from all objections except those of the men who object to it because they are fundamentally opposed to any change whatever in the desired direction.

"The bill provided only for direct popular action in the primaries in relatively small geographical and political communities, thereby making the experiment, first, where there was least liability to serious objection and avoiding or deferring the task of dealing with those big communities where the difficulties and dangers to be overcome would be greatest. Moreover, while guaranteeing full liberty of individual action, it also provided for the easy maintenance of party organization and thereby avoided some real dangers—among them that of encouraging the use of masses of the minority party in any given district to dictate the actions of the majority party.

"In other words, the proposed bill, while it marked a real step in advance, was tentatively and cautiously framed, and provided all possible difficulty in making whatever amendments or changes were necessary.

"The Republican party was in the majority in both houses of the legislature which refused to carry out the Republican governor's recommendations, and, although it was only a minority of the Republican members which brought about this refusal, the party cannot escape a measure of responsibility for the failure, but it is only just to remember that a clear majority of the Republican members of each house supported the bill, whereas three-fourths or over of the Democrats opposed it. This is one of the cases where it is easier to apportion individual than party responsibility.

"Those who believe that by their action they have definitely checked the movement for direct popular primaries are, in my judgment, mistaken. In its essence, this is a movement to make the government more democratic, more responsive to the needs and wishes of the people as a whole. With our political machinery it is essential to have an efficient party, but the machinery ought to be suited to democratic and not oligarchic customs and habits.

"The question whether, in a self-governing republic, we shall have self-governing parties is larger than the particular bill. We hold that the right of popular self-government is incomplete unless it includes the right of the voters not merely to choose between candidates when they have been nominated but also the right to determine who these candidates shall be.

"Under our system of party government, therefore, the voters should be guaranteed the right to determine within the ranks of their respective organizations who the candidates of the parties will be no less than the right to choose between the candidates when the candidates are presented to them.

"There is no desire to break down the responsibility of party organization under duly constituted party leadership, but there is a desire to make this responsibility real and to give the members of the party the right to say whom they desire to execute this leadership.

"In New York state, no small part of the strength of the movement has come from the popular conviction that many of the men most prominent in party leadership tend at times to forget that in a democracy the function of a political leader must be to lead, not to drive. We, the men who compose the great bulk of the community, wish to govern ourselves. We welcome leadership, but we wish our leaders to understand that they derive their strength from us, and that, although we look to them for guidance, we expect this guidance to be in accordance with our interests and our ideals.

"I believe that the people of New York state will in the end insist on taking a more direct part in the nomination of candidates because I believe they will grow more and more to insist on just the kind of guidance and leadership that I have mentioned."

WOODLANDS IN THREE STATES ARE SWEPT BY FOREST FIRES.

Flames Are Raging in Michigan, Wisconsin, and Minnesota, Destroying Cut Timber and Threatening Lives.

Duluth, Minn., July 6.—[Special.]—Fire which destroyed woods, pastures, and homes of settlers near Cornucopia, Wis., and threatened the village has been extinguished by a heavy downpour of rain lasting two hours.

The flames were stopped at the edge of the village. No one was killed.

Near Sault Ste. Marie the fires are fierce on both sides of the stage road and passengers on the stage coach raced over a mile through a lane of fire.

Reports from Michigan say the town of Ontonagon is threatened. The fire already has burned $50,000 worth of cut lumber. Boyne City, Orville, and Haller also are in the path of forest fires and are in danger.

Cedar River in Michigan is in the direct path of two fires which are sweeping on unaffected by the efforts of hundreds of men.

In Delta county fires have destroyed 200,000 feet of cut timber and fires still are raging.

ZIONISTS END MEET IN PEACE.

Stormy Session Marks Close of Convention, but Factional Differences Are Healed.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 6.—After a stormy session of the Federation of American Zionists here the big convention was closed tonight with a ball.

While much was accomplished that will have an important bearing on the Zionist movement, one of the chief results of this convention was the healing of differences between the progressive and the conservative factions.

The compromise was indicated in the selection of an executive committee of twenty-five members, some from each branch, which will carry on the work of the federation. There will be no president, vice president, or secretary, these positions being supplanted under the new constitution by honorary positions.

Although Prof. Harry Friedenwald was elected honorary president he will take little active part in the executive work of the movement. From the date of this convention all power will be vested in the executive committee.

SUICIDE ACCUSED OF THEFT.

Alter Briscoe, Who Killed Himself While in Rochester, N. Y., Charged with Embezzlement in West.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 6.—Alter F. Briscoe, who shot and killed himself in Rochester, N. Y., today, is charged with having embezzled large sums from a number of business men by representing himself as owner of a large tract of land. Immediately after obtaining the money, it is said, Briscoe disappeared.

ment in their efforts to induce Mr. Roosevelt to exert his good offices in the interest of harmony. They must depend upon themselves. One of the men most keenly interested in the movement is Senator Carter of Montana, who has friends among both the "old guard" and the insurgents.

Carter Working for Peace.

Senator Carter has been in consultation with some of the "old guard" and this lends to the overtures he will make to the insurgents a significance which cannot be discounted. Some of the ultra progressives are opposed to him. During the twenty-seven years he has been in congress, he has worked zealously for the postal savings banks. He had charge of the bill for this purpose in the senate during the last session. He accepted certain provisions advocated by the insurgents which undoubtedly were unsafe, in order to assure some kind of legislation and then when the house passed a better bill, he urged the senate to accept it without a change. His advice was followed. But his conduct gave rise to differences with some of the insurgents.

It is the intention of the regular Republicans to work throughout the summer for peace. This is particularly desired in the senate, which must undergo a radical change in the organization. The consequence will be greater recognition of the insurgents. For instance, Senator Dolliver, whose tariff views have kept him from the finance committee, unquestionably will be selected for one of the vacancies. Other concessions will be made to the insurgents in committee assignments.

OMIT CEREMONIES FOR GUDE.

United States Changes Plans at Request of Relatives of Late Norwegian Minister.

Washington, D. C., July 6.—Plans of the state department to hold state ceremonies of respect to the memory of Ore Gude, late Norwegian minister to the United States, were abandoned today.

Mme. Gude and her daughters will sail next Tuesday for Christiania, taking with them the ashes of the former diplomat.

Chargé d'Affaires Morgenstierne has been notified by his government to assume charge of the legation and to maintain it at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., for the summer.

TAFT IS INDORSED IN SOUTH DAKOTA

ASKS FOR LOWER TARIFF.

Sioux Falls, S. D., July 6.—[Special.]—The Republican state convention today indorsed the administration of President Taft. This action is commended by progressive and stalwart Republicans alike. The section of the platform indorsing him is as follows:

"We declare our determined support of those great policies developed under Theodore Roosevelt and demand that they be given full effect in legislation and administration. We commend President Taft for his repeated declarations of loyalty to these principles. We indorse his administration for the many substantial measures of reform it has written into our statutes and assure him of our approval and support in all efforts to secure further effective reform in legislation and administration."

Wants Moore Tariff Reductions.

The platform makes further declarations on national issues. It asserts that while the Aldrich tariff bill is a step in the right direction, it should have given at least free iron ore, lumber, and coal, and should have made material reductions in many other schedules. A permanent and nonpartisan tariff commission with ample power and duties to be fixed by law is favored.

The party also declares for the physical valuation of all railway property of the country, this being held absolutely necessary to an intelligent adjustment of railway rates and charges.

Advises Other Reforms.

It favors the proposal to grant to congress the power to levy a graduated income tax; declares for a thorough system of federal regulation of corporations in interstate commerce that will prevent and suppress unlawful monopolies; asserts that new legislation should not modify the Sherman antitrust act, but should aid in its enforcement; comes out strongly for the conservation of national resources; recommends necessary modifications of the rules of the national house of representatives so as to curb further the arbitrary influence and power of the speaker, and opposes the appointment to federal judgeships of corporation lawyers whose environment is such as to create distrust or weaken public confidence in cases where such corporate interests may be involved.

TAFT IS ON "REAL" VACATION; OFFICE FORCE HOLDS UP MAIL.

President Will Be Kept from Arduous Duties for a Few Days at Beverly by Zealous Assistants.

Beverly, Mass., July 6.—President Taft, spending the first day of his "real" vacation, got lonely down at Burgess Point about 3 o'clock this afternoon and telephoned into the executive offices to find out why there had been no messenger at the cottage bearing the official mail.

"Sorry, Mr. President," said Rudolph Forster, assistant secretary, who answered the telephone, "but you are not to have any mail for a few days."

If the president doesn't enjoy a sure enough freedom from official worry for the next few days, it will not be the fault of the executive staff.

Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh, on his way to his summer home in New Hampshire, is expected at Beverly within the next two or three days. If he happens to bring an official looking portfolio with him he will be politely but firmly requested to check it at the gate and not to take it near the president. The trustees of the postal savings banks have made no engagement as yet to see Mr. Taft.

GORMAN HEIR ONLY HAS INCOME

Sixth Share of $1,000,000 Left by Mother Not Available During Life of Musician's Bride.

Washington, D. C., July 6.—Mrs. Ada Gorman Magness, whose musician husband served a term of imprisonment for desertion from the navy to go on his wedding tour, will receive only the income from her one-sixth share in the $1,000,000 estate of her mother, Hannah D. Gorman, widow of Senator Arthur Pue Gorman of Maryland.

The National Savings and Trust company is to hold her portion of the estate during her life time, and should she leave a child or children the estate is to go to them.

Otherwise, the brothers and sisters of Mrs. Magness are to distribute the share among them.

Alimony Stops; Woman Files Plea.

Mrs. Marie Good, former wife of Robert Good, 5151 East End avenue, filed a petition in the Circuit court yesterday asking that her husband be summoned to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court for failure to pay alimony. She alleges that two years ago she was awarded alimony of $200 a month and that since June 15 her husband has failed to pay.

CANNON TO SPEAK IN KANSAS

Speaker Will Raid Insurgent Territory to Aid Campbell.

CAMPAIGN IN HIS AUTO.

House to House Canvass of Danville District Planned.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., July 6.—[Special.]—Invigorated and bronzed by his excursion to Fisherman's island, in Chesapeake bay, Speaker Joseph G. Cannon is in Washington finishing up odds and ends prior to his departure for Danville.

Will Raid Insurgent Territory.

Mr. Cannon will remain only a few days in Danville this time, for he contemplates a raid into the heart of the insurgent territory. It is his purpose to go to Winfield, Kas., and there speak in behalf of the renomination of Representative Philip Campbell, one of the standpat congressmen of the west whose job is now endangered.

Having explained why Mr. Campbell should be returned to congress, and delivered himself of his usual views on insurgency, "Uncle Joe" will return to his district, take an automobile and make a house to house canvass. He insists that there isn't any danger that he will not be renominated and reëlected, but he does not think it wise to take any chances.

The speaker was asked today if he would be a candidate again for the speakership. His eyes twinkled as he recalled the famous recipe for rabbit potpie—first catch your rabbit. In other words, the house must be Republican before any thought of candidates can arise.

Scouts Third Party Talk.

Mr. Cannon does not discount the popularity of Mr. Roosevelt with the country, but he places no credence in the suggestion that the former president will be the leader of a third party. He is not surprised that so many insurgents are going to Oyster Bay, feeling that they are in a position where they need support if they can get it. But he does not expect Mr. Roosevelt to give them much encouragement.

SAY MOODY WILL NOT RESIGN.

Friends Declare Associate Justice Believes Health Will Enable Him to Return to Bench.

Magnolia, Mass., July 6.—Friends of Associate Justice Moody of the United States Supreme court still hold to the opinion that he will not resign at present, and some of them go as far as to say that he will not accept the provisions of his retirement act.

Those who have seen him recently state his health seems slightly improved and that he holds to the belief in his ultimate recovery and resumption of his seat on the Supreme bench.

POLITICAL NOTES BY WIRE.

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—The Social Democratic referendum to nominate a state ticket has closed with the following result: For governor, W. A. Jacobs, Racine; lieutenant governor, Henry Bruins, Manitowoc; secretary of state, Gustav A. Herring, Washburn; treasurer, C. W. Swanson, Superior; attorney general, Gilbert T. Thorne, Oshkosh; insurance commissioner, Fred M. Althen, Two Rivers; United States senator, John C. Kleist, Milwaukee.

PITTSBURG, Pa.—Counsel for Dr. Robert J. Black of McKeesport, who contests the renomination of Congressman Dalzell in the Thirtieth district, has appealed in the common pleas court from the refusal of the county commissioners to recount the ballots.

RALEIGH, N. C.—Dr. John M. Faison was nominated for congress by the Democrats of the Third district on the 447th ballot. Edward W. Pou of Smithfield was renominated for congress by the Democratic convention of the Fourth district.

BATON ROUGE, La.—Both houses of the Louisiana general assembly canvassed the votes cast yesterday and formally announced the election of Gov. Jared Young Sanders to the United States senate.

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—The Social Democrats of the Fifth congressional district have nominated Victor L. Berger by referendum.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—When Senator Benjamin F. Shively returns to Indianapolis the latter part of July efforts will be made to patch up the differences said to exist between him and John Worth Kern, Democratic nominee for United States senator, since the latter gave out his bribery interview, in which he said that Shively was the attorney of the brewers.

PITTSBURG, Pa.—In 169 election precincts in Allegheny county the Socialists outvoted the Democrats at last month's primaries, and in consequence will be entitled to at least that many registrars in those districts.

SHIPBUILDING GAINS IN YEAR.

Washington, D. C., July 6.—Shipbuilding in the United States during the fiscal year just ended shows a marked increase over that of the previous year.

This year there were built, according to the bureau of navigation's report, 1,502 merchant vessels of 347,025 gross tons, as compared with 1,362 vessels of 232,816 gross tons the year before.

The largest of the fifteen steel ocean steamers constructed during the year was the Wilhelmina, of 6,974 tons, while the schooner Wyoming, of 3,730 tons, was the largest wooden vessel ever built in the United States.

RAYS OF PUBLICITY SHADOW ON RICH

Much Touted Millions in Heritages and Alimonies to Be Given Fire Test.

A BAS THE PRESS AGENT!

Tax Assessors Save Newspaper Clippings to Catch Displayers of Elusive Wealth.

Millions of dollars, according to the board of assessors, are lost to Cook county during every personal property taxing period because of the provisions of the banking laws.

The county board of review is trying to figure out some way of getting information concerning bank deposits which is unavailable by means of the regular channels of inquiry.

The banks under the provisions of the law are not required to disclose the identity of their depositors or the amounts of deposits. Bank deposits are a part of a taxpayer's "cash on hand" and therefore subject to personality assessment. But how can the board of review find out who has bank accounts and how much they are, if those having them are not possessed of a disposition voluntarily to tell about them?

Secret inquiry or the "tapping of pipe lines" is about the only means open, so the reviewers are now puzzling over the practicability of methods of investigation. They are determined to find out concerning as many bank accounts as they can, but they are not hopeful. If the bank books, showing the names of depositors and amounts of deposits held by each, were open for their inspection they say they would have no trouble in adding big figures to the revenues gained by personal property assessments.

Press Agents, Beware.

At their executive session yesterday the members of the board of review, besides making comparisons of assessments for 1910 with those of previous years, checked over a large collection of newspaper clippings—stories of people who have "broken into print" with something giving information concerning their financial affairs. These newspaper clippings, sorted and carefully classified, will be used in checking over assessment figures and in considering protests against the county assessors' property valuations.

In the collection of clippings are stories of wills, insurance policy payments, bequests, charitable donations to institutions, profits of corporations, alimony of divorced women, money paid as damages in alienation and slander suits.

Heirs and Divorcees Noted.

For instance, the reviewers have noted carefully from the public press that Nathaniel Moore, who died recently, was the son of James Hobart Moore, the Rock Island capitalist, and that his estate must be large. They have taken into account the news that Antoinette Gazzam, the $3,000,000 heiress, settled an alienation suit of Mrs. Clark of Chicago, wife of Marshall Clark (Prof. Niblo), for $50,000.

It is chronicled in the newspaper clipping collection of the board that John A. Linn left an estate of $260,000. And lo, there are recorded clippings that tell of the charity ball of Jan. 12, with the names of guests and all the jewelry and finery they wore; so with the grand opera and some other society events.

Armed for "Show Me" Cry.

"You see, those bits of information may come in handy," said Chief Clerk Frank Vogler. "If somebody says he or she hasn't got such and such and we show a newspaper clipping telling about it, maybe he or she'll get a new notion."

The board of assessors began yesterday sending out tax lists to taxpayers, although they have not all been completed and printed. Fifteen per cent has been added this year by the assessors to the valuation of the personal property of the Marshall Field estate. The assessment levied at 135 Adams street has been raised from $10,000,000 to $11,500,000. This figure does not include various trust funds, it is said, these being assessed separately.

Among those penalized because of their failure to file schedules before April 1, as provided by law, is Frederic A. Delano, president of the Wabash railroad. He has been assessed on his personal property at his residence, 510 Wellington street, at $15,000, and a penalty of $7,500, or 50 per cent, has been added, making the total $22,500. Last year his assessment was on $22,000 personalty, but it was cut to $15,000 by the board of review.

Penalize Tardy Brewer.

Another notable who has been subjected to penalty is Francis J. Dewes, president of the Standard Brewery company. On the personal property at his residence, 503 Wrightwood avenue, Mr. Dewes has been assessed on $30,000 personalty, with a $15,000 addition as a penalty.

Some additional assessments of well known personages are those of William Boldenweck, 559 Surf street, amounting to $4,500; John J. Healy, 503 Barry avenue, $2,000; Edward J. Brundage, 2228 Dayton street, $2,000; Hobart C. Chatfield-Taylor, 631 Rush street, $2,500; H. H. Kohlsaat, 844 Lincoln Park boulevard, $15,000; W. J. Chalmers, 1100 Lake Shore drive, $30,000; Isham Randolph, 1311 Ritchie street, $10,825; John M. Roach, 441 Surf street, $8,100; Mrs. Augusta Lehmann, 2750 Lake Shore drive, $50,000.

FORMER WIFE OF FRANK GOULD TO WED SON OF SUGAR MAGNATE

Divorce Obtained Year Ago Will Prevent Performance of Ceremony by Priest, Though Woman Is Catholic.

New York, July 6.—[Special.]—Mrs. Helen Kelly Gould, who obtained a divorce from Frank J. Gould on May 21, 1909, is to be married on July 15 to Ralph Thomas, a nephew of Washington Thomas, president of the sugar trust. According to a report from a reliable source, the ceremony will not be performed by a Roman Catholic priest, although Mrs. Gould is a member of that church, because of the fact she is a divorcée.

The place where the wedding will take place has not been announced, nor the hour. Mr. Thomas, it is said, has engaged passage for Europe and will sail as soon as he and Mrs. Gould are married. Their honeymoon will be spent in Europe.

For nearly a year Mr. Thomas has been attentive to Mrs. Gould, and there have been repeated reports that they were to be married, but each time the reports have been denied.

Last January, it was announced that the pair were to be married, but the wedding is said to have been postponed for two reasons. One was the death of Mr. Thomas' father, Joseph B. Thomas, who was a director of the sugar trust and who left him a fortune of $1,102,982.

It was said that the other reason was the opposition of his mother. Rumor had it at that time that Mrs. Thomas objected because of family reasons.

When Mrs. Gould was divorced from Frank Jay Gould she was given the custody for six months of each year of her two children, Helen, 6 years old, and Margaret, aged 4.

Mrs. Gould is a daughter of the late Edward Kelley, and is worth millions in her own right. She was awarded $40,000 a year alimony.

FERRY SERVICE IN EAST.

Atlantic Coast Summer Resorts Will Have New Sensation.

St. Louis, Mo., July 6.—[Special.]—The incorporation of the Universal Aerial Navigation company for a license to conduct business in Missouri has revealed plans for a commercial passenger airship that rivals the dreams of Jules Verne. Officials of the company declare that within a year they will have a ship sailing the skies that will carry 100 passengers in a forty mile wind at a speed of 100 miles an hour if desired.

The machine is the invention of J. W. Oman, formerly of San Antonio, Tex., but now of St. Louis. One is in process of construction in the shops of the inventor here. The new airship is called a gyroplane, from the fact that it is a combination of the gyroscope, the helicopter, and the aeroplane.

Aerial Ferry Line in East.

New York, July 6.—A zodiac dirigible balloon was quietly brought into New York on July 4 aboard the steamer George Washington by Stuart Davis of Providence, R. I., who intends to establish the first actual aerial ferry line in America. The balloon is to carry passengers on regular trips between Narragansett Pier and Newport, a distance of eleven miles.

Curtiss Flies Over Sea.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 6.—Glenn H. Curtiss this evening made another flight over the ocean, spending twelve minutes and thirteen seconds in the air. Curtiss on his return to the beach declared that he is entirely satisfied that flying over the sea is more certain than flights over land, because of the less sudden change in air-currents.

AVIATORS GET GOLD MEDALS.

J. C. Mars and Eugene Ely, aviators, were presented with gold medals last night by the Colonial Aero club of Chicago, which held the airship and auto contests at Hawthorne. The aviators were the guests at a theater box party.

HORAN REJOICES IN HOPE OF LOSING BUSINESS DUTIES.

"I'm a Fire Fighter, Not a Coal Buyer," Says Chief, Referring to Merriam Body's Recommendation.

"I'd be glad if they'd do it," said Fire Marshal Horan yesterday in reference to that part of the Merriam commission's report on the fire department which recommended that the fire chief be relieved of the business duties connected with the department so as to be free to devote his entire attention to fighting fires.

"I'm a fire fighter," he said. "I'm no coal buyer, and I'd be mighty glad if the council would take the burden of buying coal and hose and horses and that sort of work off my hands. They ought to have a business agent for the department.

"It would be a good thing to take the clerical work off the firemen, too. It isn't right that they should be compelled to perform that sort of work," asserted the official.

OLD MAN DIES FROM HEAT IN A HOSPITAL AMBULANCE.

Another Is Overcome and Falls Off Wagon—Baby Bitten by Dog in Yard of Parents' House.

One man is dead, another was prostrated, and a child was bitten by a dog as the result of the heat yesterday.

Charles West, 70 years old, a civil war veteran, was overcome in his house and died while being removed in an ambulance to a private hospital. He lives at 124 Illinois street.

John McGuire, 30 years old, 2800 West Lake street, was prostrated and fell from his wagon at La Salle avenue and West Division streets, suffering severe injuries about his head and shoulders. He was taken to the Alexian Brothers hospital.

Edward Buckley, 1 year old, 820 La Salle avenue, was bitten in the right hand by a dog which entered the rear yard. The animal ran away when Mrs. Buckley hit it with a broom.

GRAND JURY ACTS ON $400,000 LOAN

USURY ALSO IN AFFAIR.

Civil Suit in Matter Brings to Light Cause for the Criminal Action.

New York, July 6.—[Special.]—When the grand jury was adjourned today the members had still to complete an investigation into charges of grand larceny growing out of a loan transaction in which $400,000 face value of bonds of the Titusville Northern railway had been put up as collateral. The Carnegie Trust company had been the eventual holder of 300 of the $1,000 bonds, and the first flash from the Criminal Courts building of the grand jury's activities led to rumors that the bonds had been stolen from the Carnegie Trust company's vaults.

The trust company was prompt in denying the rumors, which have excited the financial district, but investigation of the transaction by which the Carnegie Trust company came into possession of the railroad bonds developed charges of usury against the former management which ended when the late C. C. Dickinson retired as president.

Details of a civil suit then became known, in which it was complained that during the Dickinson administration commissions amounting to $17,625 had been exacted for the trust company on loans of $66,345. Incidentally an unusual transaction in American Piano stock was brought to light, the borrower alleging that he was forced to buy at a fancy valuation.

Rumors of Theft Denied.

The spring which opened up the whole matter of the Dickinson loans was a rumor which came from the Criminal Court building early in the day that the $400,000 in bonds which was the subject of the grand jury's inquiry, had been stolen from the vaults of the trust company. The papers telling of the alleged theft created a sensation in Wall street until denials came from Joseph B. Reichman, president of the Carnegie Trust company, the district attorney's office, and from the office of the state banking department.

To clinch his statement that there were no securities missing, President Reichman exhibited the 300 $1,000 bonds, which are the total appearing on account of the Carnegie Trust company's loan.

The loan transaction which has been under investigation by the grand jury had in its inception nothing to do with the Carnegie Trust company and grew out of a promotion scheme engineered by Charles E. Wellborne, who was fined $500 and got an eighteen months' sentence for useing the mails to defraud. He was president of the Titusville Northern railway company last year and in furtherance of a plan for a $50,000,000 holding company to consolidate this projected railroad, with a number of local public utilities, took up with C. W. Chapman, a loan broker of 25 Broad street.

It was Chapman who appeared as the borrower in the Carnegie loan transactions, and who received the $400,000 of Titusville Northern bonds. Mr. Chapman today admitted he still had control of $100,000 of the bonds and was holding them as security for money loaned to Wellborne's agent. The remaining $300,000, he explained, had gone in with other securities not readily marketable as collateral for loans arranged with C. C. Dickinson, then president of the Carnegie Trust company. He said that he had received in all about $40,000 cash from the trust company, and in furthering the financial schemes of Wellborne and his associates had signed notes with the Carnegie Trust company aggregating nearly $67,000. Of the cash received, he said $25,000 had gone to Wellborne, and the remainder in smaller amounts to others concerned in the Titusville enterprises.

Usury Charges of Chapman.

The answer of Chapman recites his dealings with the late President Dickinson from June 21 of last year on. His first loan was for $2,500 on a demand promissory note, for which, it is alleged, a consideration of $500 was charged, which, the defense says, made the note "illegal, usurious, void, and invalid to the extent of $500."

The next transaction was a sixty day loan for $12,000 made in the name of C. M. Sexton, who, Mr. Chapman alleges, was the financial agent of Wellborne and the one who delivered to him the Titusville Northern bonds for hypothecation. For granting this accommodation, it is alleged, a commission of $2,000 was charged.

The note which involved the turning over to the trust company of the $200,000 of Titusville Northern bonds was executed on Aug. 3, for $27,000, and was also for sixty days. The "usurious" consideration alleged in this instance was $1,250. Besides the Titusville bonds, which were put up in two batches, one of $100,000 and another of $200,000, in the form of collateral behind a $25,000 note of the railway company, there were 200 shares of the stock of the United Surety company, and personal notes of Ernest J. Knabe Jr., and William Knabe, aggregating $50,000.

Charles C. Dickinson, president of the company when the loan was made, died in St. Luke's hospital here on May 24. A physician acting for a casualty concern said that he died from heart trouble, but the coroner, also a physician, directed the jury to return a verdict that death had come from inhaling gases that arose from chemicals used in an experiment in a Scranton laboratory.

MOTORCYCLE IS HIT BY AUTO

One of Riders, Hurled from Tandem Machine, Injured.

JUDGES TALK OF SPEEDING.

One Municipal Jurist Favors Cells for Reckless Drivers.

AUTO FATALITIES OF YEAR............133

Lock and A. J. Stoll were riding north at a fast pace when they ran into the automobile going in the opposite direction. Both riders were thrown from the motorcycle. The police took Lock to Wesley hospital.

Auto Hit by Car; One Dead.

John L. Pratt of St. Paul, a real estate and tax agent for the Chicago Great Western railroad, died at St. Luke's hospital early in the morning of injuries received Tuesday night, when a new automobile he was driving was struck by a south-bound Cottage Grove avenue car at East Twenty-first street and Indiana avenue.

The machine was partly wrecked when it was struck by the car and Pratt was thrown to the pavement and his skull was fractured.

Patrolman Frank Malone of the traffic squad was knocked down and severely injured by an automobile owned and driven by J. Silverman, 1869 Millard avenue, shortly before noon.

The accident happened at Jackson boulevard and State street and was witnessed by many persons. Malone received severe lacerations on his head. He is also believed to be injured internally.

Judges Talk of Fines.

Judge Uhlir, who has assessed some heavy fines recently, said that he believes much of the reckless driving in Chicago's streets is due to freedom granted young men in using machines belonging to their parents.

"These boys should be stopped at any cost," said Judge Uhlir. "They have no right to take out machines and put in jeopardy the lives of persons who have to use the streets. A stay in jail would teach them a lesson they would not soon forget, and I am in favor of putting them behind the bars if they will not cease to violate the law."

Pleads for Poor Drivers.

Judge Wells took the position that many of the drivers who are arraigned earn but $10 or $12 a week and, therefore, should not be fined heavily.

Judge Stewart expressed a belief that the judges should get together and formulate some plan by which they could be governed in dealing with those who are found guilty.

AUTO RACER KILLED ON TRACK.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 6.—An automobile driven by Thomas Kincade, moving at a speed of sixty miles an hour, ran off a high embankment at the motor speedway today, burying Kincade and killing him instantly. Kincade was driving a National car on a practice trial for speed.

Known as Fast Driver.

Kincade had been employed by the National Motor Vehicle company for several years, and during the last two years had been engaged exclusively in driving racing cars. He had appeared in many of the big track and road events in verious parts of the country, and was regarded as one of the fastest drivers in the racing game.

He lived in this city and was married. His last public appearance was on July 4, when he started in the 200 mile race for the Cobe trophy. Kincade led in this race during the first lap, but was forced to drop back on account of trouble with the spark plugs of his car.

His last notable victory was at Atlanta early this year, when he and his driving partner, John Aitken, won a 200 mile race on a two mile racecourse.

AUTO TIRE MEN FORM UNION.

New York, July 6.—[Special.]—Leon D. Kauffman, president of the Moto Bloc Import company, dealers in automobile tires and accessories, today filed with the Supreme court an affidavit charging that several manufacturers of automobile tires and accessories are in a combination to force independent dealers out of business, to raise prices, and seize for themselves all retailers' profits. Kauffman's affidavits reveal how great a force is the retailers' profit in the cost of tires and accessories to the consumer.

Kauffman charges that what is known as the Dealers' Protective association has been formed with the last few months and composed of retailers in whose business the manufacturers have an interest. Other dealers, including his own company, Kauffman says, have to get their goods at consumers' prices.

Supreme Court Justice Giegerich, after reading Kauffman's affidavit, signed an order today for an examination before the trial of Lee W. Bennett, who, Kauffman says, organized the Dealers' Protective association, and Joseph M. Gilbert, one of its directors. Bennett is connected with the General Auto Supply company. According to Kauffman, the association includes manufacturers who furnish 90 per cent of the tires and automobile accessories in the metropolitan district.

The companies accused by Kauffman include the Continental Caoutchouc company, the Diamond Rubber company, the Fisk Rubber company, and G. & J. Tire company, the Hartford Rubber Works company, the B. F. Goodrich company of New York, the B. F. Goodrich company of Ohio, the Morgan & Wright company of New York, and the Morgan & Wright company of Michigan.

THE MOTH.

It is not difficult these nights to imagine how the legends of the warlike Pallas Athene, Brunnhilde, and the Amazons were conceived or where the Franks got their conception of an island governed and defended by women knights. We suspect that when the Greeks were nomads, some artist savage, lolling by torch light in his tent of skins, saw a look of fierce and militant determination spread itself over the face of the wife of his bosom; saw her jump from her cushion of furs and dance ecstatically about in the limited space, clapping her hands together as if in the rhapsody of battle and crying shrilly.

We imagine him crawling abruptly under the tent flat, like a wise man who wastes no time in futile inquiries, but who makes the best use of the moment allotted to departure. We imagine him later, when the sounds of high voiced rage have died away within his domicile, venturing to project his head beyond the tent opening, looking an inquiry which he dares not voice, and we hear the wife of his bosom exclaiming in a liquid language which we cannot present in exact form, but which we can translate:

"It was a moth and it got away."

The following day we find the artist savage endeavoring to chip in the face of a cliff the expression of intellectual savagery which he was alarmed to find in the ordinarily gentle countenance of his life companion. Gradually this conception of feminine militancy found expression as succeeding generations of Greeks came to the secure possession of their art, and now if you will look on the just, cold, stern face of Pallas Athene you will find there the judicial joy of a lady who has just killed a moth, and if you will listen to Mme. Gadski singing the battle cry of Brunnhilde you will hear a lady who is in the act of hunting one down.

If no statue of Athene be convenient and your recollection of Mme. Gadski be not satisfactory, you will have abundant opportunity to observe the feminine expression in your own household. Every night brings its moth and screens deter them not. What you witness as one flutters towards the reading lamp was the beginning of the Amazonian legend.

A CITIZEN'S PRIMER.

Most of the people of Illinois haven't the least knowledge of what happens in their legislature. That is why they keep sending unfit men to Springfield. The beginning of better things is, therefore, to tell the people what actually happens. Exhortations to civic virtue are worth little without the concrete illustration of facts.

It is because of this THE TRIBUNE recently regretted that every voter in Illinois could not be present at the experience meeting in Peoria, when men who have gone to Springfield to urge measures in the public interest told what happened to them and the bills for which they sought a fair hearing.

But if the voters could not be brought to Peoria, these true stories might be made up into a little pamphlet and sent to the voters. It would be a primer or first reader to teach citizens by concrete illustrations how things are run by their misrepresentatives. The dialogue between the president of the Retail Merchants' association and Representative John J. McLaughlin on the regulation of express charges would make good reading, and so would many similar episodes showing how the fate of measures like the commission government bill or the state civil service bill came to be what it was.

The character and backing of these bills should be briefly described and the names of those immediately responsible for their fate given, and a chapter or two tracing responsibility up to its main sources should close the booklet.

THE PEOPLE AND THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL.

The Illinois Central railroad is a corporation which in an early and unprophetic time secured from the legislature the most valuable access to and terminal situation in Chicago.

There is no disposition among reasonable men to underestimate the important and necessary part played by the Illinois Central and other railroads in the growth of this community. But neither is there a disposition to overlook the fact that these corporations were hospitably received and supported, and that the community conscience need not be at this time burdened with any sense of unpaid obligation.

The case of the Illinois Central railroad has been for some years a salient phase of the problem of city betterment. Fortified in its rights and insolent in its consciousness of unusual advantage, it has trailed its sooty fingers across every hope the people have cherished for the substantial improvement of the city's physical appearance and for the amelioration of living conditions. The reluctance of the company to do its duty by the community, to live decently as private individuals must do with respect to the rights and interests of their neighbors, the stubborn resistance steadily opposed to every appeal for a mitigation of the conditions created by the railroad, its indifference to mechanical advances made in the equipment and operation of other railroads, all this has piled up a mountain of offense which the community must and will assault until it is removed.

The smoke nuisance created by the Illinois Central has cost millions to the people of the south side in the depreciation of property, in doctors' bills, in attempts to solve the impossible problem of cleanliness.

This burden has been dumped upon the patient shoulders of the public for many years. Since the successful establishment of the electric operating system in New York this burden is known to be unnecessary and the demand for relief has redoubled. But this demand is met by evasion. It is said that electrification is an experiment. That is no longer true. But what if it were? Chicago has as much a right to demand progressive experimentation by its public utilities as New York.

Several years ago it was announced that the Illinois Central management would investigate the New York "experiment" and begin to move toward electrification. But the movement has been at a snail's pace, and it is safe to predict that it will never reach its destination unless it is vigorously spurred by a determined public opinion.

This ought to be a good time to precipitate the public will upon the situation. It might be pointed out to the company with force that the millions to be saved by the exposure of car frauds may best be expended upon the changes in equipment demanded by the public interest. And it may be added that if a part of the energy applied to resisting or side tracking the attempts of the public to bring about a progressive policy in this road had been expended upon an alert management the company would not have been mulcted as it has been, and would have had the resources necessary to rehabilitation and a change of motive power.

However that may be, Chicago should no longer endure the public nuisance maintained under the title and authority of the Illinois Central railroad. The crowding of tired patrons like sheep into cattle cars should be stopped peremptorily. The fouling of the air with soot, and gas, and cinders should be stopped. Electrification should be compelled.

Here is a crusade the people must enlist in. THE TRIBUNE long ago enlisted, but the time is now ripe for results. Every individual on the south side can act effectively by making his opinion known through the press and directly to the aldermen and city authorities. Two weeks from today THE TRIBUNE will review the situation again, and twice a month or oftener this subject will be brought emphatically before our readers until the public interest receives attention from this corporation. No newspaper alone can win in such a struggle. But the people can win if they will fight and keep on fighting with us.

NO DUAL PRESIDENCY.

Shortly before the recurrence of Mr. Roosevelt he was author of a statement which was construed into tidings of great joy by many who are not only able to dissemble their love but would be highly pleased to kick him down the stairs of oblivion. He, misunderstood in an offhand remark, said that there need be no perplexity regarding the disposition of ex-presidents so far as that problem related to him—that he was a former president who proposed to dispose of himself.

Any comfort which the Philistines extracted from that statement has vanished. Its place has been taken by unrest and foreboding. Mr. Roosevelt is disposing of himself, yes; he also is displaying a tendency to dispose of numerous personalities and problems.

Frequently THE TRIBUNE gives offense to some of its readers by testifying to its high regard of Mr. Roosevelt's accomplishments and character. It does not believe itself to be blind to the amusing side of his nature and acts, but it does not need to repeat its statements of what it considers to be his importance to the country.

That, however, makes it easy to say that it is not prepared for the immediate transfer of the presidential office from Washington and Beverly to Oyster Bay, and it is not prepared for the establishment of a dual presidency. The situation is perverse and obstinate. Men to whom Mr. Roosevelt's name is an incentive to instant wrath are able to place the blame without trouble on Roosevelt, the newspapers, and the "fanatical radicals" of the Republican party. That is easy, but not intelligent.

It is not only Mr. Roosevelt's right but it is his duty to interest himself in the problems of the nation. It certainly is his right to give his influence to the men and principles he believes to be right. It is the privilege of the newspapers to proportion space according to news value, and so long as Mr. Roosevelt makes news he will continue to "get into the papers," notwithstanding the pain it gives to some perturbed readers.

The responsibility for the situation is not easily placed. It is the more perverse for that reason. If Mr. Roosevelt were the incoming president and if Mr. Taft were dusting out his desk so as to leave it tidy, we would have logically what we now have illogically.

The colonel was in less danger when he was hunting lions than he is now, as the lion hunted. His common sense doubtless will be equal to the demands made on it, and for the rest of us about the only thing necessary is to remember that the summer home of the president of the United States is Beverly.

"WHERE ARE WE AT?"

Ald. Fisher's attempt to get something like definite information as to the present status of the subway matter must be viewed with sympathy by the general public. It was more than a year ago that Ald. Foreman, upon whose shoulders rests the chief responsibility for action in this respect, announced that a vigorous program was to be begun. In earnest of this announced determination, Ald. Foreman appointed three or four subcommittees, to which were assigned the duties of investigation and consideration of the main phases of the subway problem, such as the character, rights, and needs of underground utilities, the relation and requirements of the elevated roads to the subway, etc.

The broad decision of the Supreme court in the Barsaloux case has now placed within the city's financial means the funds for an immediate beginning. But the city seems to have been caught without a policy, without agreements negotiated with the utility corporations involved, without, apparently, a settlement as to any of those preliminary matters which were supposed to be under consideration during the last year.

If this is to be the rate of our progress we might as well dismiss the subway problem to the next generation.

RUSH THE HARBOR PRELIMINARIES

The city council has now declared definitely for the public ownership and control of the proposed outer harbor north of the river mouth.

The next steps are plain. Enabling legislation should be drafted and negotiations with the sanitary board should be pushed to definite settlement. Specific plans and estimates cannot be made until this is done.

But it also is to be kept in mind that no piers or docks on the lake are feasible without the inclosure of the north basin. This work should be assured by pledging congressional candidates to use their influence actively at Washington to secure it.

IT would be painful, anyhow, if not demoralizing, to see the moving pictures of that fight.

DID not Mr. Corbett, who was watching the combat, say that when the knockout blow landed it hurt him worse than it did Jeffries?

SOMEBODY suggests stocking the great lakes with fur seals. A seal might lead a merry life in those waters, but they are not good for sea lions, as the late Big Ben soon found out.

SHOULD the drought in Michigan assume a threatening form, however, the fruit raisers over there will know where to place their want ads calling for rain.

SOME persons were hurt in celebrating the Fourth of July and some were hurt while celebrating the Johnson victory. Care should be taken not to get the statistics mixed.

LET it be understood, at the same time, that the colonel and Mr. Ballinger are not saying anything against each other in quotation marks.

OF the 800,000 or more words sent by telegraph from Reno last Monday it is apparent now that there were at least 54,317 that might have been omitted without marring the record. They were the words used in padding out the bald and simple statement that Mr. Jeffries had not "come back."

IN A MINOR KEY.

There by Right.

Abou Ben Adhem had discovered that his name led all the rest.

"Well," he said, "alphabetically, that's where it belongs."

Dropping a tear of sympathy for poor Xenophon, whose name was near the foot of the list, he kept right on loving his fellow men.

Nothing Left.

"If you think Drearyhurst will show up so much bigger in the census than Lonelyville will," said Squire Durnitt, "s'pose we make a little bet on it."

A spasm of pain convulsed the face of Uncle Welby Gosh.

"Nothin' doin'," he said. "I had sev'ral bets up on Jeffries."

Wrong Diagnosis.

"Your system seems to be all run down You need a rest."

"A rest? Why, doctor, I'm a bridgetender!"

Complications.

Sfiint—Well, you won a gallon of real Scotch on the fight, didn't you?

Snoodle—No; the other fellow Welshed.

Side Lights on History.

Magellan was sailing through the strait that bears his name.

"This is a good deal better than waiting to go through the Panama ditch," he said. "It's sea level, and there are no tolls to pay."

But it is believed that he had become prejudiced by reading Admiral Bob Evans' magazine articles on the canal.

Their Cases Different.

"Verena," cautioned the mistress, "I shall expect you to guard against waste and breakage."

"Very well, mum," said the new cook, "I'll do me best."

"You must remember that Mr. Throgson and I have to live within our income."

"Yes, mum, an' you must remember that I don't have to do that."

Looking on the Bright Side.

"There's one good thing about that prize fight," remarked Rivers, trying to be cheerful; "so far as I have observed, nobody has written it up as a 'grueling contest.'"

MARQUISE DE FONTENOY

[Copyright: 1910: By the Brentwood Company.]

ALTHOUGH there is no foundation for the story that the present administration in England had in view the Duke of Fife for the successorship of Lord Grey as governor general of Canada, yet it is a fact that the office was pressed upon the duke twelve years ago by Joseph Chamberlain, at that time secretary of state for the colonies. The duke was obliged to decline on the ground of the health of his wife, the Princess Royal, and I have before me the copy of a letter of the duke explaining this reason for his refusal of the post.

He was influenced in the matter not only by the ill health of his wife but also by her extraordinary shyness, which has caused her to shun all court functions ever since her girlhood and to avoid the limelight of publicity which invariably beats about royalty.

While this would have proved a drawback in the wife of a governor general, who is rather expected to assume the leadership of society during her husband's term of office, there is no doubt that both the duke and the duchess have many qualities that would have endeared them to the Canadian people, notably their complete simplicity of manner and of life and their hatred of that court ceremonial which the Toronto Globe described the other day as totally unsuited to the dominion and as objectionable to public sentiment there.

When the Duke of Fife married the eldest daughter of Edward VII. he made one stipulation—namely, that his wife should be permitted to lead with him the life of a mere noblewoman, instead of that of a princess of the reigning house.

It is owing to this that, despite being princess royal of Great Britain, she is the only woman member of the royal family who has neither ladies in waiting nor equerries and gentlemen in waiting, who is free to go about anywhere, unattended, no matter whether it be for a stroll in Hyde park or on a shopping expedition in Bond street. She has no redcoated sentinel at the door of her London residence in Portman square, and is entirely free from all the tiresome restrictions placed by etiquette upon the movements of royalty.

The Duke and Duchess of Connaught, on the other hand, although unaffected and cordial in their manner, always are environed by a certain amount of state which has become part and parcel of their existence. They have been accustomed thereto throughout their entire lives, the duchess in particular, as a princess of the reigning house of Prussia, which is so strict in questions of etiquette, while the duke's tenure of many high military offices also has contributed thereto.

It is well enough to say that the Duke of Connaught used to insist upon being treated as a mere soldier. But when that soldier happens to be a commanding general or field marshal, with a large staff of officers in personal attendance, from the rank of major general down to captain, there is not much simplicity of life or absence of ceremonial.

The Duchess of Connaught is a charming and kindly woman. But she has a keen sense of what is due to her royal rank, and when at the coronation durbar at Delhi the late Lady Curzon, as wife of the viceroy, was put beside her in such a way as to convey an impression of equality of rank she deliberately, in the sight of all the assembled vassal rulers and feudatory princes of India, allowed her handkerchief to drop to the ground for Lady Curzon to pick up.

Lady Curzon, who was Miss Mary Leiter of Washington and Chicago, thoroughly understood the object of the duchess. For the latter already had given signs of displeasure at being relegated to a place in line with the viceroy's wife instead of preceding her.

There was a momentary hesitation on the part of Lady Curzon when the handkerchief dropped, and both women looked at one another, not in an altogether particularly friendly manner. Then Lady Curzon bent down and picked up the handkerchief from the ground and handed it to the duchess, the deep flush, succeeded by an intense pallor, plainly indicating how she felt about the matter.

The Duke of Fife, in the letter to which I have referred above, gives expression to the hope, apparently shared by his royal relatives, that in some future time four of King George's five sons may be representing their father as governor general of the four principal colonial dependencies—namely, Australia, the dominion of Canada, British South Africa, and India—on the ground that loyalty to the crown, and to the dynasty, constitutes the most powerful bond that links the colonies to the mother country, and that with a royal prince as governor general this bond will be emphasized and strengthened.

That is true. But there are disadvantages. The first of these is that the surroundings, the ceremonial, and the etiquette of a court are inevitable in cases where a royal prince holds the position of governor general, no matter how democratically simple his manner.

And then, too, there is the danger that the affection and loyalty to the crown, as represented by him, may be damaged, if not destroyed, through the people of the colony holding him responsible, as executive, for some unpopular and obnoxious measure insisted upon by the imperial government.

The Baron Ungern-Sternberg, arrested at St. Petersburg on a charge of having taken advantage of his position as the representative of a foreign news agency in the Muscovite capital to sell valuable papers belonging to the Russian government to foreign powers, is, I understand, Baron Ernest, who has led an adventurous career, having served in the foreign legion of the Dutch army in the Dutch East Indies and also under the Boer flag in the South African war. He belongs to one of the old houses of the aristocracy of Esthonia—that is to say, of the Baltic provinces of Russia—and in olden times his ancestors amassed wealth as wreckers on the island of Dago, causing the loss of many a ship by misleading lights.

The Ungern-Sternbergs say they descend in a direct line from one of the three kings who visited Bethlehem at the time of the birth of Christ, and who are known in scripture as the "Three Wise Men of the East." According to tradition, the names of these three Magi were Melchior, Gaspard, and Balthazzar.

Gaspard is alleged to be the ancestor of the Ungern-Sternbergs. The French noble family of de Vogue boasts of an unbroken descent from Melchior, while another French house—namely, the de Beaux of Provence—shows a genealogical tree, at the root of which is Balthazzar.

On two occasions has the name of Ungern-Sternberg come before the public in recent times. Thus, I can recall King Oscar of Sweden issuing a decree, something over twenty years ago, for the liberation from life imprisonment, and for the complete rehabilitation, of a Baron Ungern-Sternberg, who in 1875 was sentenced to penal servitude for the remainder of his days, as well as the forfeiture of his title, on the charge of having murdered one of his neighbors, Count Brockendorf, a land owner like himself, with whom he had quarreled about a sale of property, and who was found dead, killed by a gunshot wound.

The baron was convicted of the crime, whereupon his wife became insane, and his only son, a young officer in a crack regiment of Swedish hussars, blew out his brains. Some years later the death bed confession of a convict serving a term of penal servitude for poaching revealed the fact that it was he who was the murderer and that the baron was innocent.

In another instance the Russian nihilist, Jaluskofski, perpetrator of an anarchist outrage at Liege, in Belgium, was found to have stolen the papers and passports of a Baron Ungern-Sternberg, who was Russian consul at Cadiz. The man was caught, and his identity made clear. But to this day there are numbers of people who, ignorant of this, still associate the name of Baron Ungern-Sternberg with the anarchist outrage at Liege, as perpetrator of this and other crimes, and as one of the leaders of the nihilist party.

WHERE TWINS ARE COMMON.

The village of High Halden, near Ashford, undoubtedly holds the record for the number of twins born there. Ten children, all of whom are twins, attend the village school regularly. Every morning two older twins can be seen carrying two younger twins to school, all being members of one family.—Westminster Gazette.

A LINE-O'-TYPE OR TWO.

WHEN IT IS HOT.

And Nebuchadnezzar commanded the most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.—Daniel, 1:3.

Consider Mr. Shadrach,
Of fiery furnace fame;
He didn't bleat about the heat
Or fuss about the flame.
He didn't stew and worry,
And get his nerves in kinks,
And other "cooling drinks."

Consider Mr. Meshach,
Who felt the furnace, too;
He let it sizz, nor queried "Is
It hot enough for you?"
He didn't mop his forehead,
And hunt a shady spot;
Believe me, it's some hot."

Consider, too, Abed-nego,
Who shared his comrades' plight;
He didn't shake his coat and make Himself a holy sight.
He didn't wear suspenders
Without a coat and vest;
Nor did he scowl and snort and howl,
And make himself a pest.

Consider, friends, this trio—
How little fuss they made.
They didn't curse when it was worse
Than ninety in the shade.
They moved about serenely,
Within the furnace bright,
And soon forgot that it was hot,
With "no relief in sight."

"WHY do men wear whiskers in July?" queries Walt Mason. Because, O fat bard, it costs money to get shaved or to shave oneself. There may be other reasons, but they are incompetent and irrelevant.

BATTERS, ATTENTION!

[From the British Weekly.]

Mrs. Lister, a kind old lady, invites a young girl, Gwen Coleridge, to stay with her. Mrs. Lister had stayed with the Coleridges. The first night of Gwen's visit to her there is carrot soup at dinner, and Mrs. Lister beamingly remarks, "Your mother told me how very fond you were of carrots, my dear, so I took the opportunity of getting a sack of them from the country in honor of your visit, and you shall have them every day." Gwen knows Mrs. Lister must be confusing her with some one else, because she rather dislikes carrots. Mrs. Lister is obviously delighted with her plan, and says, "There will be carrot pudding tomorrow!" What should Gwen do?

The British Weekly offers prizes for the best solution of "Problems of Conduct"; and as these problems are just as important here as there, we desire in a like manner to induce their solution. A beautiful hand picked Wheaton carrot to the reader sending in the most satisfactory answer to the question, "What should Gwen do?"

NOW that the African race has won, suppose we turn the whole prize fighting business over to them. The ayes appear to have it.

THE NEXT ROUND IS ON THE HOUSE.

[From Standard Opinion.]

Harry McCall, who graces the Stratford hotel bar, is one of the brightest and most popular wits who ever donned a white vest and white apron. Harry's friends are legion everywhere, and he commands the confidence and respect of the leading business men of Chicago. It's a safe bet that many a dollar finds its way into the Stratford strong box simply because the spender goes a long distance out of his way to have a hearty handshake and "pleasant smile" with genial Harry McCall.

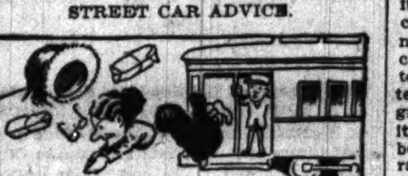
STREET CAR ADVICE.



This passenger is leaving the car the wrong way—the UNSAFE way. Always go feet first when alighting.

PEOPLE complain of the obscurity of Browning and Meredith, and there is no denying their difficulty at times; but in describing scenery and familiar objects they did not find it necessary to provide their readers with maps and diagrams. Listen to this, from C. N. and A. M. Williamson:

"Pour, as we did, a bottle of ink over a sheet of white paper and you will get the idea of the walls at once. For the other effect, take an ordinary board, and cut out a square hole with a fretsaw; this will give you a rough impression of the size of the window."

MR. BALLINGER fears that T. R. has been misinformed, as this fellow Poindexter is a Socialist, or on the edge of being one. But he is worse than that: he is a conservationist.

A MICHIGAN ORGY.

Last Saturday John Geboo and his Sunday school class spent the afternoon at the home of Miss Mildred Wissman. The time was spent with games and a general good time. Repairing to the hay loft, it did not take long to find out who was the champion jumper, one girl jumping from the height of fifteen feet into the hay below. At 5:30 the merry party took their departure, voting Miss Mildred a royal hostess.—Montague Observer.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

PEORIA CONFERENCE'S ACTION.

Bloomington, Ill., July 5.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—In yesterday's TRIBUNE under the headlines of "City Club Bares Graft at the Capital" is an article so written I feel a statement is proper both as to the Peoria conference and to myself.

I do not recall that any report made to that meeting charges there was legislative graft at Springfield "running up into hundreds of thousands of dollars"; nor has any one, as far as I know, said for the conference that such a statement is "to be printed in pamphlet form and spread broadcast among citizens."

Two or three of the specific items in the article were stated at Peoria by men of high character. I do not have any personal knowledge of, and am not responsible for, any of them, further than I have said such statements were made.

By typographical error the legislature alleged to have been in session but a few hours a month is given as in 1909. The statement was: It was several years before that.

CHARLES L. CAPEN.

IN SUPPORT OF MR. COLE.

Chicago, July 3.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—Dear sir: In a recent editorial is expressed the opinion that Mr. George E. Cole exaggerates when he says that the bribery exposures simply reflect the moral turpitude and want of honesty of the people as a whole. Don't you think that when 33 per cent of the Browne jury could vote for acquittal that Mr. Cole is unpleasantly near being right in his statement?

J. W. W.

ED HOWE AND PROHIBITION.

Chicago, July 2.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—You have been publishing many of the opinions of Editor Ed Howe of the Atchison, Kas., Globe. Mr. Howe for years has been a bitter opponent of the prohibition law in that state. Recently he has expressed a change of conviction. For more than two years the law has been well enforced in Atchison. Mr. Howe says in a recent issue of the Globe:

"We are almost ashamed because of our position on prohibition. For many years we honestly believed that prohibition was not an affective temperance measure. Since the saloons have been closed in Atchison we are half-persuaded that there is something in prohibition. Some say there is no decrease in drunkenness. We know better. Chief Sullivan says there is undoubtedly less drunkenness than before the saloons were closed. The chief says a drunken man is so unusual now that he is regarded as a crazy man was formerly regarded. We have always practiced temperance, and we have always preached it, but somehow we got a notion that prohibition was not an effective temperance measure. We are often wrong; and, when we are, we admit it. If prohibition continues to prohibit in Atchison, we may become a long haired man and join the short haired woman."

DUNCAN C. MILNER.

HOW MANY WOULD KNOW?

Elgin, Ill., July 4.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—Apropos of your editorial on the subject of Latin, I desire to say that the sentiment there expressed was excellent. It is one of the things which all of us feel from our own experience, but which we seldom see so well written and set forth. It seems to be the lack of thoroughness, of fitness, that is keeping the literary standards of this country back. Our people have no time to love Horace and Catullus. The nation is in a hurry. We have produced few men who were scholars as Goldwin Smith was a scholar, for this reason, but it is to be hoped that time will bring changes here as elsewhere. And yet it is a peculiar thing that many of our typical business men, who have no time for the classics, have yet obtained at least a passing acquaintance with them which often surprises us when we encounter it. Only recently I was speaking to a Chicago railroad man, one who seemingly gives no thought to anything beyond diagrams and cars, when in the course of our talk he entered upon a dissertation concerning the letters v, u, and w, which occasioned me so great surprise that I was unable to conceal it. He smiled and said: "No, I have never been to college; I have spent my life with the railroad. But that does not mean that I have no knowledge of Latin, or that the origin of our own tongue is a sealed book to me." And not long since, in one of our department stores, I met two floorwalkers, one of whom quoted Demosthenes on the Crown by way of illustrating an argument, and the other of whom, when I remarked on some badly managed details of his department, replied: "O tempora! O mores! Senatus haec intellegit, consul videt; hic tamen vivet!" One must appreciate Cicero and Aristophanes to include them in a casual chat with a friend. I freely admit that my old age-tattered Æschylus is worth more to me than all the poets dead and gone, whether from the Mermaid or the Quatier Latin. But the question arises: How many of the people who walk past the floorwalker, with their heads high and their silks swishing, would know what the Choephorae or the Pro Archia stood for? Which, after all, leads us back to your editorial.

PEACE WITH FORCE.

Chicago, July 5.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—Supplementing E. G. Lancaster's mild protest against the pandemonium caused by automobilists and motorcyclists in Kenmore avenue, he neglected to enumerate other nuisances which have transformed a quiet residential street into a speedway for featherbrained irresponsibles of both sexes. Attention of Chief of Police Steward and the Illinois Humane society is directed to a horde of embryonic equestrians that use their endeavors to exterminate a lot of perfectly good and willing horses in breakneck speed contests. The clattering of hoofs on the asphalt pavement, nerve destroying though it be, is but a faint echo of the blatant "bazoos" of the "gas barouches." We of the neighborhood of Kenmore and Leland avenues have passed the period of moral suasion, and are contemplating the organization of a physical force committee. We may resort to the plebeian tack, the puncturing proclivity of which is not denied; we may be forced to use salt laden armament, as we purpose to have peace—if we have to fight for it. Regards to Barney Mullaney. Mayor Busse please write.

BRITISH IN EGYPT.

Des Moines, Ia., July 2.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—Your editorial on England in Egypt has revived the now famous lecture at the Guildhall by the ex-president. While I regard his utterances as being "a breach of international manners," yet at the same time I, as an Englishman, welcome them upon the ground of the support such utterances, coming from such a man, have given and will give to the present government. It is on a par with the colonel's tribute to British rule in India. But Great Britain evidently didn't wave "the big stick" quick enough for the impetuous colonel. They do things more slowly but more surely there. One thing, however, is certain, i. e., Great Britain's rule is an unmixed blessing to humanity; and that wherever the British ensign floats, to use the words of an American public man to me recently, "one feels safe."

ENGLISHMAN.

ALSO WEARY.

Chicago, July 6.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—Kindly list me with Charles B. Belden, whose note appears on your editorial page today as being weary of Roosevelt and longing for a rest. If Roosevelt had been in evidence when Barrie wrote "Better Dead," referring to people who were so much in evidence as to be infernal nuisances, he would certainly have been the first one mentioned.

IN THE RELIGIOUS WORLD

"The New Christianity."

Prof. Shailer Mathews of the University of Chicago divinity school and one of the editors of the Biblical World, yesterday explained the attitude of the university in promulgating the so-called "new Christianity" in the current number of the magazine.

The religion as outlined is called "scientific, ethical, practical, and altruistic." One of the statements made is that "if there be a controversy between Genesis and geology the new Christianity will stand by geology."

"This is nothing in advance of what we have preached for years," said Dr. Mathews. "The only new thing is that we have pleased to call it a new Christianity. It is in accord with progressive religious thought. It is an attempt to bring the Bible down to date, and to fit it to modern conditions. There is nothing about it at which fair minded men can take offense."

Foes of the University of Chicago brand of theological reasoning, including the Rev. Johnston Myers and the Rev. A. C. Dixon, are out of the city. The Rev. W. A. Matthews of Tabernacle Baptist church termed the opinions in the editorial "another eruption of Mount Vesuvius."

Independent thinking on religious questions is one of the fundamentals of the "new Christianity," according to the editorial. Character and performance will count for more than pure theology as such, say the editors.

"It will recognize the possibility that an honest man may be in great perplexity on many questions of doctrine, and yet be sincerely and wholly devoted to the principle that Jesus taught and exemplified," is one of the statements.

"It will not be without theology, nor will that theology be a series of negations. It will be positive. Its emphasis will be on those things assent to which is a test of character. It will be thoroughgoing in its acceptance of the maxim: 'Whatever is true.'

"In conformity to the same principle the new Christianity will accept the assured results of historical investigation into the records of ancient times. Science and mystery do not easily blend. The man of science tends to reject the mysterious as unreal; the mystic to thrust aside the scientific as irreligious. But Jesus found a way to blend them, and blend they must if religion is to reach its best development."

Waukegan Host to C. E.

The twentieth convention of the Illinois Christian Endeavor union will be held July 13-17 at Waukegan.

The convention will open Wednesday evening with the customary addresses of welcome and responses, which will be followed by an inspirational address.

The Quiet Hour services will be held Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday mornings at 8:15 in the First Presbyterian church.

The morning session of the convention will open at 9:30 in the armory with a song and devotional service.

The Bible society periods will be conducted by the Rev. James G. Gray, D. D., one of the best Bible scholars of the day.

The remainder of the morning will be spent in conference on different lines of Christian Endeavor work. Prayer meeting, lookout, Christian citizenship, missionary, social, junior and intermediate departments will have conferences on Thursday and Friday morning. Other departments, such as officers, personal work, and music, will have one conference.

Thursday evening Prof. Whottaker of the Union Christian College of Merom, Indiana, will deliver the inspirational address.

Friday is to be the "missionary day." In the afternoon Miss Frances B. Patterson, a returned missionary from China, will deliver an address, which will be followed by a general missionary conference conducted by Charles E. McBurney, ex-president of the Chicago C. E. union. Following this the meeting will break up into different denominational rallies in the various churches, meeting again for a closing interdenominational rally at the armory.

In the evening of the same day Mr. B. C. Bonnarjiee of Calcutta, India, who until his conversion to Christianity was a Hindoo, will give an illustrated lecture on life and customs in India.

An intermediate rally, a general conference on C. E. plans, conducted by Field Secretary Karl Lehmann, and an address on "The Spirit of the Truth in the Home" will complete the Saturday afternoon program. The Saturday evening meeting will be a grand civic meeting, the address centering around "The Truth in Public Life." Dr. Francis E. Clark, founder of Christian Endeavor, and president of the world's Christian Endeavor union, will conduct the installation service of the new state officers.

Sunday will be the closing day of the convention. Regular church services will be held in the morning. In the afternoon a chorus of 200 children will present the exercise, "The Junior Garden." Following the junior rally there will be a meeting for women only, conducted by Miss Blanche G. Loveridge, dean of women, Dennison university, Granville, O., and one for men under the leadership of Prof. H. S. Magill, Princeton, Ill.

In the early evening three separate Christian Endeavor meetings will be held, led by representative Endeavorers.

Dr. Francis E. Clark will deliver the closing address of the convention. The last twenty minutes will be used for the renewed consecration and prayer under the leadership of Mr. W. R. Ceperly, the retiring state president.

Two half-days of the convention will be spent in recreation. Saturday morning will be spent at Fort Sheridan.

Break in Unitarian Paper.

New York, July 6.—Strife has developed between the editors and publishers of the Unitarian, a monthly devoted to the interests of Unitarianism, because of what has been thought to have been the expression of socialistic opinions by several of the editors. As a result a new periodical, to be called The Unitarian Advance, is to be started.

The Unitarian was started five years ago by the Rev. George H. Badget, who is the local representative of the Unitarian conference of the middle states. He associated with him several Unitarians, including the Rev. John Haynes Holmes. T. Fortune Pruett published the periodical.

The objection of Mr. Pruett to the editorials of the Rev. Mr. Holmes, on the ground of their alleged radical ideas, started the trouble which has since developed into one that is financial as well as editorial in character. The editors withdrew, repudiating the old periodical in these words:

"A crisis has arisen which makes it impossible for the editors to continue to conduct the periodical in connection with the present publisher. We have made a fair proposition of separation and that proposition has been declined."

Discuss Catholic Schools.

Detroit, Mich., July 6.—Today's session of the National Catholic Education association, in convention here, was devoted to the presentation and discussion of technical papers by the various departments of the association. The Rev. George A. Lyon, superintendent of the parish schools of Boston, and the Rev. E. F. Gibbons of Buffalo spoke before the parish school section. The Rev. John P. Chidwick of Dunwoodie, N. Y., and the Rev. Thomas F. Burke of New York City addressed the seminary department.

Nuns Apply for Citizenship.

Washington, D. C., July 6.—Three cloistered nuns, sister of the Community of the Perpetual Adoration here, have made application for American citizenship. They are Marie Kamp, born in Amsterdam, Holland; Rachelina Maresca, a native of Sorrento, Italy, and Severina Di Giovanni, who first saw the light of day in Piana De Greci, Sicily. The religious names of the would-be citizens do not appear in the applications.

Meeting at Notre Dame.

South Bend, Ind., July 6.—[Special.]—The annual meeting of the council and conference of the Congregation of the Order of the Holy Cross, which controls the majority of Catholic universities, colleges, and seminaries in America is in annual session at Notre Dame. It is understood that few changes will be made in the official family of Notre Dame.

FIRST SERVICES HELD FOR FULLER

ASSOCIATES TO BE HERE.

Sorrento, Me., July 6.—In the Episcopal church of the Redeemer, a little chapel surrounded by evergreen trees, and only a short distance from "Mainstay," where the venerable jurist had passed so many quiet and pleasant summers, was held this afternoon the first funeral service for the late Melville Weston Fuller, chief justice of the Supreme court of the United States.

The church was thronged with relatives, men of national prominence and summer residents of Sorrento, Bar Harbor and other neighboring resorts.

The body of the chief justice, in a black coffin, almost covered with ferns and flowers, rested in front of the altar and was surrounded by floral tributes from relatives and friends, including a beautiful piece from President Taft, who found it impossible to be present.

Quartet Sings Favorite Hymns.

According to the wishes of the late chief justice the funeral services of the Episcopal church ritual was read by the Rev. James E. Freeman of Minneapolis, who is in charge of the Church of the Redeemer and is a close friend of the Fuller family. A quartet from Bar Harbor sang "Lead, Kindly Light," "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and "Peace, Perfect Peace," favorite hymns of Justice Fuller.

The pallbearers were Gov. Hughes of New York, Associate Justices Oliver Wendell Holmes and Joseph McKenna of the United State Supreme court, United States Senator Eugene Hale, Gen. Thomas H. Hubbard of New York, and Nathaniel L. Francis of Washington, a son-in-law of the justice.

With the exception of Mrs. Francis none of the five daughters were able to be present at the services here. In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Francis, Mrs. Paulina Smith and Dixon Weston of Boston, cousins of the late chief justice, and Miss Mildred Aubrey of Chicago, a granddaughter, were present. Because of the close friendship between the late James G. Blaine and Justice Fuller, both at Augusta and Washington, Mrs. Truxton Beale, Mr. Blaine's daughter, was one of those who came to Sorrento.

Messages Are Not Made Public.

Numerous messages of condolence were received today, but at the request of Mrs. Francis the decision not to make them public was not broken.

The afternoon express from the west, bringing many persons who came to attend the funeral, was two hours late. They were met at Mount Desert Ferry and brought here on a private yacht barely in time for the service.

Following the services the body, accompanied by the members of the family, Associate Justices Holmes and McKenna, Gov. Hughes, and the Rev. Mr. Freeman, was taken on a steamer to Mount Desert Ferry, where connection was made with the late afternoon express which reaches Boston at 5:30 o'clock tomorrow morning. From there the body will be taken to Chicago.

Bar Association Delegates Named.

READY FOR SERVICES HERE.

All of the late Chief Justice Fuller's associates on the Supreme court bench, with the exception of Justice Harlan, probably will attend the funeral service tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from St. James' church. Justice White, Justice McKenna, Justice Day, and Justice Lurton yesterday assured S. S. Gregory and Dr. S. M. Moore that they would come, and Justice Holmes will be present.

Other members of the federal judiciary and Gov. Hughes of New York also will attend. They will be escorted by Maj. J. M. Wright, marshal of the court.

Judges of the Superior, Circuit, County, and Probate courts will attend the funeral in a body. This was decided upon yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the judges in the chambers of Judge Charles M. Walker, chief justice of the Circuit court. The courts will also be closed that afternoon.

The Bar association will further honor the memory of Justice Fuller by services in Judge Grosscup's courtroom on Tuesday. Judge Edward O. Brown will deliver a sermon on the life and work of the late Supreme court jurist. The association's members will send a large delegation to the funeral services tomorrow.

A message to Dr. S. M. Moore stated that the body would arrive in Chicago tomorrow afternoon at 12:50 o'clock over the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern road.

The body will be laid beside that of Mrs. Fuller, who died in Sorrento, Me., six years ago and was buried in Graceland cemetery ere.

MISS GENEVIEVE HEWLINGS

GIVES $15,000 FOR NURSERY

Mrs. Levy Mayer Makes Erection of New Building Possible.

KEPT BY JEWISH CHARITIES.

Structure Will Accommodate About Seventy Children.

The erection of a new building for the Helen Day nursery at the northwest corner of Union and Barber streets has been made possible by a gift of $15,000 by Mrs. Levy Mayer to pay for the construction of the building.

The nursery will occupy the tract, 50x100 feet, which has just been purchased from the estate of Moses Elisberg for $7,175, and will be two stories high. It will have a capacity for taking care of about seventy children, or about double the capacity of its present building at 540 West Twelfth place.

Maintained by Jewish Charities.

The plans provide for an attractive building. The front of the second story will consist largely of glass. There will be about ten rooms. The nursery will be maintained by the Associated Jewish Charities.

The institution was established for the purpose of taking care of the children of working Jewish women and it was founded about five years ago, through the efforts of Miss Helen Salomon, after whom it was named.

At the time of the founding of the nursery Miss Salomon was associated with Jane Addams at Hull house, and noticed that working Jewish women were not leaving their children in the crowded nursery there. She took the matter up with other charitably inclined Jewish women with the result that a meeting was called and an organization formed which was called the Helen Day nursery in honor of Miss Salomon.

Had but Two Rooms at Start.

At first the nursery only had two rooms and five babies to take care of, but it has grown steadily, and the plans as they now stand permit of the addition of more rooms when occasion requires.

The present officers of the nursery are: Mrs. Herman Landauer, president; Mrs. Julius Rosenwald, vice president; Mrs. Percy G. Ullman, treasurer; and Mrs. Julius E. Weil, secretary.

AWARD MISS HEWLINGS $4,667

COMPANY SEEKS NEW TRIAL.

Extent of Injury to Stage Aspirant Is Questioned.

Miss Genevieve Hewlings was given a verdict of $4,667 yesterday by a jury in Judge Ben M. Smith's court as a result of her personal injury suit against the Chicago City Railway company. The company's motion for a new trial will be argued July 16.

Miss Hewlings a few years ago was champion oarswoman and girl athlete at Wellesley college. She swooned during cross examination in court at a previous hearing of the suit, which had lasted for several days, and adjournment of the hearing was necessary as a result. Miss Hewlings resides at 1379 East Fifty-third street.

On June 27, it was alleged in the suit, Miss Hewlings was injured in a collision between two street cars at East Fifty-fifth street and Cottage Grove avenue. The railway company admitted she had been hurt, but questioned the extent of her injury. The testimony in the case consisted almost entirely of expert medical opinions.

During her college career and since Miss Hewlings has taken part in a number of private theatricals and upon leaving college had decided upon a theatrical career.

She had been engaged to support Mary Mannering in "A Man's World," which, at the time of her graduation, was playing in New York, but her injury prevented her from accepting the offer. It had been thought Miss Hewlings would be able to join the company when it came to Chicago, but she was still too ill, it is said.

SISTER NATIONS MAY CENSURE U.S.

THREE STATES ANGRY.

Possibly Others Will Join Protest Hinted At in Buenos Aires Meeting.

Washington, D. C., July 6.—That at least three and perhaps more of the Central and South American republics will make a concerted protest of some kind at the coming international conference of American states at Buenos Aires against the Central American policy of the United States is the possibility being discussed in diplomatic circles here.

Rumors to this effect have been persistent of late in quarters usually well informed, and some responsible Latin-American representatives have admitted their approximate truth, though none would permit himself to be quoted. The rumors have led to a lively exchange of information among the Central and South American diplomats here. Officials if the state department are known to be watching the situation closely.

Some of the more radical of the Spanish-Americans are said to be in favor of a Latin-American alliance against the United States. It is generally conceded, however, that formal action of this nature is unlikely.

May Object to U. S. Attitude.

The most that can be regarded as probable is that the republics interested will give the United States to understand diplomatically that the principles represented in the attitude of this government on the east coast of Nicaragua will not be accepted willingly as a part of the international law of the Americas. It is hardly likely that this protest, if made, will become a part of the official proceedings of the conference; it will probably be left to the unofficial work of the assembly.

Notwithstanding a recent statement by the Venezuelan government on the subject, it is still reported here that the Venezuelan delegates will be the leaders in protesting against the attitude of the United States, and that at least two other governments will share the responsibility of the movement.

Madriz Only Known Malcontent.

Doubt exists in Washington as to just what steps of the American government have been distasteful to the sister republics. The only concrete point mentioned in this connection was first phrased by Madriz, president of the government at Managua, when he protested against the action of American marines in preventing an attack by the Madriz forces upon the city of Bluefields.

On the diplomacy of the American delegates to the conference may depend largely the outcome of the matter. In this delegation are such experienced diplomats as Henry White, ambassador to Italy, and later to France. Dr. John Bassett Moore, a recognized authority on international law; also Enoch Herbert Crowder of Missouri, Lewis Nixon of New York, Bernard Moses of California, Lamar Charles Quintero of Louisiana, Paul Samuel Reinsch of Wisconsin, and David Kinley of Illinois.

WETS BLAMED BY MINISTER FOR ATTACK ON PARSONAGE.

Neoga, Ill., July 6.—[Special.]—Anti-prohibitionists are believed by the Rev. R. B. Fisher to have thrown a bomb which wrecked the Presbyterian parsonage here Monday night, and Marshal Munn shares the belief. Munn said today he had suspects under surveillance, and if confirmatory evidence is obtained arrests will be made in a day or two.

The bomb was a climax to a series of troubles which have beset the Rev. Mr. Fisher since he came to Neoga nine months ago. He is being threatened with a libel suit on account of too fervent prayer for the betterment of one of the wealthiest members of his congregation.

The bomb was made of a steel tube loaded with dynamite. It wrecked the porch of the cottage, shattering every window pane in the dwelling. The minister and his wife were uninjured.

Members of the congregation advised them to leave the house with their two children, a girl 6 years old and a boy 3, but Mr. Fisher said he would stick to his post.

"The liquor and gambling element did it," said Mr. Fisher. "I've got them on the run and am going to keep after them. They need not think they can frighten me."

A number of well known women interested in the welfare of St. Vincent's infant asylum will meet this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the French room of the Blackstone hotel to discuss the plans originated at a similar meeting last week to promote the success of field day, the annual athletic meeting held in behalf of this charity, to take place this year July 30 at the west side National league ball park.

The wedding of Miss Clara Ione Hawley, daughter of Dr. George F. Hawley, and Robert A. Kroeschell, son of Mrs. Emma Kroeschell, took place Tuesday evening. Miss Nell Lange acted as maid of honor, and James Sullivan as best man. Julia Allen, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Allen, and niece of the bride, acted as flower girl. She was dressed in a lingerie frock and carried a basket of pink roses. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's father, 757 Buena avenue. Only the family and a few close friends were present.

Mrs. George P. Braun, who was Miss Vesta McFatrick, will attend Miss Rowena Gilbert as bridemaid when she marries Henry Truman Miner next Tuesday. Miss Josephine Lydston will be bridemaid. Mr. Miner will be accompanied by Charles Russell Gilbert as best man. George Dickson Richards of Chicago and Edward B. Hall of San Diego, Cal., will be ushers. The wedding will take place at the residence of the bride, 5121 Washington avenue, and the Rev. William O. Waters of Grace Episcopal church will read the ceremony.

Mrs. Braun gave a luncheon and matinée party for the bridal attendants in the afternoon. This afternoon Mrs. Ira C. Darling of Kenilworth will give a bridge party for the bride-to-be, and tomorrow Miss Marjorie and Miss Dorothy Edwards of 5244 Lexington avenue, will give a dinner for the bride and the bridegroom. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert will give a dinner for their daughter and prospective son-in-law on Saturday.

Grecian Envoy Is Married.

Norwich, Conn., July 6.—Miss Anna Ewing Cockrell, daughter of Francis M. Cockrell, member of the interstate commerce commission and former United States senator from Missouri, and Lambros A. Coromilas, minister of Greece to the United States, were married today at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Edson F. Gallaudet. The service of the Greek church was used.

The bride was given away by her father. There were no attendants. Because of the recent death of Mr. Coromilas' mother, the wedding was quietly celebrated, only the members of the family and a few intimate friends being present.

A short automobile trip will precede the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Coromilas from New York for Europe on July 9. They plan to spend some time in London and then proceed to Athens. It is expected that at the expiration of the six months' leave of absence granted the minister they will return to Washington.

"GEN-TLE-MEN. YOUR GUEST. OF HONOR OF THE EVENING!"

Irish Fellowship Club Stirred by a Joke.

BY RICHARD HENRY LITTLE.

THERE is a joker or a syndicate of jokers in the Irish Fellowship club whose identity is being earnestly sought. Seven hundred and forty-nine members of the club are under suspicion. There are 750 names on the membership rolls, but Patrick M. Hanney, the 750th member, is held not guilty.

About a week ago one of the members of the club received the following letter:

"Dear Sir: A number of your friends and well wishers have arranged a complimentary dinner to you at the French restaurant, 92 Federal street. We wish to congratulate you on your success in life and to show you what a host of friends you have, who are eagerly watching your splendid career. Will you be so good as to send a photograph of yourself to me that it may be used on the souvenir menus? The date fixed is next Saturday evening and the time 7:30.

"With best wishes,

"PATRICK M. HANNEY,

"Chairman of the committee on arrangements."

The man who received this invitation was much pleased. Naturally. Who wouldn't be. In fact, every man of the 100 who happened to receive this invitation was delighted. Many of them were surprised at such an outburst of esteem and admiration without any warning, and they called up Chairman Hanney, but he was out of town. Nobody talked much about the affair, because it would seem like vanity.

* * *

The first guest to arrive at the restaurant on Saturday night was Richard J. Finnegan. As he stepped in the door a master of ceremonies with whom he was unacquainted stepped forward, greeted him warmly, and turning to ten distinguished looking persons in evening dress shouted impressively:

"Gen-tle-men, your guest of honor, the Hon. Richard J. Finnegan, candidate for congress in the Tenth congressional district."

The half dozen distinguished persons in evening dress applauded enthusiastically, and surrounding the guest pumped his hand and offered congratulations. This ceremony was no more concluded than there was another arrival at the front door and the master of ceremonies proudly bawled forth:

"Gen-tle-men, your guest of honor, the Hon. Lawrence J. Buckley, president of the United Irish Societies."

The half dozen distinguished persons assembled in the hall burst once more into ecstatic applause, while the first guest of honor tried to realize how the master of ceremonies had happened to get things so mixed up.

"Gen-tle-men," said the master of ceremonies, "your guest of honor, the Hon. Michael J. Faherty, former president of the Irish Fellowship club."

Again the swelling chorus of huzzas.

"Gen-tle-men," said the master of ceremonies, "your guest of honor, the Hon. Charles J. Mulligan, the eminent sculptor."

Guests of honor now poured in so fast the master of ceremonies was kept red in the face announcing them. The reception each one got was more tumultuous than the last one had received. After a guest of honor had heard the announcement of the next guest of honor it began to dawn upon him that there was something queer about the performance. So in revenge he would remain with the reception party and help in the applause given each new arrival. When about sixty guests of honor had arrived the master of ceremonies led the way to the dining room and the ten distinguished gentlemen in evening suits who had formed the nucleus of the reception committee returned to their usual vocation of waiting on the table.

It was a wonderfully successful dinner and all the guests of honor had a good time, but just for curiosity sake, mark you, they would like to know who put that job up.

A man at the military tournament Tuesday afternoon didn't seem to be enjoying himself at all, while his wife apparently was having the time of her life. She had never seen anything of the kind before, and she was deluging her husband with questions that he was trying his best to answer and not betray the fact that he didn't know exactly the difference between a three inch gun and a guard line.

"Yes," he said, "that's the infantry. Why? Well, because they're much younger than the men that rae in the cavalry, d'ye see." "Yes. They're going to climb over that wall. Why don't they go around?" "Well, y'see, it's one of the rules in war that when soldiers capture any place they have to climb over a wall. If they don't climb over a wall just as high as that, why they don't score, that's all. The enemy make 'em go back and do it all over again. Let's go home. It's horribly hot here."

"These are the engineers, madam," answered a man who sat in front. Husband looked up and saw a ray of hope.

"Yes," he said, "these are the engineers, but I think we'd better go because I heard today that the engineers were going out on strike today. Sure enough. Look at that man." He pointed to a captain of engineers who was ambling slowly in the rear of the engineer company directing its movements with a whistle.

"You see," said the man exultantly, "that's a walking delegate and he's going to call the engineers out." The captain blew on his whistle and all the engineers began to run.

"That settles it," said the man, "the strike's on. Show's over. Come on home."

It was a brilliant piece of strategy and it worked.

Miss Melville is a figurante in the play at the Ziegfeld—which, by the way, has been rewritten as to its last act and otherwise revised.

Small Talk of the Stage.

BY PERCY HAMMOND.

MISS ETHEL LEVY, it seems, has deferred her invasion of grand opera and she may now be heard in London at the Alhambra music hall singing something not at all grand operatic entitled "Pride of the Prairie, Marie." The observant correspondent who communicates this intelligence reports also htat the short, sure, and customary way to popularity in a London music hall is or a performer to begin his act—more plausibly than originally—thus: "I've just been down to the Savoy listening to the Americans eat."

* * *

Mr. Frohman has invited Sir John Hare from his retirement to appear next season in the Repertory theater in London, and Sir John has accepted. An American tour later is not improbable. It was during Sir John's last farewell tour some years ago that he felicitated Chicago upon possessing the greatest dramatic critic who wrote in the English language. Reference was made to Maj. Glover, then reviewer for the Times-Herald, later the director of Mr. Mansfield's enterprises, and now the business manager of the Majestic theater.

* * *

Mr. Charles Rann Kennedy, author of "The Servant in the House" and other sedate entertainments, despite the prosperity resulting from the production of that play, remains imbittered over the difficulties he experienced in convincing managers of its worth. So he is employed in writing an article recounting these troubles. Mr. Kennedy says that "The Servant in the House" was refused by more producers than any play ever written. It reached the stage, by the way, through the efforts of one of those gentlemen of unnecessary occupation, the press agent, Mr. Henry Miller's official essayist, Mr. Sam Weller, having been the promoter responsible.

* * *

Miss Ada Rehan intimates a desire to return to the theater. In answer to an interviewer's inquiry in London the other day Miss Rehan sent word that she was "uncertain about it."

* * *

The playgoers of Hartford, Conn., are said to be so wrought up over Mr. Henry Kolker's play, "Dr. Wendham's Experiment," that its producers wish to present it in Broadway forthwith. Mr. Kolker acts a hypnotist and so does Miss Thais Lawton, and the two characters indulge in a contest of hypnosis which ends in matrimony. Mr. Kolker was assisted in the composition of the play by Miss Edith Watts Mumford. He and Miss Lawton appeared here recently with the New theater company.

* * *

One of the comedy characters in "Billy's Bargain," a "melodramatic farce," now popular in London, is "J. K. Rotterford, a Chicago 'slusher,'" whatever that may be, who becomes a multi-millionaire speculator in cotton.

* * *

It is announced that Miss Johanna Redmond, a daughter of the Irish leader, has written a play which will soon be produced in London.

* * *

Mr. John Cort's intention is to produce in October a new musical comedy entitled "Jinga Boo," an adaptation from the German by Mr. Leo Ditrichstein, with music by Mr. Arthur Pryor, the bandmaster. It is Mr. Cort's intention also to live in New York in the winters, so that he will be the better able to cope with the responsibilities of a leader in the conflict against the Messrs. Klaw and Erlanger.

* * *

Mr. Frohman is said to be in possession of three unacted plays by the late Capt. Marshall, author of "The Royal Family" and "The Second in Command."

The list of players who will appear in the American "Chantecler" now includes Mr. Arthur Byron as the Blackbird, Mr. Edward Arden, Miss Dorothy Dorr, and Miss Margaret Gordon.

* * *

As the consequence of a wager on the recent episode in Reno, Miss Lina Abarbanell, who fancied the white man's deferred hope in that contest, is hooking the frocks and dressing the hair of Miss Frances Demarest, her comely associate in "Madame Sherry" at the Colonial. Mr. Osborne Searle, by the way, is now a member of the cast of "Madame Sherry" and is singing the rôle of the tropical South American.

* * *

Mr. Sam Lederer, manager of the Olympic theater, is about to embark on a journey to Europe, extending over a period of three weeks. This will enable Mr. Lederer to spend a week-end in Prague, the home of his father and the city of his nativity. Mr. George Kingsbury, director of the temporarily extinct Chicago opera house, will reign at the Olympic in Mr. Lederer's stead during Mr. Lederer's absence.

* * *

Miss Laura Guerite, who was responsible in great measure for the troublous career of "Get Busy with Emily" in Chicago, has been selected by Manager A. H. Woods to appear in the New York production of "The Girl in the Taxi," taking the rôle formerly acted by Miss Adele Ritchie. That unnecessary farce has been enjoying the favor of Boston for some time past, though before its first performance there it was rendered aseptic by the manager of the theater in conjunction with Mayor Fitzgerald, who scrutinized the rehearsals and eliminated most of the putrefaction. This, no doubt, will be reinserted for the use of the summer tourists in Broadway.

One of the acquisitions made by Mr. Klaw in the course of a tour of Europe is "The Count of Luxembourg," with music by Franz Lehar of "The Merry Widow."

The Wide, Wide World.

Economic Changes Due to Italian Emigration.

[Copyright, 1910, by The Tribune Company.]

BARI, Apulia, Italy, May 4.—Changes in social life brought on by emigration might seem to be justified by changes, supposedly for the better, in the economic results of emigration upon agriculture and the small proprietor. Advocate Palombella's investigations show the contrary; even here emigration from Bari has passed the danger line. In his examination of this question we are given an insight into agricultural methods in one of the most interesting regions of Italy.

Three zones of culture exist in the province; the zone of intense culture, the zone of cereals (extensive), and the zone of Murgia. These zones correspond roughly to the three Apulian provinces—Bari, Barletta and Altamura. The crops of Bari are mixed, as its intensive cultivation implies. The same field may yield wine grapes, olives and almonds, and even vegetables or wheat. The Barletta zone is chiefly devoted to wheat and other hard grains. Altamura is an upland country. In the valleys they grow wheat. On the hills is pasturage for sheep, goats, and cows. This zone has recently seen an increase in the manufacture of cheese, large quantities of which are shipped abroad, for the consumption of emigrants from the department.

Emigrants Are Laborers.

As Apulian emigration from the province is chiefly from the district of Bari, that of intense cultivation, it is enough to confine attention to this district. In Bari district are 365,000 people. Of these, 60,000 are contadini, peasant laborers, and 35,000 are bracchianti, or day laborers. Emigration is chiefly from these two classes and largely from the contadini. There is also a considerable emigration from the "little proprietors." Emigration from this class will increase. Nowhere in Italy have I seen a sharper contrast between the latifundia, lying well back in the valleys, and the sulverizzata about the towns near the coast. Near the coast tiny farms abound and the region looks densely populated, as indeed it is.

Emigration, it seems, has seriously disturbed the economic condition of the so-called little proprietors. The author considers a typical proprietor, living in the intensive zone of culture, where the rule is to devote 40 per cent of the land to vines, 40 per cent to olives, and 20 per cent to almonds. He assumes that his typical little farmer owns twenty-four acres of land, worth $250 an acre. His condition at the end of the years 1896 and 1906 is thus contrasted. The value of his yield in 1896 is, from vines, $85.60; from olives, $168.48; from almonds, $74.21. Add to this income the value of the labor of the head of the family, $120, and we have as his yearly income $448.29.

In 1906 his yield from vines is nothing, from olives, $117.28; from almonds, $71.81; the value of his labor is reckoned as $120, making a total income for the year of $309.09.

His expenditures for the two decades are the same and reckoned thus: Subsistence, $210; clothing, $70; house rent, $40; light and heat, $10; medical services, $20; education, $12; legal protection, $8; miscellaneous, such as "mental comfort and recreation," $16; a total of $386. Thus, ten years ago, the farmer had $62.29 to his credit at the end of the year; in 1906 he was in debt $76.91. The author, however, adds to his passive account for 1906, $21.60 for the lapse of acreage in vines, from which it appears that he is $98.51 in the hole after his year's work.

Small Farmer Near Failure.

What is to become of the little farmers? As Palombella puts it, they consume their tiny accumulated savings; the day of failure is near; they march inevitably to misery—and he might have added, to emigration.

Not the least curious result of emigration is the increased value of land. It would seem that, if the value of the crop is less than before, and if vines can no longer be cultivated with profit, the price of land would decrease. This is not the case. Emigrants from towns around Bari, who center in Chicago and are found on the railroads throughout the west, are keen to own a little piece of land. Three, four, or five acres satisfy them. They buy it regardless of price, hence the increased value is purely artificial. The process is like a boom. And like most booms, the day of reckoning must come.

Palombella calls attention to the fact that Italian exports have diminished while imports have increased. He believes that Italy will soon be compelled to import labor, of which she was once such a prolific producer. But he does not believe this will be possible, because of lack of capital. The difference between exports and imports, he thinks, is counterbalanced by the $60,000,000 yearly sent home by Italians now abroad.

The machinery of emigration, according to Palombella, is like this: A peasant is first animated by a desire to get a little money to build a house, in which to lodge his family. He builds his house. All his anticipations have been realized. But, says Palombella—and I have heard the same tale myself a hundred times—the whole thing is a snare and a delusion—the peasant is not satisfied. Either he does not build a house and eats up the money he has acquired abroad, or the money does not suffice to finish the house. He may even have completed the house. He is still unsatisfied. It is not what he thought it would be. He goes back to the United States.

Can't Be Satisfied in Italy.

This time he remains longer, for he has now determined to become a landowner, and will not be satisfied until he owns a little farm. And he saves and saves. He returns with his hoardings; he buys four or five acres of land. Now he is really rich; satisfied for life. He has reached a goal undreamed of a few years before. It is the same delusion, the same fable, for the little land will not support him and his family. Again he quits family. In the meantime the steamship companies and the railroads have been eating into his savings.

This is the tale I have heard over and over again. Into the life of each of these peasants comes something not known by their forefathers. They pass through, as individuals, a stage in mental development which every people sooner or later passes through. No matter how strong the attachment of the Italian to the scenes of his birth, no matter how strongly his conservative nature holds him to the old régime, two or three trips abroad have given him a mental horizon which is a veritable mental cataclysm.

Many of them, no doubt, with their savings settle at home in a little business or on a little farm and remain content and consequently happy. But in many of those with whom I have talked, who profess entire satisfaction with their lot, I sooner or later discover a trace of the call from the other side.

The mere fact that there are 2,000,000 Italians in the United States today is a stronger proof, if any were needed, that the life made possible by increased earnings is a stronger appeal than that which they left behind, or into which they would enter, should they come back home.

Some Emigrants Fail.

How many of the 2,000,000 Italians in the United States settle there, not because they find it to their liking or because they are successful, but because they have failed? They have no savings to bring home. They eke out a scant existence, live literally from hand to mouth, and are subject to every wind of depression that blows. I have no means of answering this question, but investigations in New York and other American cities lead me to believe that the number of those who have not the means to return must be large. I believe investigation into this class would be a fruitful source of information as to the extent to which Italians are being assimilated.

If there be a large class of such failures or near-failures, does their presence in the United States constitute, in one way or another, directly or indirectly, a menace? Do they take up space which is more precious or more valuable than themselves? Does the presence in the United States of such a body of Italians and owner aliens check immigration from northern Europe and increase the number of Americans who seek work and land north of the great lakes?

Palombella shows that emigration from the district of Bari increases the number of illegitimate children, the number of crimes against decency and the order of the family, perverts sentiments of honor and of morals; that, on the other hand, there has been an amelioration of the general condition of hygiene and of culture.

No wonder women are fond of operations; we heard a woman say yesterday that the only really good time she ever had in her life was her experience in a hospital, while recovering from an operation. The nurses waited on her, whereas she had never been waited on before, and good meals were served her while she was lying in bed. Her husband and children took care of themselves, and, altogether, the woman's operation was the one bright spot of her life.

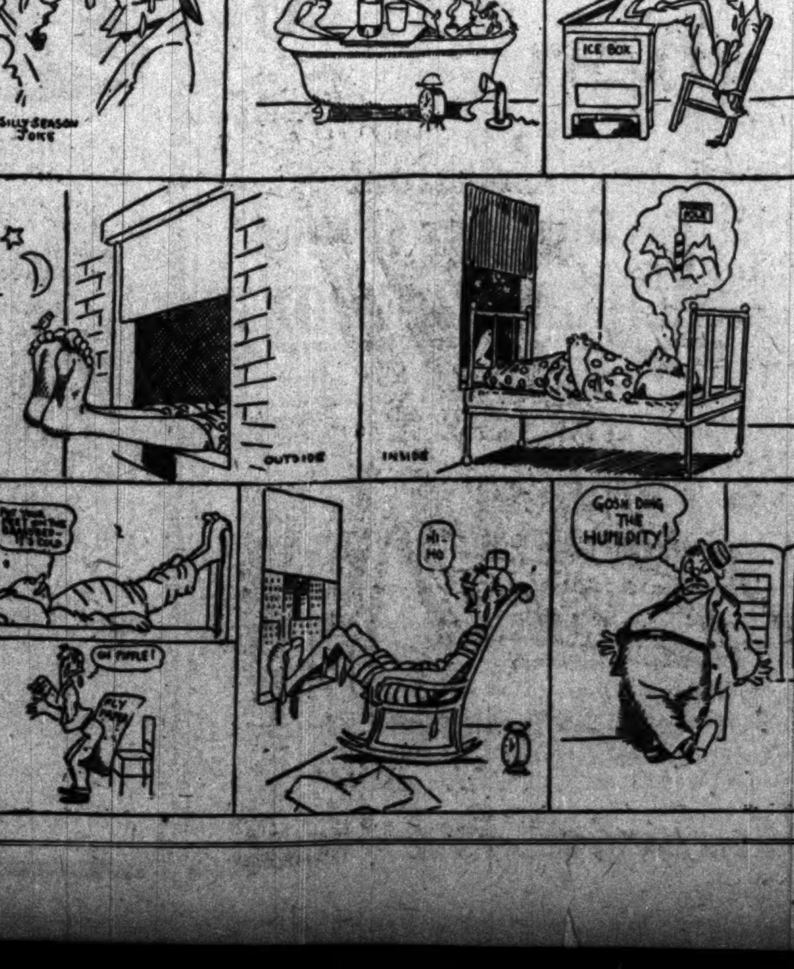
SUMMER IDEAS.



Woman and Her Interests.

Just Between Us Girls.

BY SISTER MARY.

OF course when Dolly was married she had a trousseau that included enough gowns and hats for one entire season at least, and enough lingerie to last for two or three years.

Her father or her bachelor uncle or some fond auntie had given her a little purse filled with gold pieces for her own private use, and so you can easily see it was several months before she realized that the tide of her finances was running low.

Perhaps she found that she needed a new pair of walking shoes or a new silk petticoat, and when she looked in the little purse of gold pieces she found it as bare of money as old Mother Hubbard's cupboard was of food.

So the moment had arrived when she had to speak of money to Edwin and had to feel her complete dependence on him.

Now Dolly as a girl had always had an allowance from her father, and when they were first married she had mentioned this to Edwin.

And Edwin nobly declaimed a few grand thoughts about all that was his was also Dolly's and he was not paying wages to his wife as if she were an employé.

She had only to ask and he would give her anything she wanted.

* * *

All this sounded fine, and I have no doubt Edwin believed every word he uttered.

But—when Dolly remarked at the breakfast table four months after their wedding day that she needed $25 to get a few things for the house and herself, Edwin looked distinctly blank.

There was that payment to be made on his life insurance, and he was making a big effort to buy one of those safe railroad bonds this month, and so he was a little short.

Could she, he suggested, make $10 do?

Now, Dolly was a wise little woman.

She put her elbows on the table and she spoke out. She told him exactly what it cost her to run the house and exactly what she needed for a personal allowance, including her clothes, and carfares, and matinées, and ice cream sodas.

* * *

It would be far better, she told Edwin, if he put that amount of money in the bank each month in her name and let her use it as she wished. In fact, she made it clear that it was the only arrangement that she would consider.

Naturally Edwin, being something of a business man, realized the justice of Dolly's demands and arranged it as she wished.

There was no more grand talk about all of Edwin's belongings being also Dolly's, but there was a comfortable sum in the bank each month and Dolly had a checkbook and absolute freedom to spend as she chose.

The whole arrangement was absolutely fair and just.

No man has any right to place his wife in the attitude of a suppliant, asking for every cent she wants and needs.

I have noticed that the man who complains that his wife doesn't know how to take care of money is mighty careful to give her no chance to learn.

* * *

Every young wife ought to have the matter of home and personal finance settled definitely a month after marriage. By that time she has some idea of her household expenses, and if she has any sense at all she knows what she needs for herself.

A bank account is easily opened and the ways of the checkbook are quickly learned. Such an arrangement teaches economy and thrift.

The woman with a bank account will see exactly how her money is going and she will use it more wisely and sensibly than if she simply gets an indefinite sum or sums for the asking.

The young wife is a partner in the home and she ought to have a partner's share in the income.

Her allowance should be absolutely her own, but she ought to understand that if she spends it all she can get no more until the next installment is due.

A plan of this kind will prevent a great deal of the hard feeling that arises between husband and wife where there is no financial plan for their home.

Economical Housekeeping.

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

The Scented Orange.

THE orange tastes best when it has been where the temperature is low. Since its flavor is so especially brought out by the cold, this fruit may be made most acceptable in summer as well as in winter. It is almost as indispensable to one season as to the other. Because of its portable character the orange is one of the best things for the picnic box or basket, and combined with lemon on the picnic grounds, it makes the most agreeable of drinks.

This fruit is so excellent by itself that we have not learned to use it extensively in combination except in the ever cool and gratifying fruit salads, but ways of extending its flavor are more and more being sought.

* * *

Orange Dream.—Cut oranges in half, scoop out pulp with spoon, mash fine, mix nuts and sugar with mixture, chill. When ready to serve place in orange shells, beat white of egg stiffly, sweeten, and place on top of shells just at serving time.—Inez Taylor, 951 Marquette building.

Orange Jelly.—Two and a half tablespoons of granulated gelatine, one-half cup of cold water, one and one-half cups of boiling water, one cup of sugar, one and one-half cups of orange juice (four oranges), three tablespoonfuls lemon juice (one lemon). Soak gelatine twenty minutes in the cold water, dissolve in boiling water, strain, add the sugar, and fruit juice, turn into molds wet in cold water, chill, and serve cold, with or without whipped or plain cream.—Mrs. Theodore Jessup, 1348 West Sixty-fourth street.

Orange Ice.—Put one pint of water and one and one-half cups of sugar on to boil; chip the yellow rind of three oranges, add to the syrup, boil five minutes, and stand away to cool. Peel eight nice, juicy oranges and one lemon, cut them in halves, take out the seeds and squeeze out all the juice, mix with the syrup, strain through a cloth, and freeze.—Good Housekeeping.

Orange Ice II.—Dissolve a tablespoonful of gelatine in half a cupful of water and half a pint of boiling water, half a cupful of powdered sugar, and the strained juice of six large oranges. Stir until the sugar is dissolved, then freeze.—The Housewife.

* * *

Orange Pie.—Make a rich pie crust, but only enough to cover bottom of pie plate. Peel and divide into the smallest sections two large oranges. Lay evenly on crust until same is covered with just one layer. Sprinkle sugar over them and bake.—Mrs. O. W. Mayer, 4437 Dover street.

Orange Pudding I.—Beat the whites and yolks of two eggs separately, and one-half cup of sugar, the juice of two oranges and the grated rind of one. Heat one cup of milk in a double boiler and thicken with one dessert spoon of corn starch or flour. Stir into the mixture slowly and bake one-half hour. Make a meringue of the whites of one of the eggs by beating it to a froth, adding one tablespoon of powdered white sugar and flavor if desired. After spreading it on it should be put into the oven to brown. Let the pudding cool slightly before spreading or else it will liquify.—Ella E. Lane Bowes, 1542 West Adams street.

Orange Pudding II.—Make a custard of one-half pint of sweet milk or water, the beaten yolk of one egg, a tablespoonful of corn starch, a pinch of salt and one tablespoonful of sugar. Add the grated rind of one orange. Slice the orange and cover with one-half cup of sugar. When the custard is cool pour it over the orange. Beat the white of the egg, sweeten with sugar and heap on top of the pudding. Serve cold.—Mrs. Tom Whitworth, Victor, Ia.

Orange Pudding III.—Two oranges, two eggs, one and a half pints of milk, sugar. Slice oranges into fancy dish and sprinkle over them a scant one-half cup of sugar. Put milk on fire and when boiling add the yolk of eggs with one-fourth cup of sugar and scant tablespoonful of corn starch well beaten. Boil until thick, stirring all the time. When done turn over the oranges while hot and then add the whites of the egg well beaten and slightly sweetened. Place in oven to brown.—Mrs. Lincoln Scott, Hampshire, Ill.

MRS. YOUNG'S FOES ACCUSED OF PLOT

Chicago Woman's Supporters in N. E. A. Presidency Fight Scent Ring Methods.

SNYDER BOOM IS GROWING

Boston, Mass., July 6.—[Special.]—All precedents for the election of officers of the National Education association may be upset tomorrow and the election of the president may be carried to the floor of the convention in the most strenuous election fight in the history of the organization. The contest hinges on the report of the nomination committee, which will be framed at 9 o'clock and which will go to the convention at the annual meeting at noon.

The contest will be between Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, superintendent of the Chicago schools, and Z. X. Snyder, president of the Colorado State Normal college. The opposition forces which have fought the candidacy of Mrs. Young came out boldly tonight in announcing the name of Mr. Snyder. With the announcement and the official naming of the members of the nominating committee by President James Y. Joyner at the general session in Tremont temple the Brunswick hotel became a storm center for the campaign committees of both nominees.

Mrs. Young Sure of Thirteen States.

Leaders of both forces claimed a clear majority of the states for their candidates. It is definitely known that Mrs. Young will have the support of New York, Massachusetts, Indiana, Georgia, Illinois, Nebraska, Wisconsin, Nevada, New Mexico, North Carolina, Washington, North Dakota, and Utah.

It is conceded that Pennsylvania, Michigan, Florida, Colorado, Kentucky, Arkansas, and Missouri probably will go for Snyder. The other states were set down as doubtful, with both sides claiming them.

The campaign work was carried on until long after midnight. The members of the Chicago delegation divided up the list of members of the nominating committee and conducted an eleventh hour systematic "checking up" by telephone. At midnight they declared Mrs. Young would have a clear majority of the nominating committee.

Delegates Plan Final Fight.

But no step was neglected to take the fight to the convention floor in the last event. Every delegate who wore a Young badge and every member who could be relied upon was urged to be present at Old South church, where the annual meeting will be held, as early as 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, and to hold their seats throughout the conference session until noon. This was the precaution taken to guard against a packing of the convention hall by the forces of the "antis."

The final result of the election, if Mrs. Young is defeated, will be a challenging of the votes of two states, Wyoming and Louisiana, by the Chicago woman's supporters. The bald charge of fraud in electing members of the nominating committee from these two states was made tonight. The basis of the charge was that the only two active delegates from these states, Mrs. Clare S. Alden of Louisiana and Mrs. Estelle Rell Meyer of Wyoming, were not named on the committee, and that other names were turned in.

Woman Swears Out Affidavit.

Mrs. Meyer pressed her claim to the extent of swearing out an affidavit to the effect that she was the only member who attended the Wyoming state meeting at the Harvard stadium last Monday afternoon, when the states met and selected their members for the nominating committee. Mrs. Alden made a similar statement with regard to the Louisiana meeting, when it was discovered that other names had been sent in to President Joyner from some unknown source.

It was declared also that unsuccessful efforts were made to "pack" Delaware, Idaho, and Maryland by the "ring" which is opposing Mrs. Young.

"If the nominating committee does not return Mrs. Young's name we will fight it out on the floor of the convention," was the declaration of the leaders of the Chicago woman's campaign tonight. "We think that we have the fight won right now; but we are prepared for any result. If Mrs. Young has to be nominated from the convention floor, we are all prepared to make the nomination and there will be enough members at the meeting to elect her by a sweeping vote."

While the campaign eddied about the lobby of the Brunswick Mrs. Young was the guest of a reception by the Interborough Association of Women Teachers of New York in the hotel parlors. For two hours she received and it was estimated that 2,000 guests passed down the receiving line.

President Lowell Speaks.

The campaign, the reception, and a complimentary concert to teachers in Symphony hall depleted the general session in Tremont temple tonight. Dr. A. Lawrence Lowell, president of Harvard university, advanced a new doctrine in education for the professions by declaring particular preparation in college for subsequent courses in law and medicine valueless.

"There is no Cæsar's meat that makes doctors and lawyers," he declared. "The chance of one man in any group of studies is just as good as in another. History does not assist remarkably in the law and science does not render the embryonic doctor superior. Experiments have proved conclusively that it makes little difference in the success of a man in the professional schools what subject he devoted himself to in college. But it does make an enormous difference how hard and with what ability and power he worked at his subject. That is about the only conclusion at which we can arrive."

President James W. Crabtree of the Nebraska State Normal school, spoke on "Criticisms of the Public Schools by the Laity," and H. L. Russell, dean of the college of agriculture of the University of Wisconsin, made an address on methods of agricultural education in rural communities. State Superintendent Cary of the Wisconsin public schools declared that the high school, in his opinion, was destined to be the nation's greatest educational institution.

INTER LATE EDUCATOR TODAY.

Hold Funeral Services Over William M. Lawrence, Principal of South Side School.

Relatives and friends of the late William M. Lawrence gathered at the undertaking establishment at East Fifty-third street and Lake avenue yesterday afternoon to hear the funeral service for the deceased educator, who from 1894 to the time of his death at his home in the Holland hotel, 1534 East Fifty-third street, had been principal of Ray school, East Fifty-seventh street and Monroe avenue. Prof. Lawrence was the author of several text books. He was to have celebrated his sixty-fourth anniversary next Tuesday. He is survived by a widow and a daughter, who left Chicago Wednesday night for Janesville, Wis., where the funeral will be held today.

WOMEN COPS FOR BALTIMORE?

WOULD CURB ALL MASHERS.

Flirtation's Great Evil Could Be Checked, Says Enthusiast.

Baltimore, Md., July 6.—[Special.]—"Discretion" is to be the essential qualification of the women assistant cops the Woman's Suffrage club is trying to have appointed to stop flirting in the streets. There is no suggestion as to age or present or previous state of marital servitude, but the discretion that Mrs. Emma Maddox Funck, president of the club, would require is really a high order of Sherlock Holmes sagacity.

"These assistants will watch out for cases of flirtation," says Mrs. Funck. "They will observe closely the manner of every man and woman who passes them, and if they see anything not quite usual they will insist that the man or woman go home at once."

Policeman as Last Resort.

"But do you think these men and women will go home just because they are told to?" Mrs. Funck was asked.

"Well, in cases of that sort the assistants will appeal to the policemen to make the order stronger and when the occasion seems to demand more severe treatment policemen can arrest the offenders," Mrs. Funck replied.

"I would not suggest, however, that many arrests be made at first. To send the offenders home and give them a chance to improve would be wiser.

"No young people should be out on the streets after 10 o'clock, unless, of course, in cases of necessity, and the assistant officer could determine that issue. All persons over 14 years old will be liable to reprimand, or may be arrested, if the plans for our women assistant police are carried through.

Hard on Old Offenders.

"And don't forget that an older man or woman has a much greater reason to behave properly than have these girls and boys.

"The older the person the greater the sense of right and wrong and of the fitness of things he or she should have. I would even suggest that the older the offender the greater the punishment."

The members of the club say they will have squads of women police patrol the downtown sections of the city, and the resorts for some time before they attempt arrests. When the time comes, however, the crusade will be vigorous and the offenders will be severely punished, if the women have their way.

WESTERN FICTION IS BRANDED GOOD SELLER BY PUBLISHERS.

According to publishers who are attending the annual book fair in session at the Palmer house, books with western coloring are among the best sellers in fiction.

The book fair, which occupies the greater portion of the fourth, fifth, and sixth floors of the hotel, was well filled yesterday with book writers, book makers, and book readers, selling, buying, discussing, and looking over the display, said to be among the largest ever shown here.

During the lulls of buying and selling the publishers discussed the annual field day which will be held at the Hinsdale Country club Friday. This is the finale of the annual gathering, and resolves into vigorous contests between the east and west for supremacy at golf, baseball, pinochle, and whist.

ANOTHER LAND TIP GIVEN BY GIBBONS

Judge Says Council May Find Whether City or Park Board Got Title First.

SEES LAW INCONSISTENT.

Declares Two Statutes Enacted on Same Day Add to the Streeterville Puzzle.

Judge John Gibbons of the Circuit court, whose letters to Attorney General Stead and the city council questioned the title of north shore owners in "Streeterville" and other tracts of "made lands," stated last night that he would engage in no further public controversy on the subject, but would leave it for action by officials.

"I wish it to be understood," said the judge, "that I am not passing upon law questions or trying to question the title of any individual to the property along the lake shore, which may have been acquired in good faith. My sole purpose is to have those whose duty it is to institute proceedings to ascertain what rights are left to the people and to do so at once.

"The city, without the initiative of the state, may do a great many things. For example, it may ascertain to whom the right to the submerged lands was first granted—to the city or to the Lincoln park board—and when such a grant was made.

Judge Explains 1889 Act.

"I have long been cognizant of the fact that on June 4, 1889, a law was approved wherein title to certain submerged lands is granted the Lincoln park commissioners, to be held for the use and benefit of the public as a part of said park, and for no other purpose whatever.

"Another act was approved the same day wherein the commissioners are authorized to extend a boulevard 200 feet wide upon the bed of the lake, and power is given them to contract in writing with persons for the construction of such boulevard.

"It is further provided that the submerged lands lying between the shore and the inner line of the boulevard extended shall be appropriated by the commissioners to the purpose of defraying the cost of such extension, and the commissioners are authorized to sell such lands and vest a good title in the purchaser.

"The Supreme court in 1896 in the Kirk case held the latter statute valid, and doubtless many persons have acquired vested rights under that decision or under other statutes. But the question of the inconsistency of these two statutes, which were approved and which became laws on the same day, does not appear to have been raised in that case, nor does it appear that the city of Chicago was a party thereto.

May Make It Factory District.

"In conclusion I may suggest that if persons have acquired title to the north shore lands, why may they not convert the territory into a factory and rolling mill district, thereby defeating the whole object and purpose of the Lincoln park enactments by rendering the park worthless as a playground for children?

"There are many pertinent and farreaching questions involved in this inquiry which will require more study and investigation than a man in my position could give them and do justice to his official position."

FIVE HURT IN CAR COLLISION

Wet Rails Cause Crash at Fifty-first and Halsted Streets.

SCORE THROWN TO FLOORS.

Traffic Is Delayed an Hour Because of Accident.

Five persons were injured, one of them seriously, and more than two score of passengers thrown into a panic last night when they were jolted from their seats and showered with bits of broken glass after a rear-end collision between two street cars at West Fifty-first and South Halsted streets. The accident was attributed to slippery rails.

A Fifty-first street car, unable to stop because of the water on the rails, crashed into the rear end of a Halsted street car, throwing the passengers of both from their seats.

Five Persons Are Injured.

BERGER, A., 37 years old, 5152 South Lincoln street, head and face cut and possibly internally injured; condition serious. Taken to Englewood Union hospital.

CALAGHAN, SAMUEL, 18 years old, 837 West Fifty-first street, head and face cut and body bruised.

FRASE, F., 30 years old, 5125 South Halsted street, baker, head and face cut and body bruised.

With the exception of Berger the injured were able to go to their residences.

The police who went to investigate the accident did not take the names of the crews of the cars when they were told that the crash was unavoidable.

Wheels Slip on Wet Rails.

According to passengers and the motorman of the Fifty-first street car, the street had been sprinkled just before the accident, and when the motorman attempted to check the speed of his car as it approached the crossing, the wheels slid over the tracks until the cars crashed together. The front vestibule of Fifty-first street car and the rear vestibule of the other were demolished.

Berger was on the front platform of the Fifty-first street car and was pinned in the wreckage until released by the crew and other passengers. The other four passengers who were hurt were on the same car.

Traffic was blocked for an hour as a result of the accident.

CRANE EMPLOYES AT DINNER.

Officers, Managers, Superintendents, and Foremen Guests of Company in Event of Week's Holiday.

Two hundred and twenty-five officers, managers, superintendents, and foremen of the R. T. Crane company were guests at a dinner given at the Auditorium hotel last night by Richard T. Crane Jr., who presided, thirty-eight cities from Maine to California being represented at the banquet. The dinner was one of several functions the company is giving to their employés this week in the nature of an annual outing and vacation. While the men were dining at the Auditorium, the wives and sisters of the officials were given a dinner at the La Salle hotel, followed by a theater party.

FOUR INDICTED FOR THEFT.

Grand Jury Acts in Cases of St. Louis Men Accused of Embezzlements from Police Funds.

St. Louis, Mo., July 6.—The grand jury today indicted four men on charges of embezzlement in connection with the police relief fund. They were: Sergeant John J. Noonan, Patrolmen John Dunigan and T. J. Dolan, and John Nicolay, former president of the relief fund association. A second indictment for forgery was returned against Dolan.

A Very Remarkable Sale of Pianos

The Aeolian Company Offers Rare Values

ALTHOUGH Aeolian Hall is always the best place to buy a piano, new or used, it is seldom that we come before the public with a special sale of such instruments. Careful piano buyers in New York, London and other cities where Aeolian warerooms have been long established watch for these rare occasions; usually semi-annual. When the Aeolian Company advertises a sale, experience has shown them that a special offering by the Aeolian Company really means a remarkable opportunity for the buyer. There are logical and easily understood reasons for this.

One Reason Why Aeolian Hall is Always the Best Place to Buy a Used Piano

Most of the used pianos offered daily as "bargains" by the average piano house were parted with by their owners because they were worn out and had outlived their usefulness. The pianos offered in our exchange department are nearly all of them taken from people who buy Pianola Pianos. They are exchanged by their owners because of the desire to own a piano which any member of the family can play. The Pianola Piano, being universally recognized as by far the best player piano in the world, is purchased by practically all of the best buyers in the community. And it follows that the vast majority of the used pianos taken by us in exchange are of the finest makes and have had the best of care.

Two Special Additional Reasons for This Sale

1. When we took over on April 1st, 1910, the lease of this building from the Bissell-Cowan Piano Co., we also acquired a large number of new and used pianos of various makes, many of which are still on hand. We are anxious to dispose of these pianos, as many of them do not belong to our regular line. They include instruments of practically every well-known make. Many of them are new and the majority cannot be told from new.

2. We have just bought out the piano stock of Vining & Jameson, 192 Michigan Blvd., which concern retired from business on June 30th. Both Mr. Geo. Vining and Mr. C. V. Jameson have entered our employ and have become members of our sales force. This stock includes a number of instruments of well-known makes which have been priced at very interesting figures. These two stocks, in addition to a large number of instruments which we have taken in exchange since the opening of our Chicago branch, April 1st, have made it necessary for us to announce a clearance sale somewhat in advance of our original intention. In order to make this an event long to be remembered, and its recurrence looked forward to by the buying public, we have placed upon these pianos prices which must move them.

THIS IS A REAL PIANO OPPORTUNITY! We are not offering a lot of ancient, decrepit, worn-out pianos as a bait to get you to our store. The pianos included in this sale are all instruments of quality and we want to sell every one of them. Discriminating buyers will soon pick out the best, although every one is a most desirable bargain. Better make your call an early one.

THIS IS YOUR FIRST CHANCE at a sale offering by the Aeolian Company in Chicago. You will find it decidedly "different." You will find these pianos are fit to be placed in any home, are musically satisfactory, and are guaranteed by the Aeolian Company—the largest musical instrument concern in the world. And you will find them marked at surprisingly low figures and very easy terms.

For the convenience of those interested we have divided these pianos into groups and have endeavored to give a fair general description of each division.

GROUP 1

Consisting of four grand and ten upright Weber pianos, absolutely new with the exception of having been used for about twenty-one days by the artists of the Metropolitan Grand Opera Company during their late season in Chicago. All of them in handsome casings; are guaranteed same as new.

A saving of $75 to $150 on these instruments.

GROUP 2

Consisting of ten Chickering & Sons' and Knabe pianos, grands and uprights, purchased from the Bissell-Cowan Company, which we took over when the latter concern transferred their lease of this building to us and retired from business. These pianos include two of the famous Chickering quarter-grands and all of the instruments in this group are practically new.

Prices from $350 to $550

GROUP 3

Consisting of three Steinway uprights (one mahogany, like new, and two small sizes in excellent condition). Two Everett pianos in modern casings. Two Sohmer pianos. Two Chickering pianos. One A. B. Chase piano. One mahogany Vose & Sons', nearly new. These are used pianos. All of them have been placed in good condition and are strongly recommended.

Prices, $200 to $350

GROUP 4

Consisting of about twenty used pianos, all of them remarkable values. Included in this group are the following makes: Krakauer, Shoninger, Steger, Mathushek, Bauer, Haines Bros., Brewster, Emerson, Kurtzmann, Stultz & Bauer, Harvard, Kimball, Adam Schaaf, Webster, Whitney and others.

VERY EASY TERMS OF PAYMENT

The number of these pianos is limited. None will be reserved or held back. Every one will have an equal opportunity.

Full of the Charm of the Tropics

Roy Norton's Vivid Story in The Tribune's New Monthly Magazine Section—Next Sunday, July 10th

The story of the love of Clarke Roberts, a dashing young American engineer, and a beautiful Spanish girl in Cuba.

A mellow romance—a stirring ordeal that nearly divides their path—and a whirlwind finish. Drawings by John Cassel, full of exotic feeling, splendidly blended with the romance they illustrate.

Summary of the July Number:

THE FRIENDLY CALL, the last story from the pen of the late O. Henry. A masterpiece of fiction, fitting finish to a great literary career. Pictures by Dan Sayre Groesbeck.

VERA, Perceval Gibbon's striking short story, illustrated by Sigurd Schou.

And other unusual and appealing features, strongly illustrated by the best artists.

The July Number may be obtained with Next Sunday's Tribune, of which it is a regular part. Call up your newsdealer today and ask him to save you a copy next Sunday, July 10th

USSIA AND JAPAN LOSE OPEN DOOR?

oximity to Territory Makes hem, When United, Impregnable to Attack.

Vashington, D. C., July 6.—[Special.]—The nvention signed by representatives of Rus- and Japan on Monday appears to be only of a series of documents by which the powers seek to apportion Manchuria for ploitation by themselves at the exclusion other nations that heretofore have insisted the maintenance of the open door policy. t marks another stride in the increasingly parent rapprochement between Russia and pan that has come on imperceptibly since period of strain immediately following Russo-Japanese war.

First Convention Secret.

he first convention, that between Russia d China, was secret ,and only through the se of time did its terms become known to st of the powers, although it was sup- sed Russia gave her ally, France, a copy the convention. The Japanese conven- n, however, could not be kept secret, and was made public in the face of interna- nal uproar, it being asserted that the n door for which diplomatists of Europe d America had struggled for years had n closed by Japan's private convention, spite of the fact that Japan was a party the open door policy.

t was the hostile criticism aroused in this untry and abroad by the publication of terms of the convention that first indi- ted how closely allied were Russia and pan interests in Manchuria. The powers owed that they were against any special ivileges in Manchuria. But Russia al- dy enjoyed such privileges in the north, ile Japan had now obtained them in the uth. Rather than struggle futilly to oust ch other as they had done in war, the ssians and the Japanese had decided the ne had come for a union against other na- ns.

hey realized that their proximity to the ritory in dispute made them, when united, pregnable against attack. It was then t talk of a Russo-Japanese entente be- n, and there is reason to believe that long ps toward a convention already had been en in secret. It is practically certain t Prince Ito's trip toward the Russian ntier, which ended in his assassination a Corean, was undertaken with the view reaching a full understanding with an cial of the Russian foreign office who was meet him.

OBS ATTACK RUSSIAN JEWS.

ERLIN, July 6.—The situation of the s at Kieff is becoming worse. According dispatches to the Jewish Aid society here mob is becoming dangerous in Slobod- of, a suburb of Vyatka.

rganized bands frequently attacked the aelites. Many have been severely in- ed and a larger number slightly injured, no deaths are reported.

BOY OF 9 IS DEAD OF LOCKJAW

SEQUEL TO FOURTH ACCIDENT

Wound Which Proves Fatal in Few Days Was Slight.

LOCKJAW DEATHS FROM FOURTH....... 7

South Bend, Ind., July 6.—[Special.]—Frank Kardass, aged 9, died today of tetanus as a result of the explosion of a toy pistol he was shooting on July 4. The hand was slightly wounded and the services of a physician were not asked for, the wound being attended to by the boy's mother. Yesterday the boy's condition became critical and he was taken to Epworth hospital.

OTHER FOURTH CASUALTIES.

SEDALIA, Mo.—Of the five Fourth of July accidents here, Elmer Etchings, aged 15, may lose the sight of his left eye as the result of the explosion of a firecracker. Nadine Ford, a little girl, was taken to a specialist in Kansas City in the hope of saving her left eye, which was injured by the explosion of a firecracker.

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—Two deaths were added to the Fourth of July celebration in Milwaukee, making three.

PHOENIX, Ariz.—The explosion of a firecracker set fire to the dress of the 8 year old daughter of R. C. Johnson. The child inhaled the flames and may die.

LAS CRUCES, N. M.—Antonio Ruiz, a Mexican boy, may die as the result of the prank of other boys. They filled his pockets with firecrackers and set them off. He ran as they exploded and set his clothes afire.

LA SALLE, Ill.—Bernard Kelly, aged 13, died from internal injuries received in the collapse of the canal bridge at Utica while the Fourth of July celebrations were on. This is the second death from the accident.

FORT WAYNE, Ind.—Hugh Evison of Mount Etna and Hugh Weller of Huntington lost their eyes by looking into roman candles.

Richard Strauss Will Give Up Royal House to Tour with Vienna Orchestra.

[BY CABLE TO THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.]

BERLIN, July 6.—It is reported that Richard Strauss will retire from the directorship of the Royal Opera house after conducting the season's customary ten operas. His retirement, which has not yet been admitted officially, is understood to be because of his wish to rest and enjoy independence. It is stated, however, he will make tours of Germany and France with the Vienna Philharmonic orchestra next year.

Shaft to Rousseau Unveiled in Paris.

PARIS, July 6.—A colossal monument to Waldeck-Rousseau, former premier of France, erected in the Tuilleries gardens by public subscription, was unveiled today. President Fallieres spoke.

Brazil to Have New Dreadnought.

LONDON, July 6.—Brazil definitely has ordered a super-Dreadnought of 32,000 tons. The armament will consist of twelve 14 inch guns and twenty-eight 6 and 4 inch guns.

STEAMER BLAZES; PASSENGERS SAFE

NO PANIC; WOMEN COOL.

Engineer Sticks to His Post in Smoke Filled Chamber Until Boat Lands.

New York, July 6.—The old wooden three decker Grand Republic, a sister ship of the ill fated excursion steamer General Slocum, caught fire this afternoon while passing through the narrows on its way to New York from Far Rockaway. The boat hurried full steam ahead, with its whistle blowing a continuous succession of short nervous blasts and a plume of smoke trailing behind it, for the Crescent Athletic club pier on the Brooklyn shore, which it reached in safety.

The forty-five passengers were all landed safely and the fire was extinguished with 2,500 damage, but there was great alarm in the city and the harbor until the full details were known.

Recalls Slocum Disaster.

Everybody remembered how six years ago last month the Slocum caught fire in the East river, when crowded with 1,500 pleasure seekers, mostly women and children, and was burned to the water's edge, with 938 drowned, crushed, or baked alive.

Today, as then, the fire started, nobody knows how, in the galley, just abaft the starboard paddle wheel, and spread quickly through the wooden superstructure.

There was no panic. The women were badly frightened, but the crew had no trouble in keeping them in hand and providing them with life preservers, and the children were so pleased with the music of the band, which kept playing bravely through the dash for shore, that they never knew their danger.

Rescuers Respond Quickly.

The calls for aid from the Grand Republic brought fireboats, tugs, steamers, and a Brooklyn fire engine to the pier, and the passengers were quickly put ashore and the fire extinguished.

An incident of the fire was the heroism of the engineer of the Grand Republic, who stuck to his post in the smoke filled engine room to keep up as much steam as possible and maintain full speed until he had landed the passengers.

SIR CHARLES HARDINGE PEER.

Man Who Will Succeed Earl of Minto as Viceroy of India Given New Honor.

LONDON, July 6.—Sir Charles Hardinge, whose appointment as viceroy of India in succession to the earl of Minto was officially announced on June 10, has been elevated to the peerage.

The "Don't Need To" Theory

In a recent debate at Reno Mr. James Jeffries failed to convince Mr. John Johnson.

Some seven or eight years ago Mr. Jeffries was the leading man in his line of work. Business was good and his profits were big.

Having all the money he could handle at the time, he concluded to take a rest.

To be sure, he planned to get into the field again at the proper time.

But everything was rosy and there really seemed no good and sufficient reason why he should spend so many hours a day keeping his muscles lithe and strong and his wind good and his heart and nerves in trim.

Eventually the meeting with Mr. Johnson was arranged. Mr. Jeffries was still tolerably content with what he had done.

(Brother, a has-done is about as bad as a has-been.)

Mr. Jeffries did not care to stand up in the training ring and punch and take punches. He did not see any necessity of practicing side-steps and feints and rushes.

He knew all about them. Why, seven years ago he had done all of that he ever needed to do.

Mr. Johnson did not overlook the boxing and the wrestling and the clinching and the sidestepping, etc.

As a result, Mr. Jeffries received Mr. Johnson's compliments on the point of the jaw and his business career closed.

Advertising a business is the training of that business.

Advertising keeps a business healthy.

It tones up its liver, strengthens its biceps, steadies its heart and keeps its nerves in order.

Once in a while a man decides that he is doing so much business that he can stop advertising for a while and run on momentum.

Momentum is the gradual process toward a full stop.

If you want to stay in business stay in the advertising field.

No matter how much business you are doing, keep up the energy that makes it.

You might as well cut off your legs because you are running well in a foot race as to cut off your advertising because your business is too good.

You might as well tell the insurance man that you are so healthy you will drop the policy for a few years as to stop advertising because the orders are piling up.

"Don't need to" is the eventual preliminary to "Can't do it."

The only man who doesn't need to advertise is the man who has retired from business.

The only policy holder who doesn't need to pay his premiums is dead.

Mr. Jeffries doesn't need to train any more. He is licked.

All Cooked at One Time

Just the range to take care of the cooking for a big family, a house full of guests or a boarding house.

With this range a good cook can prepare a course dinner for from ten to thirty people in just half the time it would take on a coal range.

It does away with any possibility of scorched or underdone food. You can have a dozen different degrees of heat for as many kinds of food, all at one and the same time. And the temperature of every one of the dozen flames can be regulated to the fraction of a degree with the turn of a handle.

Your kitchen will be cool and comfortable—there will be no fuel or ashes to handle and no soot or dust to contend with.

Also this range has a generous top surface, large shelf for warming purposes—drop oven doors that serve as shelves and a smooth exterior to make cleaning easy.

Hundreds of these big gas ranges of this type are giving perfect satisfaction throughout the city.

FOUND NO SHALE, SWEARS EXPERT

Jesse Gaither Tells Court of Investigating Lawrence Avenue Sewer.

VOUCHERS IDENTIFIED.

Broker Says He Collected $64,000 on Contract from the City for McGovern.

Assistant Statae's Attorney Northup yesterday piled up more evidence against the defense in the "shale rock" graft case, in which Contractor M. H. McGovern and former city officials are charged with conspiracy to defraud the city by the payment to McGovern of $46,000 for shale which was never excavated.

Jesse Gaither, who worked in the Lawrence avenue sewer tunnel for two years, proved a star witness for the state and the greatest stumbling block to the attorneys for the defendants in the trial before Judge Barnes. Gaither insisted that no shale had been found in the excavation of the bore and testified that his experience covering many years enabled him to qualify as an expert on shale.

After unsuccessful attempts to make the witness admit that there might have been shale excavated of which he knew nothing the attorneys for the defense tried to attack the character of the witness by reference to a shooting affray in which Gaither was concerned and later vindicated by a jury in Michigan. Judge Barnes stopped this line of questioning and ordered the jurors not to consider the attack.

Row Over State Witness.

Attorney James Brady brought out one answer from the witness which made the lawyer quickly change his tactics in the cross examination. The witness was telling where he had worked in the city since the "shale rock" indictments and said he worked for a time for W. J. Newman.

"While there I was told to go to McGovern's office and sign something," the witness volunteered.

The defense attorneys objected in chorus to the answer and were sustained by the court.

Mr. Brady asked if the witness had been receiving a salary from the state's attorney's office, and the witness responded that he had received $15 a week from Jan. 26 to June 18, 1910. He testified that he had served subpoenas for Mr. Wayman.

On redirect examination Mr. Northup explained to Judge Barnes that the witness had desired to leave the city because he could not obtain further employment on city tunnel work because he had testified for the state before the grand jury in the "shale rock" charges.

"I desire to show that the witness has sustained financial loss through not being able to work at his regular trade, tunnel work," Mr. Northup said.

Identifies Writing of McGovern.

M. J. Bransfield, a broker, identified the signature of M. H. McGovern on two sewer vouchers for $30,000 and $34,000, respectively, and accompanying warrants. He said he had collected the money from the city and had the power of attorney to sign McGovern's name when the vouchers were received.

Edgar R. Steele and B. Walden, who live in the vicinity of the dump at Ravenswood park and Lawrence avenue, where the excavated material from section "D" was deposited, testified that the dump contained only clay and bowlders.

Fred Zwick, an inspector in the tunnel, testified that he had seen a few bowlders during the excavation. He denied that any ledges of rock had been encountered in the drift, but said that hard substance had been found. Michael Benson, a masonry inspector, said he saw no shale.

CHURCH FREES ITS PASTOR, WHO WILL JOIN OPTION FIGHT.

La Salle Avenue Baptist Congregation Also Thanks the Rev. J. Y. Montague for His Work.

By unanimous vote the resignation of the Rev. J. Y. Montague from the pastorate of the La Salle Avenue Baptist church was accepted at a meeting of trustees and church members last evening at the church. The vote was taken during the regular mid-week prayer meeting.

A committee of deacons recommended acceptance of the resignation and urged that the pastor be given a vacation with full salary until Aug. 1. The report was adopted without discussion.

A resolution was then passed thanking Mr. Montague for the work he had done for the church and expressing the wish of the congregation for his success in the anti-saloon work. A pulpit committee of five was elected to secure a new pastor.

The Rev. Mr. Montague will work for the Anti-Saloon league in its local and county option campaign throughout the state.

GRIEVING SON ASKS BUSSE'S AID

Writes Letter Appealing to Mayor to Find His Papa and Save Mamma's Life.

Mayor Busse yesterday received a letter from Carl Gessner, a boy living with his parents at 1114 Church place, asking the mayor to help in a search for the boy's father, John Gessner. The mayor turned the letter over to Capt. Woods of the detective bureau. The letter read as follows:

"Mayor Busse—Kind Sir: Will you please find my papa? He left home June 21 and never came back no more. I am afraid my mama will die if he don't come back home. If he only knew his little son Carl is grieving over him he will return. I will thank you ever so much for your kindness.

"MASTER CARL GESSNER,
"1114 Church place."

An inclosed picture of the missing man was given to Detective Sergeant Maronde, who began a search for him.

JUDGE TELLS OF DIVORCE CASE.

Jurist Chetlain Will Not Vouch as to Reputation of Thackaberry in Disbarment Trial.

Judge Chetlain was a witness yesterday in the disbarment proceedings against Attorney Milton L. Thackaberry as a result of the Willis Counselman divorce proceedings. The jurist explained to Master in Chancery Granville Browning that he had ordered the decree set aside when he learned that Mrs. Counselman was insane. The lawyer, he said, had told him merely that Mrs. Counselman did not intend to contest the suit. Asked if the reputation of Attorney Thackaberry was good, the judge said he was not well enough acquainted with him to answer. Owing to illness, Thackaberry was not in court.

8,000 JOIN VACATION SCHOOLS.

Enrollment at Opening This Year One Thousand Above That of Last Summer.

One thousand more pupils registered in the vacation schools, which opened Tuesday, than registered the first day of last summer's term, according to reports received in the school board rooms yesterday. The number enrolled Tuesday was 8,000. Twenty regular and three special schools were opened.

Carpenters Return to Work.

Several store and office fixture concerns signed individual agreements yesterday with the striking carpenters and about 800 men returned to work. The larger concerns refused to grant the demands for higher wages.

FREE ICE IS BOON TO POOR

WEEK OF JOY IN HOMES.

Every Household Aided to Receive a Supply on Each Day.

THE TRIBUNE'S SUMMER CHARITIES.

Contributions in aid of The Tribune's hot weather charities may be mailed to The Tribune office.

Please specify whether your contribution is to be devoted to The Tribune hospital fund or The Tribune ice fund.

All contributions will be acknowledged promptly in these columns.

THE TRIBUNE HOSPITAL FUND.

L. M. E.	1.00
Ida Brown Macpherson, Chicago	5.00
Total to date	$148.85

Into districts of destitution nurses of the Visiting Nurses' association and the Tuberculosis institute and officers of the United Charities yesterday went to distribute free ice. Armed with 700 tickets furnished by THE TRIBUNE ice fund, each supplying a family for one week, the nurses brought smiles and thanks from mothers on every hand.

It was not a surprise to many of the mothers, as they had been told in advance by Miss Harriet Fulmer, head of the Visiting Nurses' association. Dr. Caroline Hedger of the United Charities, and Frank E. Wing of the Tuberculosis institute that something good was in store.

Now is the time to help, according to officials of the three organizations. The $1,262.60 at hand for free ice will make a good start for this work, and they are hoping the total will increase by that amount each week.

Tells of Joy of Poor.

"It is impossible to realize what ice means to the poor until one visits the abodes of these people and sees the joy of the mother and children when the tickets are brought," said Miss Fulmer. "Ice is the last item on their list of articles for the household. Not that its value is unfelt, but it is considered a luxury.

"Over in the poor districts the mother who has 10 cents buys milk and bread, not being able to add the ice necessary to keep the milk. This campaign of THE TRIBUNE is the noblest work of all the summer's activities. Ice is a necessity during the hot months."

Miss Fulmer's assistants were given 200 tickets. She said all would be distributed by noon today. No trouble will be experienced in getting them to go around, she added, as the nurses had their lists made up weeks ago.

Twenty-five Pounds at Each Visit.

Those who are placing the tickets in homes of need, hand the head of the family seven coupons and give the name and address to the ice company. At each visit twenty-five pounds of ice is left so that the 175 pounds called for by the book of coupons lasts the family one week.

As fast as the fund grows it will be converted into tickets.

Edward F. Carry, president of the American Car and Foundry company, was a contributor of the day with a donation of $50. He gave the amount to the United Charities for the ice fund. Another contribution came from an out of town mother, who signed herself H. S. It was for $25. Other friends of the cause swelled the total, and, with the beginning of active work of distribution additions are expected to come in quick succession.

RETURNS RICH, SEEKS HIS KIN.

Joseph Rednark Hunts Brother and Sister After an Absence of Thirteen Years.

Joseph Rednark, who left Chicago thirteen years ago, at the age of 11, to seek a fortune, has appealed to the police to help him find his brother Walter and his sister Martha, in order that they may share his wealth. The boy, he says, has been sent to a farm somewhere, and the girl, he believes, has married.

The last he saw of the girl, he says, was shortly after their mother's death, when she was put into an orphan asylum and he ran away to escape being put into the same institution.

Rednark returned from the Klondike about a month ago and searched for the two in vain before appealing to the police. He said yesterday he had been to South Africa, too, and that fortune had smiled on him there as well as in the Klondike. He resides at 2714 Ward street.

Policeman Is Discharged.

Policeman Charles Loquist of the Maxwell street station was discharged by the civil service commission yesterday following a hearing before the police trial board on charges of intoxication and neglect of duty. June 19 Loquist was found intoxicated at South Ashland avenue and West Twelfth street.

BY I. E. SANBORN.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 6.—[Special.]—After showing the most brilliant and stubborn defense ever seen for ten innings against odds which would have discouraged almost any other team, the Cubs were nosed out of the final game of the series here in the last half of the eleventh by an exceedingly doubtful decision which could have been given either way. Score, 3 to 2.

Time and time again Chance's men rose to the emergencies which called for every ounce of nerve and by grand support behind Lou Richie staved off defeat which several times seemed inevitable.

Then just as they thought they had averted it once more they found themselves defeated. A scratch hit by Wilson, which Zimmerman failed to negotiate on the three-fourths bound started the fatal half inning. At that the decision at first was awfully close. Gibson sacrificed "that's all" to second, and Manager Clarke sent Simon to bat for Leifield. All he could do was to rap one to Zim for the second out, putting Wilson on third.

Close Decision Brings Disaster.

Richie passed Byrne rather than give him a good ball, then compelled Leach to hit. Tommy bounded a slow grounder toward short. Zim came in and, playing safe, pegged carefully to Chance. The ball and runner reached first so nearly at the same time that only a hair balanced scale could decide and Bob Emslie, who was afraid to go home in the dark, gladly gave Leach the decision, thereby permitting Wilson to tally with the winning run.

Manager Chance was so exasperated at the loss of the verdict that he dented the earth with the ball, then with his mitt, and finally with his chewing gum, but Emslie was inexorable and the P. L. curbed his injured feelings admirably during the remainder of the sad promenade off the field of battle.

It was particularly exasperating to Chance, for he had worked brilliantly in the attacking department to achieve victory, and it came near being a personal triumph for him. Three times Frank hit the ball safely, and twice for long three baggers down the right foul line. Both triples were turned into Cub runs by Hofman's bat, and those two tallies looked a plenty the way Richie was pitching.

Pirates Tie Up Game.

In the eighth round Lou suddenly and unaccountably lost the location of the plate, and passed two Pirates with nobody out. Through that hole the enemy dragged enough runs to tie Chance's efforts, and by that feat finally pull off a victory.

Clarke switched pitchers in the eighth, replacing Camnitz with Leifield, and Lefty checked the Cubs to a standstill all the rest of the way. Not a hit was made off him, and only one Cub reached first on a pass.

In every round near the finish the Pirates threatened seriously. Once Sheckard cut off the winning run at the plate. Once Archer and Zim staved off defeat by catching a Pirate asleep at second. Once Richie worked out his own salvation with Pirates on third and first, not a soul out, and Hans Wagner at bat.

Dutch Trick Don't Work.

Wagner led the Pirate half with a single and then tried to pull off a new one. He walked half way down to second and stopped there with the ball in Archer's hands. Jimmy ran down beyond the slab. Hans never moved until Archer tossed the ball to Zim, then attempted to regain first, but found the ball waiting for him there. That Dutch experiment helped us materially, for after Miller's demise Evers foozled Hyatt's bounder and Wilson singled to right. But Chance cut off Gibson's hit and retired the side.

Zim blew open the third with a swat to left, but was the victim of a head-on double play when Archer soaked warmly to Wagner.

Richie could not get them over to suit Rigler in the local half and passed Camnitz, but the pass was limited. Byrne forced Howard at second and was caught trying to steal that bag just before Leach grounded out.

Schulte wasted a single over second with two out in the fourth round and was caught stealing. In the other half Wagner once more closed a loophole by ill timed base running. Hans singled with one out and went to second when Archer pegged wild trying to catch him napping. Richie put some more stuff on the ball and struck out Miller, but before he could get Hyatt, Wagner tried to steal third and was caught red handed in the act.

Chance Leads the Assault.

Chance led the Cubs to their tally in the fifth by driving a liner along the right foul line for three corners before any one was out. Wagner grabbed Steinfeldt's rap and threw to first without letting Chance home, but Hofman raised a fly to deep left on which the run scored easily. It was timely, for Hyatt picked Zim's foul fly off the edge of the grand stand.

Archer's wing was all that kept the Pirates from tying the count at least in their fifth. Wilson pushed a single to left with one out, but met quick death when he tried to purloin second. But for that Wilson could have scored in a walk when Gibson smashed a three bagger past Schulte into the corner of the lot. Only the fastest kind of hustling by Wildfire stopped Gibby on third, where he perished when Richie fanned Camnitz.

Archer led in the sixth with a single to right and was sacrificed ahead of Richie, but Evers was called out on strikes and Wagner nailed Sheckard's rap.

The black clouds began to spit rain, but the warriors paid no attention to the mutterings of thunder. Byrne started Pittsburg's sixth with a single, made second on Leach's sacrifice and third on Clarke's grounder to Chance. Wagner was passed intentionally. Miller almost knotted things up with a Texas leaguer back of first base, but Schulte sneaked in under cover of the gathering darkness and pinched the fly.

Hofman Gets Timely Hit.

These narrow escapes impelled Chance to whale out another of his duly celebrated three baggers to right. This time there was one out. Steinfeldt made it two out by fouling to Byrne, compelling Hofman to make a hit to score the run. Artie did. He also stole second, but Zim rolled out by way of Camnitz.

The storm changed its mind and started to go around Forbes field, so Manager Clarke took the hunch and changed pitchers, letting Vince Campbell bat for Camnitz in the local seventh.

Nothing happened right there, but for some occult reason the switch worked on Richie's nerves in the next round and he passed Byrne and Leach before a Pirate was out. This proved fatal to the two run lead earned by Cap Chance's starling industry.

Clarke sacrificed and Wagner beat out a slow hit to Zim over second, scoring Byrne and putting Leach on third. Miller flied to Hofman too short to score Tommy, but Wagner sneaked to second on the throw in. Hyatt poked a single to left, scoring Byrne. Wagner tried to follow home with the run that would have won, but Sheckard whipped the ball home true as a rifle ball and nipped the Dutchman.

Stave Off Early Defeat.

There was another narrow escape in the ninth, when Evers missed a hard chance from Wilson and Gibson walked with nobody out. Archer and Zimmerman staved off defeat right there by a swell play which caught Wilson asleep off second before Leifield could sacrifice. Lefty passed up bunting and struck out. Then Hofman tore back and caught Byrne's long fly, which would have scored Wilson from third, but which retired the side because of Wilson's nap.

Our chances to prevent a run in the tenth looked about as big as a bird shot after singles by Leach and Clarke put Pirates on third and first with none out. But Richie faced the situation like a cucumber on ice. He let the mighty Honus down on a grounder which couldn't score Tommy, made Miller pop out, and struck out Hyatt, the pinch [illegible] the eleventh looked easy by comparison, but it was not. Score:

NOTES OF THE CUBS.

Richie sacrificed Archer to second in the sixth by laying down a neat bunt after two strikes had been called on him.

Today's game was the "rubber" for the present in the Chicago-Pittsburg series, and Cubs and Pirates will meet only five more times this year.

The open dates in the schedule tomorrow and Friday will be used to work off a pair of postponed games with Cincinnati before the second invasion of the west by the east begins.

Rain threatened all day and it sprinkled some during the later rounds, but not enough to interfere with the play in any way, as the ground was not even dampened.

Possibly Emslie was afraid of being struck by lightning if the game lasted any longer. There was occasional thunder after the middle of the game, but the storm held off.

Evers was put out of the game in the eleventh for objecting to Emslie's decision calling Wilson safe on Zimmerman's throw after knocking down a swift hit. Kane went to second in John's place for the rest of the fatal session.

LYNCH TURNS DOWN CHARGES OF DREYFUSS AGAINST EVERS.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 6.—[Special.]—President Thomas J. Lynch of the National league has turned down Barney Dreyfuss and the Pittsburg club on its demand that Johnny Evers of the Cubs be disciplined for his alleged unbecoming conduct on the field during the game in Pittsburg on June 25.

Dreyfuss today received a letter from the league chief stating that Lynch had referred the matter to the Chicago management and that Pittsburg would have no further trouble with Chicago players while in Pittsburg. Dreyfuss takes the matter much to heart, claiming he has been turned down. He made an issue of the Evers case.

It was claimed that when the Cubs were losing the game Evers used rough language in the hearing of women in the stand. Dreyfuss filed charges against Evers, but it is understood that the latter had a good defense in that he had been goaded to his remarks by insults from the stand. It was intimated to the Pittsburg officials that it is up to them to keep proper order in the grandstand, to begin with.

BURLINGTON MAY LEAVE C. A.

Club Given Ten Days to Assure League It Will Stay—Muscatine Is After Franchise.

Keokuk, Ia., July 6.—[Special.]—The midsummer meeting of the Central association was held here today and every city in the league was represented. Burlington, which is on the verge of financial disruption and may be forced to give up its franchise at any time, was given ten days in which to give the league assurance that the club would remain in the circuit until the end of the season.

An application from Muscatine was received and that city is looked upon with much favor by the league managers and President Justice. If Burlington decides to give up its franchise the vacant berth will go to Muscatine. The claim of Ottumwa against Monmouth for $116.87 additional gate receipts from the opening game was not allowed.

Hereafter the clubs are to be held to the thirteen man limit, except when two catchers are injured, and then with permission from the president another catcher may be signed. Players under suspension are included in the list.

The protest of Burlington against the game won on the opening day by Quincy was sustained. Barngrover, under the name of "Smith," had been suspended by Des Moines and pitched for Quincy.

A statement of President Justice showed the league to be in splendid condition financially. Following the meeting the visiting magnates were guests of the local directors on an automobile tour of the city.

President Burton Believes Six Clubs Will Remain in Circuit—May Adopt New Schedule.

Jacksonville, Ill., July 6.—President Burton said tonight that he had just returned from the south and was not familiar with conditions in each of the towns in the Northern association, but believed from all reports that six cities will remain in the association. Burton will go to Chicago tonight to attend an association meeting tomorrow at the Grand Pacific, when a new schedule probably will be adopted.

Cardinals Sign Ernest Lush.

St. Louis, Mo., July 6.—Ernest Lush, a former member of the New York Giants, who recently was released by Troy, N. Y., was signed today by the St. Louis Nationals as a utility fielder. Pitcher Corey Bachus of Poplar Bluff, Mo., has joined the team.

NOTES OF THE WHITE SOX.

Cleveland, O., July 6.—The Sox left tonight for New York. They will arrive there tomorrow in time to see the ball game, if there is one.

Graney collided with Collins at first base in the eighth inning and had to quit the game. Lord took his place in center field.

Rain fell at intervals during the morning, and it drizzled while the game was going on. Half an hour after the end of the battle it began to come down in earnest.

Manager Duffy expects Ed Walsh to join the team in New York Friday. He will be needed, for the Sox are booked for a double header with the Yanks Saturday.

Chick Gandil, who was reported out of the game for ten days or a year, came along with the bunch and had a uniform on today. He limped painfully and didn't do any practicing. Capt. Zeider was left at home to nurse his wounded finger.

Billy Purtell was hit in the leg by a batted ball in the preliminary practice and it looked for a time as if he would have to watch the game from the bench. Trainer Buckner, however, rubbed out the pain and Bill performed as per program.

MORDECAI BROWN SENT HOME TO HURL FIRST NEW YORK GAME

T. F. S. Given Plenty of Time to Prepare for Opening Contest on Saturday—Joe Tinker Is Out for Week.

BY WALTER H. ECKERSALL.

Joe Tinker and Mordecai Brown, the advance guard of the Cubs, arrived in the city early yesterday morning from Pittsburg, where the west side team has been giving battle to the Pirates for the last three days. Brown was sent home by Manager Chance to rest up for the crucial New York series which opens on Saturday. The P. L. told Brown on his departure from Pittsburg that he would have to work in the opening game, as the manager is anxious to bag the first contest.

Brown was feeling pretty good when he called on President Murphy yesterday. He said he practically had regained his old time form and expects to improve with every game. The decisive manner in which he trimmed the Pirates on Tuesday has given him a lot of confidence and he feels sure he will be able to hold the Giants safe.

Tinker, who was injured in Tuesday's game, is in bad shape, and it is doubtful if he will be in condition to don the spangles again for at least a week or ten days. Upon his arrival Joe consulted a physician, who found that some of the ligaments in the left ankle had been torn badly and Joseph was told to give the injured member as much rest as possible.

The shortstop was hardly able to bear any weight on the leg yesterday, and had to go around with the assistance of a cane. Joe is downcast over the accident because of the important series with New York. In nearly every game which the Cubs have had with the Giants Joe has been a tower of strength both on the offense and defense. He knows the weaknesses of the eastern batters better than any player on the Cub team, and his absence will be felt keenly.

President Murphy is much depressed over Joe's injury and will do everything possible to get the infielder back in the game as soon as possible. The Cub boss knew nothing of the Leifield deal. He said all that he knew about it was what he had read in the papers, and if the Chicago club had refused to waive on the Pittsburg pitcher it was Manager Chance's doings. Murphy is making preparations to handle a large crowd on Saturday and Sunday, and already requests for reserved seats are coming in at headquarters. He expects one of the biggest crowds of the season on Sunday.

Yesterday Murphy said he was going to inaugurate a campaign for clean baseball on the part of the rowdy fans who abuse players when anything happens to displease them. He said he did not think that a spectator has any more right to use abusive and insulting language to a player on the field than the player has to return the compliment. He asserted he was going to have a lot of signs printed to put in his park that bottle throwing and abusive language will not be tolerated any more than gambling. He said there should be restrictions on the spectators as well as on the players.

The departure of the Sox on their long eastern trip will give the workmen on the south side a chance to put on the finishing touches at the new park. Commy spent almost the entire day at his new plant directing the men in making certain things conform to his wishes. The Old Roman is especially anxious to have everything completed when the Sox return the latter part of the month.

Zeider and Payne, the cripples who were left at home, are doing well and all will join the team some time during the eastern invasion. Zeider's spiked hand is healing quickly and the captain probably will join the bunch inside of a week, while Payne will be well enough to accompany his captain at the same time.

BY R. W. LARDNER.

Cleveland, O., July 6.—[Special.]—The Sox continued their glorious booting career and threw away their last game of the year on Cleveland grounds, 5 to 4.

It looked for seven innings as if they wouldn't have to do as much erring as usual, for the Naps secured a cluster of three in the opener and the Sox were not doing anything to speak of against Pitcher Elmer Koestner. But the eighth came, and with it a big Chicago rally, a rally in which Jimmy Block, Pat Dougherty, and Jack Collins figured prominently. When the third man had been retired the Sox were leading by a score of 4 to 3 and there were only nine more Clevelanders to retire.

Harry Niles was mean enough to shoot a triple in the Nap eighth and Graney was cruel enough to go out in such a way that Niles couldn't help crossing the plate and tying it up once more. Then came the ninth, which was vain as far as the Sox were concerned, although Blackburne led off with a base hit and Block sacrificed. Olmstead, who had been pitching pretty well, was allowed to hit for himself and his best was a grounder to Perring that allowed Lena to reach third. It was all up to George Browne then, but old "Dear Heart" perished on a foul to Bradley and the last Chicago chance was gone.

Sox Produce Necessary Errors.

The errors necessary to give Cleveland its winning run were forthcoming quickly in the McGuire ninth. The dangerous Lajoie ought to have been killed off, but eh wasn't. He shot a bounder to Blackburne, which Lena gathered up and threw to first in a hurry. Bill Evans called Larry out, but changed his mind when he saw Jack Collins drop the ball. Easterly didn't know whether he was trying to sacrifice or hit. He fanned trying to find out. George Perring, formerly a weak right handed hitter, but now a reformed left hander, came forward and dealt the ball a blow which sent it over second base and into center field. Horrible to relate, the thing oozed away from Fred Parent, and when he had recovered it Larry was at third and George on second. At this point Manager Duffy pulled out Olmstead and sent in Jim Scott, the daily pitcher. The other Dutch manager immediately substituted Harry Bemis for Bill Bradley at bat. The infield was playing close, of course, and the third ball Scott pitched was sent hopping between Blackburne and Purtell. Lena made a try for it and managed to embrace it for just a moment, but it eluded him, and the pastime was at an end.

Sad Ending After Rally.

It was a sad ending after that eighth inning rally, all the sadder because the Sox would have passed Cleveland in the race if they could have held onto that lead of one run. But the McGuire family is just as anxious to do well as are the Duffys, and you can't blame them for winning a ball game, especially when it is presented to them with such lavish hands.

The three run lead of the Clevelanders was secured in this wise: Niles opened the first inning by beating out a hit to Blackburne. Graney gave a hit and run sign and lifted a fly down the right foul line. Browne had a long run for it and when he caught up he couldn't hold the ball. This slip allowed Graney to land at first and Niles at second. Turner bunted them ahead and Lajoie was passed purposely. Easterly forced Larry at second, but Niles raced home on the play, and then the reformed Perring sent one at Blackburne that caused Lena to sit down in the mud. The ball didn't wait to see if he was hurt, but sped on into center, giving Perring two bases and scoring Easterly and Graney. Perring went to third on a wild pitch, but it didn't hurt anything, as Bradley popped a fly to Blackburne.

Niles Starts Trouble.

Olmstead didn't give the Naps another look in until after the Sox had taken their lead. Then he was bruised by Niles for a three bagger, as heretofore related, and the rest of the bad news followed.

Olmstead singled with one out in the third. Browne lifted a fly to Graney. Bradley made a two base wild heave of French's grounder, but Parent was a goner on a fly to Turner. Dougherty cracked a single to left in the fourth. Collins hit the ball hard enough to hurt it, but it was right at Turner and a double play was the result.

Another double play, which may be described as a peach, foiled the Sox in the sixth. One down, French walked. Parent dumped a slow one down the third base line. Bradley came tearing in and scooped it with his bare hand, throwing out Freddie at first. French saw that third was uncovered and made a dash for it, but Turner beat him, arriving just in time to take Perring's pretty return peg and win the decision.

Sox Count Four in Eighth.

The big eighth was started by Block's single. Olmstead was called out on strikes and Browne grounded to Perring. Koestner lost control for a spell and passes to French and Parent filled the bases. Dougherty slipped a single over second, French and Block counting. The ball slipped past Graney and Parent followed the others across the plate with the tally that tied, and, of course, Graney's error made it possible for Pat to reach second. He scored when Collins singled past Turner. Purtell's fly to Niles made the third out. Score:

NEGRO CHAMPION WILL REST A YEAR

WILL GO TO EUROPE SOON.

Many Contracts Have Been Accepted and More Are in Hands of Colored Title Holder.

Grand Island, Neb., July 6.—Champion Jack Johnson told a representative of the Associated Press during the stop of his train for five minutes here tonight that he positively would not fight for a year and indicated that he would not consider any challenge from Sam Langford.

"Just say for me that Langford hasn't a chance," said Johnson, when Union Pacific train No. 2 stopped here at 10 o'clock tonight. "I'm not going to fight again for one year. I think I have been square with the American people and have done all I can be asked to do for a while. I have put up five fights in rapid succession. I believe I am entitled to take some time before going into the ring again.

Johnson Going to Europe.

"I am going to Europe and fill some of the numerous contracts I am receiving and that I have here now," pointing to a bunch of letters lying on a table from which Johnson and Mrs. Johnson were eating dinner.

"No, I shall not go to Europe at once," Johnson continued, in answer to a query, "but during September."

"What about the pictures?" asked the champion, who had not received the news of the day. When informed about the action of the authorities at Washington, the declaration of Gov. Hadley, etc., the big champion replied: "Well, I'm not surprised at it and especially not at Washington," and it was said with a "well-I-can-stand-it" air.

Johnson looked at ease and showed no marks of his recent battle. His train was two hours late, but a crowd of good natured men and women remained at the station to get a glimpse of the Reno winner. There were repeated calls for Johnson, but he paid not the least attention and did not show himself outside his car.

Statement Out of Cheyenne.

Early in the day Johnson, according to a statement from Cheyenne, Wyo., announced that he would fight Sam Langford if the Boston fighter would put up a side bet of $20,000, the battle to take place during the great frontier celebration the latter part of August or a month later. For half an hour at Cheyenne the champion was given the greatest friendly demonstration he has received since the fight. A crowd of more than 5,000, including 1,000 colored soldiers of the Ninth Cavalry from Fort D. A. Russell, almost surrounded the champion's private car, the crowd greeting the champion with wild yells and waving of hats.

Flowers were showered on him and the people forced their way into Johnson's car to shake his hand. A number of women in the crowd fainted as a result of the crush and were taken into Johnson's car.

Governor Will Prevent Fight.

Cheyenne, Wyo., July 6.—"There is no show for the fight here during the Cheyenne frontier celebration," said the governor when told of the plans for the Johnson-Langford match.

"Wyoming laws forbid it, and I will see that the laws are enforced. Personally I am not opposed to the sport and would enjoy seeing the match, but the law forbids such fights, and when I took the oath of office to uphold the laws I meant it."

"Barkis Is Willin'."

San Francisco, Cal., July 6.—When told that Jack Johnson had offered to fight him if he would put up a side bet of $20,000 Sam Langford said: "My first name is 'Bet,' and I'll fight Johnson at any time and place. As he is the champion, though, the odds should be 2 to 1. I would put up $10,000 through Joe Woodman tomorrow against $20,000 of Johnson's money and will force him to meet me in the ring."

When Woodman learned that Johnson had offered to fight Langford if the latter would put up a side bet of $20,000 he declared he would accept the offer. Woodman is here trying to arrange a ten round bout between Langford and Kaufmann. If this cannot be done Langford and Woodman will leave on Monday for Chicago, where they claim they will place the money for the Johnson side bet in the hands of a stakeholder. The only condition named by Woodman is that the promoters of the fight guarantee a suitable purse.

SAYS JEFF WAS DISQUALIFIED.

Rickard Declares Action of White Man's Seconds in Helping Him to Rise Gave Verdict to Negro.

Reno, Nev., July 6.—"Was Jeffries disqualified, or was he knocked out?" is the point Tex Rickard is being asked by telegraph from several eastern cities. Rickard finds it difficult to make an official decision on the technical points involved, but is disposed to rule that the interference of Jeffries' seconds in helping him to get up after the second knockdown constitutes a disqualification. He had this to say on the subject today:

"Jeffries was not counted out, although I am positive he never could have arisen within ten seconds when he went down the second time if his seconds had not put their hands on him and pushed him up. This assistance disqualified Jeffries and I was trying to get between the men to stop the fight on that account when Johnson sent him down for the third time with a left and right on the jaw.

"The pictures will show that I got between them when this third knockdown came and gave the fight to Johnson before the timekeeper could count ten. Therefore, I believe it should stand as a disqualification, although, as I have said, Jeffries would have been counted out had the disqualification not occurred."

Rickard's attention was called to the widespread agitation against the pictures of the fight being shown, particularly in the southern states.

"I still hold a sixth interest in the pictures and naturally am interested, but I don't think this agitation will amount to anything except to advertise the pictures. The feeling will die out in a few days."

KETCHEL'S MOTHER A WARRIOR

Creates Discord in the Wagner Home at Detroit by Attacking Inmates with Crockery Missiles.

Detroit, Mich., July 6.—[Special.]—Mrs. Julia Ketchel, mother of Stanley Ketchel, was complained of in the police court today for assault and battery. The complainant is Albert Wagner. Both parties reside at 262 Seventeenth street. The row yesterday started over the Jeffries-Johnson fight. Wagner made some remarks at which the mother of the middleweight champion took offense. He insisted that Stanley could not have done better than Jeffries did. After the dispute the old lady is alleged to have entered the Wagner premises, seized the Wagner dishes, and broke them on the Wagner heads. She now must appear in the police court.

JEFF IS BROKEN BY DEFEAT

REFUSES TO SAY A WORD.

Big Fighter Still Bears Scars of His Encounter with Johnson

Oakland, Cal., July 6.—James J. Jeffries arrived in Oakland this morning in a private car. He was accompanied by his wife, brother, and a number of intimate friends. He was taken in an automobile to a hotel and immediately secluded himself. He will leave for Los Angeles tomorrow afternoon and go at once to his ranch.

The big prizefighter bears the scars of his encounter with Johnson. His face is still badly marred, his lips being swollen and cut, and his eye almost closed. Patches of plaster adorn his features and he walked with his head low, indicating in every line of his big body a feeling of sadness. His spirit seems to be gone.

Jeffries refused to answer the assertions of Muldoon and others that he was "all in" before he ever entered the ring. The fighter maintains an absolute silence, which his brother Jack and his wife are unable to break.

"It is what we might have expected," declared Mrs. Jeffries in response to a request for some statement of the criticism meted out to her husband. She apparently feels the former champion's position keenly, and though she refused to discuss the interviews printed in the morning papers, in which Jeffries' trainers and friends declared that he was to all seemingly a nervous wreck before he entered his dressing room, it is evident she had read them all.

Jeffries, on the other hand, refuses to look at a paper, it is said, and smiles grimly at any one who offers a word of criticism of his tactics during the fight.

"My steam was gone. I knew it in the fourth round. I tried to fight, but I couldn't," he said once or twice since his defeat, but of the reasons which led up to this condition he refused to speak.

GOLFERS TO INVADE AMERICA

Australia Plans to Send Team to This Country Next Year.

CHAMPIONS IN THE PARTY.

Dr. F. G. Brathwaite, United States Vice Consul Will Act as Manager.

New York, July 6.—International golf of a nature hitherto unknown in this country, unless the visit of the Oxford-Cambridge team in 1903 be excepted, is practically a certainty for next season.

This time the invading forces will represent Australia and they will be headed by Dr. F. G. Brathwaite, the American vice consul, who will act as manager. In addition to the golfers there will be at least two lawn tennis players in the party.

The plan mapped out is for a team to arrive in this country early next summer and tour America from coast to coast, taking part in team matches and tournaments, but arranging the schedule so as to take in both the amateur and open championships.

The Australian team, as made up at present, consists of eight golfers and two lawn tennis players, but it is possible that this number may be increased.

Prominent among the visitors will be Michael Scott, the amateur champion of Australia and open champion of New South Wales and Victoria. He is a brother of O. Scott, who has been runner up in the amateur championship tournament of Great Britain.

Next on the list is Clyde Pearce, who has been both open and amateur title holder of Australia. Then there is Felstead, a left handed golfer, who recently broke the record for the course at the Royal Melbourne club. Last year Felstead won the open championship tournament of Australia, beating all the professionals.

Another equally well known golfer booked for the trip is Duncan, five times champion of New Zealand, and runner up in the Australian amateur tournament in 1908.

Bruce Pearce, the youthful phenomenon of many titles, also enjoys an international reputation. This 18 year old lad, who will be a member of the team, is champion of Tasmania and south Australia and altogether holds no less than thirteen minor championship titles.

GAELS REVISE HURLING LIST.

Addition of Championship O'Mahoney Team Necessitates Change in League Schedule.

Owing to the acquisition of the O'Mahoney team to the Gaelic Hurling league, the schedule was revised at a meeting held last night at the Victoria hotel. Four teams, the O'Mahoneys, Dalcassians, Brian Borus, and Liberties, comprise the league.

The O'Mahoney team was one of the four which left the league last December, at which time a split occurred in the ranks of the Illinois State Gaelic Athletic association. The team won the championship last season and was regarded as one of the strongest which played in Gaelic park during the last three years.

Although the present body was willing to consider the reinstatement of the team previous to the beginning of this season, the men back of the O'Mahoneys refused to listen to any overtures. Nothing further was done and three teams made up the league. Later on, when the season began, some of the members of the championship team became restless and desired to play and practically forced the management to make a request for reinstatement.

The O'Mahoneys will open their season this Sunday, when they will meet the Liberties, a recently organized team. Practically the same men will make up the team as last year. In addition the Rangers, which are tied for lead in the football league with the O'Connells, will meet the Shamrocks, second place team, in the curtain raiser. Following is the revised schedule:

July 10—O'Mahoneys vs. Liberties.
July 31—Brian Borus vs. Liberties.
Aug. 14—Liberties vs. Dalcassians.
Aug. 21—O'Mahoneys vs. Brian Borus.
Aug. 28—Brian Borus vs. Dalcassians.
Sept. 5—O'Mahoneys vs. Liberties.
Sept. 11—Dalcassians vs. Liberties.
Sept. 25—O'Mahoneys vs. Brian Borus.
Oct. 2—Dalcassians vs. O'Mahoneys.
Oct. 16—Brian Borus vs. Liberties.

EXPECT FAST GOLF AT WESTWARD HO

Play in Annual Open Tournament Begins at 9 O'Clock This Morning.

MANY LOCAL STARS ENTER

BY J. G. DAVIS.

Over a course which it is expected will be lightning fast many of the leading local golfers will compete today in the annual open tournament of the Westward Ho Golf club.

The rain storm which hit the northwestern suburbs yesterday morning failed to reach Oak Park and although the Westward Ho officials have worked their new force pump to the limit, the fair green by name is nearer brown in color.

Unless it rains this morning the long driving youngsters will be getting from 250 to 300 yards on their drives and it will take exceptionally low figures to finish near the top in the qualifying round.

The program will open at 9 o'clock with the qualifying round for the Westward Ho and Oak Park cups, sixteen qualifying in each flight. The first match round will be played in the afternoon.

Hinsdale appears to have the best chance of carrying off the honors, as Robert Gardner, the national champion; Albert Seckel, the intercollegiate champion, and Ashley Fulton will represent the club. Western Champion Charles Evans Jr., H. W. Snow, F. McConnell, and W. S. McDonald will represent the Edgewater club.

Among the other entries outside of the home club are the following:

Beverly—Glen Clarke, J. K. Lamb, C. R. Perry, H. R. Schollenberger; Riverside—C. B. Devol; Homewood—Charles McArthur; Midlothian—J. P. Gardner; Calumet—C. B. Coy, S. J. Chadwick, R. Freeman, E. A. Eulass, R. T. Larrabee, W. C. Robinson; Birchwood—J. R. McNulty; La Grange—B. N. Anderson; Windsor—J. L. Dunkley, E. E. Harwood; Idlewild—G. W. Marx; Elmhurst—G. A. Rockwood, R. Markley, G. E. Porter, S. R. King.

ALLERTON, FAMOUS SIRE, DIES

First Stallion to Trot in 2:10 to High Wheel Sulky.

WAS SUCCESS IN THE STUD.

Horse Earns Breeder Fortune; Bought by H. E. Hopper Two Years Ago.

Des Moines, Ia., July 6.—Allerton, known far and wide as a sire of trotting horses, died last night at the Hopper stock farm at Indianola.

BY HENRY TEN EYCK WHITE.

News was received in Chicago yesterday of the death on the stock farm of his owner, Harry E. Hopper of Indianola, Ia., of the famous stallion Allerton, 2:09¼.

Allerton, foaled in 1886, was one of the pair bred that season by the Independence (Ia.) telegraph operator, C. W. Williams, who, buying for less than $200 apiece a couple of Mambrino Boy mares that were not thought good enough to mate with Nutwood and other noted sires of the neighborhood, sent them to Kentucky, breeding one to Jay Bird and the other to William L., both sons of George Wilkes.

The foals from these mares were Allerton, 2:09¼, the first stallion to trot in 2:10 to high wheel sulky, and Axtell, 2:12 at 3 years, champion trotting stallion of the world. Williams sold Axtell as a 3 year old for $105,000, and for Allerton refused an offer of nearly twice that sum. The horse earned him a fortune in the stud and was sold a couple of years ago to Mr. Hopper, along with the rest of the stock owned by Williams.

Sets Mark as 5 Year Old.

When Allerton, then a 5 year old, trotted in 2:09¼ Sept. 19, 1891, the performance made him champion trotting stallion. On Sept. 4 he had trotted in 2:10, but that record was tied two weeks later by Nelson, so Allerton again raced against the watch and won. With the exception of the 2:08¾ of Palo Alto, made in California two months later, that mile is the best by a trotting stallion to high wheel sulky.

In the stud, to which he then was retired, Allerton made a great success and at the close of last season was the sire of 156 trotters and 45 pacers that had taken standard records, 58 sons that had sired 102 trotters and 55 pacers, and 19 daughters that were the dams of 29 trotters and 7 pacers. Nancy Royce, which raced on the grand circuit last year and took a record of 2:09¼, was the last of his get to enter the 2:10 trotting list, although doubtless many more will follow.

Gayton and Redlac are other members of the Allerton 2:10 trotting list that were good race winners as well as fast horses, and the last named will take his sire's place in the stud at the Hopper farm.

Locanda His Best Pacer.

The best pacer sired by Allerton is Locanda, 2:02, which for several years has been in the stud in Kentucky. Alto Leyburn, a son of Allerton, sired Jack Leyburn, 2:04¼, which held the record for three heats by a trotter in a race until it was taken from him by Hamburg Belle, and many other sons of Allerton sired speed of the true racehorse sort, while his daughters are the dams of Ann Direct, 2:10, which won an M. and M.; Deloree, 2:09¼, a fast trotter which went lame before showing her full speed, and others.

Allerton is, I think, the only horse except Gambetta Wilkes that has sired 200 or more trotters and pacers which have taken standard records, and, while his family is in some respects not as prominent as some others, it is nevertheless an important branch of the Jay Bird tribe. About a year ago the report was current that Allerton was dead, but the horse recovered from the weakness that attacked him. He was worn out, however, and at the end the stallion simply fell over and was dead.

FLINT FAVORITE IS DEFEATED.

German Boy, Selling at $10 as Against $6 in the Pools, Goes to Pieces in the 2:15 Pace.

Flint, Mich., July 6.—[Special.]—German Boy, favorite in the 2:15 pace, in a field of eleven, went to pieces after an easy victory in the first heat and finished ninth in the next two. NEW BUILDING FOR BUSINESS SECTION

GETS KAVANAGH ESTATE.

Warren Lamson Bids In Property at Judicial Sale for the Sum of $26,000.

Charles F. Gunther has completed arrangements for the erection of a nine story fireproof steel construction building at the northwest corner of Wabash avenue and Harmon place. It will front forty feet, with a depth of 165 feet.

The plans, which are being prepared by Architect George Beaumont, provide for a thoroughly modern structure to cost $250,000.

The Keeley Brewing company has purchased from Ira M. Cobe a tract of 150x118 feet of vacant ground, west front, in Erie avenue 130 feet north of Ninety-third street for $15,000 and will improve it with a storehouse and depot to take care of the company's South Chicago trade. The plans for the building, which are being prepared by Louis Mehle, have not been determined upon, but it is expected to cost about $30,000 and probably will be a three story structure.

Bids In Kavanagh Estate.

F. Warren Lamson of Lamson Bros., a board of trade firm, and extensive owner of South Chicago property, bid in at judicial sale at the auction room of the Chicago real estate board the Kavanagh estate property at the southwest corner of Commercial avenue and Ninetieth street for $26,000.

The lot fronts 55 feet, with a depth of 140 feet, and is improved with a four story and basement brick building on the front part of the lot, containing two stores, four flats, and a lodge hall on the top floor. There is a frame building on the rear end of the lot.

The property in Vincennes avenue, 62 feet north of Fiftieth place, 57.4 feet, east front, 127 feet on the north and 119 feet on the south, with three story and basement building containing six apartments, has been sold by Murray Wolbach to John Saviers. The deed recites a consideration of $1, but the sale is subject to an incumbrance of $13,000.

The estate of Eli B. Smith has sold to William S. Myers the property in State street, 147 feet north of Thirty-second street, 50x120 feet, east front, with brick improvements, for $16,000.

Women Buy New Club Site.

The Woman's Club of Evanston has closed the purchase of a piece of property on the west side of Chicago avenue north of Davis street, on which it plans to construct a handsome clubhouse. The property, which was purchased from Mrs. Marie Huse Kidder, fronts sixty-six feet, with a depth of 200 feet, and is improved with a two story frame dwelling.

The consideration is $7,900, subject to incumbrance of $3,500. It was thought to be a good purchase for the club, but no definite plans are said to be had regarding the construction, it being the purpose, it is said, to raise by subscription the money necessary to carry the work to completion.

John A. Duffin and Benjamin M. Giroux have conveyed to the Lyric Amusement company the one and a half story stone theater building, fixtures and furniture on 25x125 feet of land at 2950 West Twenty-second street, in Lawndale, the consideration being placed at $21,000, subject to incumbrance of $11,000.

Aaron B. Moe has conveyed to the Chicago Title and Trust company, trustee, the property in Clybourn avenue 130 feet northwest of Diversey avenue, 25x125 feet, southwest front, and two other lots in the same block for $15,000, subject to incumbrance of $8,000.

Peabody, Houghteling & Co. made a bond issue loan of $45,000, five years at 5½ per cent, to John Hamilton, secured by the Hamilton apartment building, with 264 feet of ground, west front, in Evanston avenue at the northwest corner of Clifton avenue.

$40,000 Loan Is Secured.

The Chicago Title and Trust company is trustee in a loan of $40,000, ten years, at 5 per cent, to John C. Krietenstein, secured by the property in Sixty-sixth street, at the southeast corner of Monroe avenue, 101x131 feet, and three story and basement apartment building.

The Kaestner & Hecht company, manufacturers of elevators and carrying apparatus, will add to their large plant at Jefferson and Desplaines streets by the construction of a seven story and basement, mill construction building, 50x80 feet, to cost about $45,000. This will give the company 200 feet of frontage of six and seven story buildings in Jefferson street and 321 feet of six story buildings in Desplaines street.

NEWS NOTES OF FINANCIAL WORLD.

The bureau of insular affairs, war department, will today receive bids for the $425,000 Porto Rico 4 per cent gold bonds, the bonds in denomination of $5,000 bearing interest from Jan. 1 last, and payable seventeen years after date, also redeemable at the pleasure of the government after Jan. 1, 1910.

The New York public service commission, Second district, is collecting information on telephone concerns through the state, regarding finances, property, management, etc., jurisdiction not extending over concerns of a value not exceeding $10,000, or not operating for profit. Present information shows that in the state there are 1,106 telephone corporations. Of these 119 are in Steuben county alone.

After several months of negotiation the newly formed Philadelphia and Wilmington Traction company, with $6,500,000 capital, has been made the holding concern for all the Interstate Railways company's properties south of Philadelphia, all properties acquired on 999 year leases. The companies are merged with the Wilmington Light and Power company. O. T. Crosby of New York will be president.

During the fiscal year just closed the United States mints made 188,006,668 coins, valued at $54,215,319; of this $47,578,875 in gold, $4,297,567 in silver, and $2,338,877 in minor coinage.

Cotton mills employing about 100,000 operatives, scattered through New England and the south, have closed down temporarily and others have adopted five day schedules. The renewed curtailment agreed upon will affect about 150,000 operatives between now and Oct. 1.

Since the compiling of the bank statement important New York banks have lost $6,500,000 actual cash, mostly on withdrawals for western and southern banks.

LATE WALL STREET NEWS AND GOSSIP.

NEW YORK, July 6.—[Special.]—W. C. Brown, president of the New York Central lines, who has just returned from an extended trip through Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, and Minnesota, today made the following comment on the crop situation:

"On our lines, particularly the Big Four, crops are good. In Iowa, Missouri, and Kansas and all but the northern portion of Nebraska they will harvest average crops so far as my observation went. In the northern states conditions are not so satisfactory. Business men in the west are in good shape and generally are cheerful."

According to a representative of the leading steel companies reports of crops received from the western districts this morning were more encouraging than at any previous time in two weeks. Reports mention fairly good rains in the drought stricken spring wheat section. Representatives of certain steel companies that keep posted on the crops through their western agents declare as a result of more recent advices they have no apprehension as to the outcome of the country's harvests.

With the exception of Dr. F. S. Pearson, no member of the group of interests which several months ago were credited with buying a large amount of Lehigh Valley stock, also Rock Island securities, was in town today. D. G. Reid is at Carlsbad and Mr. Farquhar, a close business associate of Dr. Pearson, is in Paris. While it is impossible to get a direct statement from any of these men, it is learned that their closest associates do not credit the recent reports that they have thrown over a large part of Rock Island and Lehigh Valley stock, which they were supposed to have bought some months since.

While the United States Steel corporation and large independents are still holding prices with a firm hand, there is no doubt the smaller companies are cutting prices and getting considerable business at the lower quotations. The market for steel bars, which has been by far the strongest of the various steel products, has until recently been firm at $1.45 at Pittsburg, but sales at $1.40 recently were made by Western concerns. This caused the larger producers considerable worry. There has been more general reduction on the part of small dealers in the market for structural steel shapes, plates, etc., sales having been made at $1.40, which is from $1 to $2 a ton under prices quoted by the larger companies.

RUN DAILY TRAINS COASTWARD

Grand Trunk Starts Service Over New Extension.

HOLD GRAIN RATE PARLEY.

Officials of Mississippi Lines Discuss New Rulings.

Reports of the inauguration of the first regular passenger service on the Pacific coast extension of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway were received yesterday at the Chicago offices of the company. The reports said that daily train service had been established on that portion of the new road between Winnipeg and Edmonton, a distance of about 800 miles, on the line which ultimately will extend from Halifax, N. S., to Prince Rupert on the Pacific coast.

Heretofore only an infrequent mixed passenger and freight train service has been operated on this section of the road, which was completed last year. The road is now built for 100 miles east of Prince Rupert and is under construction at five different places east of Winnipeg. Several hundred miles also have been completed west of Edmonton, but are not yet ready for service. Completion of the entire transcontinental line is expected by 1913.

Confer on New Grain Tariffs.

Changes in the "transit rules" governing the re-shipment of grain and other bulk commodities at milling points, which will be made necessary by a recent ruling of the interstate commerce commission, was the principal topic of discussion at a meeting of the Southeastern Mississippi Valley Freight Association at the Blackstone hotel. The commission's new rules are designed to prevent manipulation to "beat the freight rates," and will require a general readjustment of the tariffs on grain and similar commodities. Practically all the roads in the Mississippi Valley were represented at the meeting, which will continue for sevral days.

Traffic officials of the western transcontinental roads will meet here on Monday with representatives of the interstate commerce commission to discuss the effect of the commission's rulings handed down last week in the Spokane and other Pacific coast rates cases. The commission stated in its decision that it had no desire unduly to reduce the revenues of the carriers and for that reason the rates will not be made effective until Oct. 1. In the meantime the roads are required to keep accounts showing how their revenues will be affected by the reductions, and showing the amount of traffic handled at the different rates.

New Road Is Incorporated.

The Chesapeake and Ohio railroad company of Indiana has been incorporated at Indianapolis by officials of the Chesapeake and Ohio to take over the Chicago, Cincinnati and Louisville railway, which was purchased at a receiver's sale last month for $5,200,000 by Carl Remington and Gilbert Cannon in behalf of a syndicate headed by Edwin Hawley. The new company will take title to the property for the present, and it is understood that the road is to be merged eventually as a part of the Chesapeake and Ohio, giving the latter an entrance into Chicago.

ALLEGED GLASS TRUST FIGHTS TO ESCAPE INJUNCTION BY U. S.

Arguments on Demurrer to True Bill Charging Conspiracy in Restraint of Trade Will Begin Today in Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 6.—Arguments on a demurrer filed to an indictment against the Imperial Window Glass company, brought under the Sherman anti-trust act, will be begun in the federal court here tomorrow before Judges James S. Young and Charles P. Orr.

The indictment was returned by a special grand jury on April 7, and the three counts charge the corporation with conspiracy in restraint of interstate trade and commerce, with engaging in unlawful combination in restraint of trade, and with attempting to monopolize a portion of the interstate trade in hand blown window glass.

The indictment further charges that the corporation controls 98 per cent of the hand blown window glass industry and that sixty-six glas concerns are implicated, representing a capitalization of nearly $10,000,000.

MAKE TRACTION PEACE MOVE. FORECLOSURE AGREED UPON.

Chicago Railways Reorganization Representatives Meet and Decide to Accept Joint Decree Covering 9 Suits.

Representatives of different interests involved in the reorganization of the Chicago Railways company met yesterday at the Illinois Trust and Savings bank and agreed on the form of foreclosure decree. Two plans had been submitted, one for a separate decree for each of the nine foreclosure suits, the other allowing one decree for all. The joint decree was selected.

Those present at the meeting were Leonard A. Busby, counsel for the bondholders of the Cicero and Proviso Street Railway company; Andrew Cooke, chairman of the reorganization committee; Gilbert Porter, representing the bondholders, and W. W. Gurley, representing the receivers.

The day's action follows closely the selection of Judge Grosscup to act as sole umpire in the arbitration which has been proposed as a settlement of the differences between the Railways company and the Cicero and Proviso.

The next step will be the naming of a master in chancery to hear the evidence on the suits and submit an opinion to Judge Grosscup. No hope of an early settlement is held by Railways interests, the probable hearing of Mrs. Yerkes' protest by Judge Cutting on July 20 suggesting further delay.

"I do not see how we can approach the end before September, nor can I fix any time as at all certain," said Mr. Busby in the evening. "The action regarding the nature of the decree was quickly reached, however, and shows a desire on the part of some for an early settlement."

Michigan Bank Is Reopened.

PLAINWELL, Mich., July 6.—[Special.]—The Citizens' State Savings bank, closed after the funds, it is charged, had been depleted by Cashier A. L. Shepard several weeks ago, has resumed business, with S. B. Monroe of South Haven as president.

PREPARE NET FOR COUNTRY BANKERS

REVEALS HIDDEN FUNDS.

Some Rural Institutions Said to Evade Laws to Deceive Bank Depositors.

The national bank examiners of the sixth district closed a two days' semi-annual meeting in the federal building yesterday after making some drastic recommendations to the controller of the currency relative to methods of keeping tab on country banks. In a resolution adopted by the examiners at their last session the controller is advised to make strict investigations of the country banks and adopt new regulations for controlling their reports.

Some country banks, it was maintained by the experts attending the meeting, have been guilty of evasions of the national banking laws by borrowing money from city banks that the exact state and extent of their liabilities in their published statements may not be shown to the public. The controller is advised to require all country banks to make, under oath, full and specific statements of their liabilities and assets.

Directors Transform Accounts.

In order that the deception regarding liabilities may be carried out successfully, the examining experts agreed, directors of country banking institutions in many instances have been found to have borrowed money as individuals, placing the money in the bank's funds and keeping account of it by memorandum. The loans being personal, they are not shown in the banks' reports as liabilities, although the banks themselves are in reality liable under agreements made by the borrower with the board of directors when the loans are made.

As a remedy for the evil the examiners recommend to the controller a regulation compelling reports of all loans, whether by banks or their officers or directors as individuals, and that all such loans be subject to investigation by examiners in making their regular inquiries into the conditions of banking institutons.

Country banks have millions of dollars in liabilities that, under existing regulations, never become known to the depositing public, according to the bank examiners. The experts point such a condition out as a serious evil.

Study Concealment Schemes.

The methods by which banks conceal bills payable, rediscounts, and excess and real estate loans constituted the principal subject of discussion at the meeting of the examiners. Attention was centered about country banks at yesterday's session. Conditions of banks generally in Illinois, Michigan Wisconsin, and Indiana, which states comprise the Sixth district, were discussed by the ten examiners in attendance at the gathering. Barring the abuses alleged in the recommendations to the controller of the currency, the general impression given by the examiners was that banking institutions of the district are in commendable shape.

A general report of conditions and some specific cases of abuses found will accompany the resolutions and recommendations to be forwarded to the controller of the currency.

Among the expert inquisitors of national banks and banking affairs who attended the Chicago meeting was J. B. McDougall, the official clearing house examiner of Chicago.

CONFEREES ON MINE STRIKE FAIL TO REACH AGREEMENT.

There is no prospect of early peace in the Illinois coal strike. A two days' conference of miners and operators adjourned last evening without reaching a basis of settlement. And, moreover, Indiana miners threaten to strike as a result of the failure of the joint wage scale committee in that state to arrive at an agreement.

The conference on the Illinois strike was held in the rooms of the Illinois Coal Operators' association in the Fisher building. All questions in dispute were taken up by a committee of three operators and three miners, with President Thomas L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers of America in attendance. It was at the request of President Lewis that the conference was held as a final effort in bringing about a settlement.

The miners, however, decided to stand pat on their original demands, including the demand that the operators pay the wages of shotfirers and increases of 3 cents a ton extra in Williamson and Franklin counties and 2 cents a ton extra in the "long wall" mines in the northern part of the state. About 50,000 miners are on strike.

The Indiana situation will be taken up today at a joint convention of miners and operators at Terre Haute. A report of the wage scale committee will be made, and unless a compromise settlement is made within a few days there will be a strike. Practically no work has been done in Indiana mines, it was said, since July 1.

NOTES OF THE LABOR WORLD.

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—Arbitration under the Erdman act has been started here between the Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain system and its telegraphers. The operators ask a 10 per cent increase in wages.

PITTSBURG, Pa.—Conductors and trainmen of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg are voting whether they will strike for an increase of wages varying from 5 to 20 per cent. The ballots review the question along lines similar to the ballot sent out by men on the eastern divisions last week. About 9,700 men are affected on the lines west.

GRAIN CROPS ARE DRIED UP.

Washington, D. C., July 6.—The grain crops in Montana and the western portion of the Dakotas which are not receiving irrigation water are dried up and shriveling in the fields, according to a statement issued by the reclamation service today.

Continuous hot winds with the mercury near the hundred mark, were proving extremely disastrous, it was said.

By way of contrast the statement added that the engineers in charge of the projects of the reclamation service reported that the settlers upon irrigated lands were receiving a plentiful supply of water and that their crops were in excellent shape.

Canadian Road to Build Extension.

TORONTO, Ont., July 6.—[Special.]—The Canadian Northern railway company has let a contract for the construction of seventy-five miles of railway from Virginia, Minn., to Duluth. This will give the company a direct line from Winnipeg to Duluth and a share of freight from the Mesaba iron range.

NEWS AND GOSSIP OF BOARD OF TRADE.

"Winter wheat thrashing returns are showing yields far exceeding expectations," said Halliday, the Cairo, Ill., miller, who was here yesterday. "Some fields in the southern part of the state are going 30 bu to the acre, and this in spite of the fact that two weeks ago we had about made up our minds that the crop would not be more than 50 per cent of normal. The ideal weather just before harvest was responsible for the wheat heads filling in a remarkable manner, with the result there will be big yields of excellent quality wheat.

"I look for a heavy movement by the end of another week. Millers are not buying any wheat and the movement will go to the leading distributing markets this year. There is no demand for flour of any consequence, and most mills carried over fair stocks of old wheat."

Northwest news on the whole was more encouraging and the fact that rains were quite heavy at a good many points induced considerable selling. From all accounts the area visited by rains covered nearly all the three states in a general way, but were widely scattered in some instances. The heaviest rains were in western Minnesota and eastern South Dakota, where conditions were the best anyway, but at the same time there were generous showers in North Dakota sections.

LeCount wired Barrell that crops had gone back rapidly in vicinity of Larimore, N. D., in the last few days, and Inglis wired that in Saskatchewan there had been an improvement since the rains. Winnipeg wired Norris & Co. that Robert Getties, the board of trade official sampler, who has been in Canada for some time, reported crops looking well as a rule with prospects for a good average crop. He was quoted as saying the talk of calamity was ridiculous. Predictions were far fair weather in the spring wheat country today. Hailstorms were reported to have done considerable damage in places.

July wheat at times yesterday gave indications that it was closely held and that without a liberal movement of new wheat shorts would be in a bad position, particularly if the northwest news continued bad enough to frighten the farmers.

It is supposed that the Armour Grain and Peavey have been long a little July, but it is not generally believed that the extent of the long interest is great. Peavey, it is understood, has taken in most of the 600,000 bu wheat delivered so far this month. Hulburd-Warren-Chandler have delivered out a good share of it. T. H. Waterman was supposed to have a fair holding of July, but it was said last night that his line was comparatively small.

Few traders expected to see any big squeeze in the July future, but there are many who think it will work to a larger premium over the September. At the close last night it was 1½c premiums, compared to ½c discount the previous day.

A fair demand exists for cash wheat here and since the close Tuesday there were sales of 160,000 bu No. 2 hard winter wheat, and 40,000 bu No. 1 northern. The price paid for some of this wheat, part of which was in store at Buffalo, was ¼c over July in store, and part was sold c. i. f. Buffalo at 3c over July. There were sales of a little No. 1 northern at 14c over the July in store. Receivers as a rule reported light acceptances in the country. All told about 40,000 bu was bought in the country for July shipment.

"The break of the last few days is easily analysed and was due to four factors:

"The hog receipts for the last three weeks have been larger than last year; the average weight has been 25 lbs heavier; the cash trade is dull for both lard and meats; the outside packers are unable to sell their cash product and have sold the options instead. There is no outside interest in the market whatsoever and the local crowd have not been able to nor have they wished to absorb all the offerings."

Cash men as a rule are opposed to the proposition to extend the time of trading to 2 p. m. J. P. Griffin, the president of the Grain Receivers' association, said that a canvass of the members, who represent between five and six hundred members, showed them to be almost unanimously opposed to the proposed amendment.

The big upturn in July wheat at Winnipeg, which started buying here also, was said to be due to manipulation. The strength in the Canadian market was almost entirely in the July, the September not gaining much comparatively. It is understood there is quite a liberal shortage in the current option at Winnipeg and that the big milling interests have large holdings. At one time the market was 3½c over the low point of the day.

Cash corn was steady to 1c lower and the July went to a discount under the September of 2¾c, indicating a weak cash position, the same conditions existing during May and previously during the crop year. Eastern buyers are backward. Oats were a little easier and there was no heavy demand. Offerings of new oats for August shipment were fairly large.

B. W. Snow figures that the precipitation in North Dakota this year from March to June inclusive is about 4.1 inches, compared to a normal of 8.6 inches. In South Dakota the normal precipitation for the same period is 10.3, while this year is has been only 5.1 inches. During the last two days of June the daily temperature averaged nine to thirteen degrees above normal.

Canada	1,458,000	523,000
United States and Canada	2,731,000	2,088,000
Europe and afloat	5,600,000	400,000
Total world's stock	8,331,000	2,488,000

Deliveries on July contracts during the day were 85,000 bu wheat, 205,000 bu corn, 10,000 bu oats, and 750 tcs lard. Hulburd-Warren put out the wheat and Peavey took it in. Barrell, Booth, and Wagner delivered the corn, Buckley the oats, and Armour the lard. The corn was taken in by commission houses and the lard by Swift.

The International Institute of Agriculture at Rome reports that 20 per cent of winter wheat seeded in Roumania this year has been abandoned. The area seeded was 4,764,000 acres, while the area left for harvest is only 3,811,000 acres.

Doubting Members of Association of Commerce Converted.

BUSINESS EXTENDS ITS SWAY

Delegated Tourists of Lake Districts Report Success of Mission.

The members of the Association of Commerce who have doubted the wisdom of the annual trade extension excursions of that organization cleared their vision yesterday at a luncheon in the gold room of the Congress hotel. The meeting had been called to hear a report from the delegation which recently toured the regions of Lakes Michigan and Superior to bring the trade of those sections to Chicago.

It was shown that the trips made from year to year were not merely for the pleasure of those composing the junketing parties, and that the benefits accruing to the members of the association far exceeded the expectations of the most sanguine.

"These trade extension trips are not 'joy rides' on an enlarged scale," said Mr. John P. Mann, "but the hard work done by each one of them has demonstrated that Chicago is inevitably the central market of the empire of the west."

Business Manager Walter D. Moody, chairman of the delegation which toured Oklahoma and Indian territory in 1907, said the eight trade extension trips had included 182 members of the association, occupied 135 days, and had reached 196 cities, which had a total population of 6,500,000.

"Not only has this vast number of people been indirectly reached, but the business interests of Chicago are now sending men into territory thus opened up to them which otherwise would not have been a market for Chicago manufactured goods."

Francis T. Simmons, chairman of the recent lake excursion, said the people of the sections visited had seen Chicago in a different light from that in which they have beheld it before.

OKLAHOMA SEEKS TO SETTLE OIL COMPANY OUSTER SUIT.

Special Judge Named by Supreme Court Holds Midnight Session with Attorneys and Compromise Is Expected.

Enid, Okla., July 6.—[Special.]—A compromise will be effected in the state's ouster suit against the Waters-Pierce Oil company before 9 tomorrow morning is the belief here tonight. The case came up today for trial before Judge Huston of Guthrie, appointed by the Supreme court as special judge. For two hours preliminary matters were discussed and then counsel for the state and the defendants went into conference.

At 10 tonight the conference had not terminated. From rumors from the room where they were convening it is believed a settlement will be reached some time tonight.

It is known Attorney General West is willing to dismiss the suit if the company will pay fines aggregating $75,000 for violations of territorial anti-trust laws and agree that the maximum price of oil may be fixed by the state.

It is understood the oil company has offered to pay $50,000 in fines, but is not willing to permit the attorney general to set a maximum price on oil.

Lack of Water Closes Mill.

CHIPPEWA FALLS, Wis., July 6.—[Special.]—The Chippewa Lumber and Boom company was forced to close its sawmill here today because the water in the Chippewa river is too low to furnish power for the water wheels. Mills and dams on the river above here are using all the available water. Four hundred and fifty men are out of work.

WISCONSIN CROPS NEED RAIN

Secretary of State Board Says Farmers Are Facing Loss.

WHEAT IS IN BAD SHAPE.

Transplanting of Tobacco Delayed by Lack of Moisture.

Madison, Wis., July 6.—[Special.]—"Owing to the long drought, the condition of crops in Wisconsin is extremely critical," said Secretary John M. True of the state board of agriculture, in his monthly crop report issued tonight. "Unless rain comes within the next few days the damage will be large. Early crops are suffering now more than the late ones.

"Reports received from fifty-four correspondents in all parts of Wisconsin represent the crop conditions as extremely critical. Except in a few favored localities the rainfall during June was extremely slight, while the sudden and marked change in temperature was not favorable to the grass and small grain crops. Upon sandy soils the extreme heat burned out the grass crops and seriously injured the growing grain.

Pastures Need Heavy Rains.

"Pastures are generally short and cannot improve without copious rains. While the hay crop from last year's seeding is good in many parts of the state, the old meadows will yield a small crop. Haying has commenced and the quality of the product is excellent. Marshes and wild meadows have been badly affected by the drouth, and their yield of hay will be light.

"Winter grains are generally maturing in good shape and are nearly ready for the harvest. The spring sowed grains will have short straw, and the amount and quality of the grain is closely dependent upon whether rain comes in the near future.

"Corn has made rapid growth, and is generally in fine condition. The crop is clean, the weather having been favorable for cultivation. It is our most promising crop. The early potato crop has suffered from the drouth. Late potatoes are fair.

Tobacco Transplanting Delayed.

"Dry weather has interfered with the transplanting of tobacco, farmers delaying the setting in the expectation of rain. Some fields are not planted, while much of that recently set is small and weak. Unfavorable weather conditions will diminish the tobacco acreage.

"Sugar beets are doing fairly well, especially in the early planted fields. Weather conditions have not been favorable to later planting, but the acreage will be slightly larger than that of last year. Percentages of conditions of crops follow:

"Winter wheat, 85; winter rye, 85; spring wheat, 75; spring rye, 75; barley, 80; oats, 75; peas, 76; corn, 87; potatoes, 85; cabbage, 75; tobacco, 80; sugar beets, 88; tame meadows, 65; wild meadows, 67; pastures, 60."

North Dakota Outlook Bad.

Bismarck, N. D., July 6.—Commissioner of Agriculture and Labor Gilbreath today issued a report on the crop conditions in North Dakota for the week ending July 6, in which he states that "the prospects for even a one-half crop of wheat throughout the state are more remote than ever."

Rich Canada Gold Mine.

NEW YORK, July 6.—[Special.]—Gold developments of the Porcupine district in Ontario, Canada, are sensational. At the 100 foot level of the great Timmons gold mine the ore is the richest yet encountered. The vein is ten feet wide and all the way down chunks of ore running at thousands of dollars to the ton have been mined. It is impossible to tell the average, but it must run several hundred dollars to the ton.

FLOUR CASE WON BY GOVERNMENT

Jury Declares Product Seized by U. S. Was Adulterated and Misbranded.

MILLERS WILL FIGHT ON.

Say Decision in Kansas City Will Cost the Farmers Millions Yearly.

Kansas City, Mo., July 6.—The jury in the bleached flour case this afternoon returned two verdicts holding that the flour seized was adulterated and misbranded as charged by the government.

The verdicts were returned in the federal court after the jury had listened for more than five weeks to testimony for and against the charge that 625 sacks of flour, bleached and sold by the Lexington, Neb., Mill and Elevator company of Lexington, Neb., and seized by the government while in the possession of the purchaser, a grocer at Castle, Mo., were adulterated and misbranded.

The verdicts, returned after seven hours of deliberation, were a complete victory for the government, which prosecuted the suit under the national pure food and drug act. The government charged that the flour was adulterated in that it was bleached by the Alsop process, which makes use of nitrogen peroxide in bleaching flour. Misbranding was charged in that the flour seized was labeled a fancy patent and, the government contended, it was not a fancy patent because it was not made from a first grade hard winter wheat.

Objected to Jury Trial.

"This case was not one that should have been tried by a jury. I called upon President Taft and assured him all the millers desired was a fair test case.

"The president assured me the millers would not be harried and that a fair test should be had. Immediately thereafter under order of the attorney these seizures began in different parts of the country. We started out to defend the cases on the assumption that the government would permit them to be tried before a referee.

President Roosevelt appointed a board of scientific men for just such a purpose, and the board has settled many cases that came up under the pure food law, such for instance, as the benzoate of soda case. But when this case came to trial the attorney general refused to let this board act and insisted upon a jury trial."

Say It Will Hurt Farmer.

Millers say the bleached flour decision will handicap the farmers of the southwest to the extent of from $15,000,000 to $18,000,000 a year. They say the old differential of 5 cents a busnel in vogue in Chicago and St. Louis markets before bleached flour came in will soon reappear.

They further say that farmers of Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, and Nebraska will lose 5 cents a bushel on their present crop and that hard winter wheat soon will be selling at 25 cents a bushel less than at present. Already millers are considering the establishment of bleaching stations in states where the use of bleached flour is not prohibited. Thus they say they may avoid the interstate commerce law.

Big mills the product of which is turned out in states where bleached flour is illegal may ship their flour unbleached into the states where the sale is permitted, unload it at these bleaching stations, bleach it, and distribute it in the state.

Contentions of Government.

Bleaching flour by the use of nitrogen peroxide is an adulteration of such a nature that the evil cannot be cured by branding it "bleached flour."

Any amount of poison introduced into food is an adulteration, even though it amounts to only nine parts in a million, as in this case.

The case is the result of a long fight between the department of agriculture and its chemists and the millers. The matter was thrashed out at a hearing before the secretary of agriculture in 1908, at which the secretary held that bleached flour was poisonously adulterated and could not be handled in interstate commerce.

It was shown at the hearing that 80 per cent of the flour of the country was bleached by the nitrogen peroxide process. Natural flour has a creamy tint, this tint being most pronounced in the cheaper grades, and least noticeable in "patent" flour. The nitrogen peroxide, a poisonous red-brown gas, produced by uniting the oxygen and nitrogen of the air by electric flashes, instantly bleaches the yellowest flour whiter than the highest grade of "patent" flour. In so doing it leaves in the flour free nitrous and nitric acids, both poisons, which in turn produce nitrites and nitrates.

The ancient way of bleaching flour was by age. This improved it. The chemical method, it is claimed, injures it.

Prosecuted Under Three Sections.

The government prosecuted under the three sections of the pure food act, which declare that food shall be considered adulterated:

If any substance has been mixed with it so as to injuriously affect its quality.

If it be mixed, colored, or stained in a manner whereby inferiority is concealed.

If it contain any added poisonous or other added deleterious ingredient, which may render such article injurious to health.

The defense contended that the nitrates were present in such small quantities that no man could eat enough bread at one time to be poisoned by them. The government objected that if this view were upheld by the courts all foodstuff manufactured could introduce quantities of poison into their products, infinitely small in each case, but devastating in their cumulative effect.

Pierce Butler of St. Paul acted for the government as special attorney in the case. A large staff of distinguished lawyers fought for the company whose flour was seized, and for the millers of Nebraska, the millers of Kansas, and the company which makes the bleaching machines. Among the experts who testified were all the toxicologists who testified in the Swope case, professors of chemistry and medicine from twenty universities, doctors, bakers, millers, and housewives.

BIG TRACTION WAR IS NEAR.

McKinley Interests of Illinois Expected to Attempt to Gain Territory in McGowan Section.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 6.—[Special.]—A big traction fight is near in Indiana. The contestants will be the McGowan interests, now in control of most of the lines in central Indiana, and the McKinley syndicate, which holds the traction lines of southern Illinois and is reaching out to get a hold on Indiana lines. The entering wedge of the McKinley men is hoped for through the purchase of the Ben Hur Traction company's holdings here. The road probably will be sold at receiver's sale within a short time.

WHEAT IS STRONG AFTER A DECLINE

Rains in the Northwest Cause Slump in Market, but Support Is Given on Dip.

JULY FUTURE IN FAVOR.

Corn and Oats Lower at Start, but Close Firm; Hog Products Are Weak.

Wheat values turned strong yesterday after there had been a sharp break early on scattered rains in the spring wheat belt. News at the start favored the bears decidedly and there was a general rush to sell out long wheat by the local professionals who went home the previous day loaded with big lines, but on the opening slump the traders went to the opposite extreme, taking the short side on the dip, and when commission houses had picked up the surplus there was little for sale. It then needed but a spurt in the northwestern markets, particularly at Winnipeg, to give the market a big rally.

Closing prices were at the highest level in many weeks, overtopping the high points of a week or so ago. Net gains for the day were ⅛@⅝ to 2¼c, the biggest advance being on the July, offerings of which were light and the demand from shorts active.

Drought Partially Relieved.

The spring wheat country had heavy rains in some sections, showers at many others, and the best opinion was that as a result the crop should show improvement. This view was accepted generally at the start, but when the shorts in Winnipeg began to run to cover and there was a 3½c advance in the July in that market, local bears took notice and decided to come into the fold without further ado.

The light outside trade was commented upon freely and the scare stories from the northwest have not had the effect of stimulating any big outside business. The northwest farmers continue to sell old wheat which is not a panicky indication by any means, while the reports from the winter wheat country are extremely favorable. The trade is so nervous and narrow, however, that comparatively little buying starts advances, and it takes free selling to check the upward movement until the professionals get loaded up.

Actual Damage Uncertain.

The question as to how much actual damage has been done to the spring wheat crop appears to be difficult of solution. Not all the northwestern grain men are bullish. All admit there has been some damage, but believe the reports have been grossly exaggerated and that with rains the crop will come along fairly well.

The crop experts continue bullish as a rule, although some are finding Canadian conditions suggestive of a fair yield. Winnipeg grain people are working hard to boost values and sensational reports continue to emanate from that place on the Canadian crop. As the rainfall in the dominion has been more plentiful than south of the line, the reports do not always jibe with previous advices.

Export bids on Canadian wheat are way out of line and Europe is showing no disposition to work up to the American basis.

Big Drop in World's Supply.

A big decrease in world's stocks, 8,331,000 bu, was shown by Bradstreet's, compared to a loss for the corresponding week a year ago of 2,488,000 bu. This had a bullish effect here in the late trading. Cables were not responsive in any great degree to the strength on this side yesterday. Paris was 1c up, but Liverpool closed unchanged. Berlin was ⅜c up; Antwerp, unchanged, and Budapest ½c off.

Cash sales of No. 2 hard wheat here and at Buffalo the last two days have aggregated 160,000 bu, part of which was sold at ¼c over July in store, and part on the basis of 3c over July c. i. f. Buffalo. Total cash sales, 200,000 bu. Country acceptances were moderate. Primary receipts were 350,000 bu against 339,000 bu a year ago. Southwestern receipts are increasing sharply and a liberal movement of new wheat is expected in another week.

Corn Bulls Are Aggressive.

Rains over the corn belt were quite general in the Ohio valley and parts of Nebraska, Iowa, and Missouri, but they were not enough to put an effectual damper on bull sentiment. The bulls claim they are buying corn on the general situation and not because the rains have been insufficient, although that has been a big factor. September was the speculative favorite and finished a shade higher. July was ⅝@½c lower at the close and the deferred months ⅛@¼c up.

The cash demand was slow and cash prices were lower early, but closed firm. Receipts here were 608 cars, with 163 cars promised for today. Primary points received 542,000 bu, compared to 301,000 bu a year ago. Liverpool finished unchanged.

World's stocks decreased 413,000 bu, compared to a decrease a year ago of 369,000 bu. Local cash sales were 105,000 bu. Comstock, Friedman, Cudahy, and T. D. O'Brien were the leading buyers. Selling was general at the start.

Oats Follow Other Grains.

Final quotations for oats were ⅛@¼c higher, except for May, which was just a shade easier. Early there was a big break in sympathy with wheat, but there was excellent commission house buying on the break, local professionals losing their oats they sold early.

Armour was credited with leading the buying. Cash oats were about steady, but there was not much demand and offerings were light. Shipping sales were 240,000 bu. Arrivals here were 306 cars, with only 50 cars estimated for today. Except from the northwest crop reports were generally favorable. Primary receipts were 401,000 bu, compared to 326,000 bu a year ago.

Heavy Tone in Provisions.

Provisions were weak and lower and there was a decidedly heavy tone at the close. Receipts have been running larger than expected, while demand for cash product has been slow, making a discouraging situation for the manufacturers. Outside trade is also disappointing and the short sellers are meeting with better success than for a long time.

Western supplies of meats showed an increase during June of about 26,000,000 lbs, which was a bearish factor as indicating the way product is accumulating. Western receipts of hogs were 47,100, against 101,400 a year ago. Local arrivals were only 11,000, compared to 28,000 estimated. Receipts of product here was 16 cars, with shipments of 131 cars.

Dull Market in Rye.

Rye was dull. Cash No. 2 was quoted at 75@76c, No. 3 at 64@75c, No. 4 at 54@64c.

Barley was 1c higher. Malting grades ranged at 57@71c; mixing, 48@55c, and screenings 35@52c. Receipts were estimated at 19 cars.

Timothy seed was quiet and steady. October and March were $5 bid. Flaxseed in Duluth was unchanged to 5c lower. July closed at $2.15, September at $2.06, and October at $1.96. Receipts were 19 cars. Minneapolis was 2c lower, with cash on track $2.18. Receipts were 3 cars.

REVIEW OF THE METAL TRADES.

New York, July 6.—[Special.]—The Iron Age will say tomorrow:

"The satistics for June shows that the production of coke and anthracite pig iron was 2,265,000 gross tons, or 75,500 tons a day, against 77,000 tons a day in May. On July 1,269 furnaces were in blast, against 280 furnaces one month previous, and the daily capacity active was 73,700.

"A number of furnaces have gone out in the last few days, so that the curtailment may now be reckoned at 15 per cent from the high point, which was 31,650,000 tons a year in February. The movement will be carried further, as preparations are now being made for the blowing out of other furnaces. The United States Steel corporation now has thirty-five furnaces idle, against thirty-one on June 1, while at one time last month it had as few as twenty-eight out of blast.

"Among rail contracts of the week are 11,000 tons for the San Antonio and Arkansas Pass railway company and 2,800 tons for the Wheeling and Lake Erie. Car contracts include 3,000 tons for the Baltimore and Ohio, divided among three builders, while 3,000 tons for the same road are about to be let. The Chesapeake and Ohio has bought 1,500 cars. At Pittsburg bessemer and open hearth billets are weaker, the latter having sold at $27.00, the lowest point for many months.

"A number of Pittsburg district mills will be idle for a period in July for repairs. In the wire industry signs of slackening of operations increase. In black and galvanized sheets prices are weaker, galvanized being $4.00 a ton below the nominal level. Pig iron markets show considerable maneuvering, a good many buyers in the middle west trying to buy at present prices for delivery well into next year. Prices are weaker in spots, but producers sell grudgingly on long deliveries."

CLEVELAND, O., July 6.—[Special.]—The Iron Trade Review tomorrow will say:

"Owing in part at least to the interruption of the Fourth of July holiday, there has been less life in the market during the last few days. There is a general tendency toward lower prices in pig iron and nearly all finished material.

"June made a new record in lake iron ore shipments, the total being 7,318,769 tons, an increase of 123,460 tons over the previous record month of August, 1909. The first half of 1910 has made a record in the production of coke and anthracite pig iron, the total being 14,761,264 tons, an increase of a million and a half tons over the wonderful production for the first half of 1907.

"The production for June was 2,291,094 tons, a reduction of only 53,799 tons from May."

DEMAND FOR EGGS IS SLACK

Reduction of 1 Cent in Prices Attracts Few Orders.

RALLY IN POTATO MARKET.

Buyers Take Hold More Freely and Values Are Firmer.

Eggs on the Chicago market yesterday met with a slack demand and receivers lowered prices 1c a dozen. This reduction failed to attract many orders, however, and the market was a dull, weak affair to the close. Butter, on the other hand, met with a ready outlet and the market had a buoyant undertone. A report from twenty-six of the principal storage houses east and west placed stocks of butter in cold storage July 1, 1910, at 33,820,000 lbs, against 23,788,000 lbs a year ago, and said stocks of eggs were 2,284,000 cases, against 1,911,000 cases on July 1, 1909.

Recent sharp reductions in potato prices brought a response from buyers, who filled orders with more alacrity than on any previous day in a long time, and the market developed a buoyant undertone, while there were instances where sales were made at slightly higher figures. Green vegetables met with a quiet demand at steady to strong prices, while peaches led activities in the market for fresh fruits.

EGGS.

Trade was dull and market weak, with prices 1c lower. Receipts were 24,628 cases. Quotations:

Extras	20c	Dirties	11c
Prime firsts	17½c	Miscellaneous, cases returned	13@15c
Firsts	16c	Do, cases included	14@15½c

PRICES OF HOGS HAVE LATE BREAK

LAMBS SUFFER A LOSS.

Packers yesterday allowed outsiders to open the Chicago hog market at an advance of 10@15c and then came in and wiped out all of the appreciation before the close. Cattle also had a strong opening, but finished steady to 10c lower. Sheep held at unchanged prices, while lambs suffered a loss of 25@35c.

CATTLE.

Fancy heavy beeves met with a brisk demand at the start and sales of choice offerings were made at $8.60, against $8.55 for the top Tuesday. Other loads disposed of early at $8.00@8.55 appeared strong, but all of the $7.00@7.90 grades were not better than steady and many of them were called 10c lower at the finish. Cheap lightweight steers selling at lower than $7.00 sold more briskly than the intermediate grades and held fully steady.

Stocker and feeder trade had a buoyant undertone, but business was restricted by an insufficient supply of good to choice feeding steers. Most of the business was transacted at $3.50@4.50, although prime feeds were quotable at up to $5.35@5.70. Quotations:

Beef steers, good to choice	$7.50@8.60
Beef steers, plain to good	5.95@7.40
Beef cows, good to choice	4.75@5.75
Beef cows, plain to good	4.00@4.75
Fat heifers, good to choice	4.50@5.50
Heifers, selected	5.75@6.50
Canners and cutters	2.25@3.80
Calves, common to choice heavy	3.50@5.00
Good to prime veals	7.50@8.35
Feeding steers	3.75@5.70
Bulls	3.00@5.50

Cattle at six western markets, 32,200, against 25,300 a week ago, 37,500 a year ago, and 31,100 two years ago. Total for 1910 to date, 3,566,000, against 3,539,000 the same period in 1909.

HOGS.

Speculators bid 10@15c higher for choice light hogs at the opening and shippers were compelled to follow the appreciation in order to get the class of stock needed to meet the requirements of the eastern trade. Packers refused to pay higher prices, however, and finally succeeded in making up their droves at figures which were 10c lower than opening bids.

Receipts were posted at only 11,000 head and a wreck on one of the principal roads served to keep a large share of the supply from reaching here in time for the first buyers. This was what led speculators into anticipating a runaway market, but packers failed to show any urgent need of stock and the close of the market was flat. Quotations:

Bulk of sales	$9.00@ 9.45
Common to good mixed	8.95@ 9.25
Fair to choice medium weight	9.15@ 9.45
Heavy packing	8.90@ 9.05
Select 200@300 lb packing	9.10@ 9.50
Fair to fancy light shipping	9.10@ 9.50
Medium to prime butchers	9.15@ 9.60
Common to choice lightweights	9.15@ 9.50
Pigs	9.00@ 9.50
Boars, according to weight	4.00@ 5.00
Stags, according to weight	9.00@10.00

Average price of hogs at Chicago, $9.24, against $9.18 Tuesday, $9.20 a week ago, $7.86 a year ago, and $6.47 two years ago.

Eleven markets received 50,000 hogs, against 88,000 a week ago, 100,400 a year ago, and 103,000 two years ago. Total for 1910 to date, 10,468,000, against 13,413,000 the same period in 1909.

SHEEP.

Packers bought sheep at steady prices at the outset on the supposition that receipts would not exceed 25,000 head. They insisted upon receiving concessions of 25c before they would evince any interest in offerings of lambs, however, and late in the day, when it was believed that general receipts would come close to 30,000 head, they bought lambs at a decline of 35c and secured odd lots of sheep at figures which looked 10@15c lower for the day.

Range wethers topped at $4.75, or the same as on the preceding day, while range ewes at $4.65 also stood unchanged. Another band of wethers at $4.30 was 20c lower, but a difference in quality was responsible for part of this disparity in price. Native ewes cleared at $2.50@4.50, with wethers at up to $4.75. Quotations:

Range ewes	3.25@4.65
Range wethers	3.50@4.75
Breeding ewes	4.00@4.65
Bucks	2.00@3.00
Yearlings	4.50@6.00
Native lambs	4.25@8.40
Range lambs	5.75@7.75
Feeding lambs	6.00@6.65

STOCKYARDS GOSSIP.

Packers attributed the light supply of hogs to the patriotism of country shippers, which kept them from operating on Independence day. They were confident of more liberal supplies and lower prices later this week and amassed small droves at prevailing figures.

Several of the cattle buyers anticipated a more urgent demand for beef steers and paid higher prices at the start than they were willing to offer on closing rounds.

Boore & Co. staid out of the hog market, while shippers bought only 1,500 head, and the largest individual droves amassed were taken by Swift & Co. and Armour & Co., who secured 1,100 each.

COTTON PRICES ARE LOWER; REALIZING AN INFLUENCE.

Net Loss of 10 to 17 Points in New York—Lowest Figures Reached in Late Trading.

NEW YORK, July 6.—The cotton market was lower today under realizing and local selling, with last prices showing a net loss of from 10 to 17 points.

The opening was steady at a decline of 1 point on July, but generally 1 to 5 points higher in sympathy with steady cables, large English spot sales, and a continuation of recent weather conditions over the belt.

It appeared, however, that the market was attracting little fresh buying for long account, and shortly after the call prices weakened under scattering liquidation and local selling encouraged by the absence of aggressive bull support, weakness in the stock market, continued unfavorable trade reports, and an idea that after three or four weeks of the same kind of weather a change in the weather news was not anticipated.

The official forecasts, indicating continued showers in the eastern belt and more dry weather in Texas, checked selling for short account, however. It looked as if there was some pretty good buying of the new crop months on a scale down, partly for mill account, and after showing a net loss of about 5@8 points the market rallied during the middle of the day on covering. The bullish weekly weather report helped the tone of the market during the early afternoon and prices steadied up to nearly the closing figures of last night on the new crop positions, but later there was a renewal of liquidation and bear pressure, and the lowest prices of the day were reached in the late trading.

It was reported that ocean freight room was engaged late yesterday for the shipment of 5,000 bales from the local stock to Liverpool and for 10,000 to Bremen. On the other hand, rumors were circulated that 3,000 bales of cotton were on the way here for contract delivery from Liverpool.

Receipts of cotton at the ports today were 5,142 bales, against 2,363 last week and 4,520 last year. For the week 20,000 bales, against 23,311 last week and 18,897 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 789 bales, against 818 last year.

New Orleans Cotton.

NEW ORLEANS, La., July 6.—COTTON—Futures opened quiet at an advance of 2 to 4 points on rather better cables than expected, and a tendency on the part of the shorts to renew their covering operations. Weather reports were unsatisfactory, as they indicated more light rains in the eastern half of the cotton belt. In the early trading July advanced 7 points, but soon after fell off 9 points, standing at the end of the first hour of trading 2 points under yesterday's closing. This was due to liquidation by longs.

At noon the market was dull but steady, with prices 1 to 3 points up from the lowest of the morning.

In the afternoon the market was dull and received no support from any quarter. On moderate selling prices gave way, until at 2 o'clock they were 10 to 13 points down from the highest of the day. The close was steady at a net decline of 9 to 16 points.

To the Shareholders of The Continental National Bank of Chicago

Pursuant to law and the Articles of Association of The Continental National Bank of Chicago, and the resolution of its Board of Directors, a special meeting of the shareholders of said Bank is hereby called, to be held at 12 o'clock noon on Saturday, July 30, 1910, at the office of said Bank, northeast corner of Clark and Monroe Streets, Chicago, Illinois, to consider and act on the following propositions:

(1.) To increase the capital stock of said Bank from $9,000,000 (90,000 shares of the par value of $100 each), to $20,000,000 (200,000 shares, of the par value of $100 each).

(2.) To issue and allot 18,000 shares of said increase of stock, pro rata, to the shareholders of said Bank of record at 12 o'clock noon on July 30, 1910; said 18,000 shares of stock shall be paid for at the rate of $100 per share, by the declaration by said Bank, out of its surplus and undivided profits, of a cash dividend of 20 per cent ($1,800,000) to its said shareholders; said allotment shall be on the basis of one new share for each five of the old shares of the capital stock of said Bank.

(3.) To issue and sell 12,000 shares ($1,200,000) of said increase of stock for $200 cash per share (making a total of $2,400,000), to the Commercial National Bank Committee (referred to in the circular letter dated June 27, 1910, duly sent to each and all of the stockholders of The Continental National Bank of Chicago, The Commercial National Bank of Chicago, The American Trust and Savings Bank of Chicago, and Commercial Trust and Savings Bank of Chicago).

(4.) To issue and sell the remaining 80,000 shares of said increase of stock of said Bank, to the Commercial National Bank Committee, for all the property, assets, effects, business, and good will of The Commercial National Bank of Chicago (subject to all of the latter's liabilities, which shall be assumed and paid by said Continental National Bank, whose name is to be changed as hereinafter specified), at 12 o'clock noon on July 30, 1910.

(5.) To change the name of the Continental National Bank of Chicago to that of "Continental and Commercial National Bank of Chicago."

(6.) To amend Article III of the Amended Articles of Association of said Continental National Bank so that the first sentence of said Article III when amended shall read as follows: "The Board of Directors of the association shall consist of not less than five nor more than fifty shareholders."

(7.) To increase the number of Directors of said Continental National Bank from twenty-three to forty-seven, and to elect twenty-four new Directors of said Bank, to hold office until the next annual meeting of the shareholders thereof.

(8.) To do anything and everything deemed by said shareholders' meeting proper or desirable, to carry into effect any and all of the terms, provisions and objects specified in said circular letter.

(9.) To take action upon any and all other matters and things that may come before said shareholders' meeting, or any adjournment or adjournments thereof.

(10.) To authorize, empower and direct the Board of Directors of said Continental National Bank to carry into effect the action of said shareholders' meeting and of every adjournment or adjournments thereof.

Chicago, Illinois, June 27, 1910.

DUE TO WESTERN BANKS.

Condition Brought About by Tying Up of Country Funds in Farm Loans.

Chicago banks generally are expecting a 5½ per cent money market within the next few weeks. Three or four of the larger national institutions predict 6 per cent within sixty days. The banks usually after a call by the controller and state auditor feel at liberty to lend a little more freely and thus lower than cash resources.

But since the call of June 30 the money market instead of showing easier has shown closer symptoms. This is accounted for by the condition of western banks brought about through tying up of funds in farm loans.

At the Commercial National bank an officer said the bank was practically out of the commercial paper market. Its purchases have been so light as to be almost inconsequential. It is holding its cash resources to the level which has been built up in the last six weeks. The bank finds that its country correspondents in the extreme northwest, west, and southwest have begun to borrow for the usual fall crop movement. In the meantime, however, the country banks of the middle west have been borrowing since last March.

It is the opinion at the Commercial that money is moving toward higher rates. The bank now holds to a minimum of 5 per cent and is beginning to ask 5½ on certain classes of business. Within a comparatively short time it is expected the latter will be the minimum rate.

At Corn Exchange National.

At the Corn Exchange National bank it was said that while the bank was in a somewhat easier position than it had been for weeks, still it was looking for a closer money market and an advance in rates.

An officer said, "We have just gotten our cash reserve up to where we feel comfortable. For a time it seemed impossible to get to the 25 per cent minimum. Some demand would develop that would lower our cash. We are now buying some commercial paper, but we expect to exercise caution. We shall take care of all our customers, but are not looking for new obligations.

"Our deposits, by the way, are higher by $2,500,000 than they were on June 30, the date of the call. We were the lowest then we had been in eighteen months. On July 1 we had $1,000,000 more than the day before, and the next day we had a further increase of $1,500,000."

At the Merchants' Loan.

At the Merchants' Loan there was a similar feeling. Higher rates were expected. The bank has $1,000,000 of loans maturing this wek, and it was announced they would not be renewed. The principal was desired rather than the interest. The experience of the Merchants' Loan in the matter of deposits was different from that of the Corn Exchange. The Merchants' was $2,000,000 higher in deposits on June 30 than it was two days later.

While the officials o fneither of the banks desired to be quoted, the opinion was expressed that a 6 per cent money market might be expected within the next two months. There was no fear of the situation, but there was manifested a wholesome degree of caution. This latter fact should operate as a check on borrowers.

Chicago Currency Movements.

Receipts and shipments of currency by the While the officials of neither of the banks of Chicago showed for the month of June shipments of $8,846,054, being $701,197 in excess of receipts. For June, 1909, the shipments were nearly $3,000,000 greater than for the month just ended, while the receipts were smaller, the result being that shipments for June, 1909, were $4,416,085 greater than for June, 1910.

For the first six months of 1910 the shipment were $5,301,370 in excess of the receipts, as against excess shipments of $3,063,560 for the first six months of 1909. The currency movements therefore have not varied to an extraordinary degree. The figures by months show, however, that the movement in March and April was heavier this year than last year, while the June movement is smaller. These figures may be summarized as follows:

	Shipments.	Receipts.	Excess shipments.

The elevated railroad situation so far as the proposed merger is concerned has occasioned some odd comment. Ordinarily it is well enough understood in La Salle street that in times of close money and semi-panicky securities markets no underwriting proposition is considered with favor. The New York bankers are committed to the "L" merger as a business deal, but Henry Blair voluntarily suggested that the matter be held in abeyance until a more favorable turn should develop in the money market.

The agreements with the directors of the different roads and with the bankers have been in nowise altered. The present drop in the price of elevated stocks, however, demonstrates that the Blair proposition involves paying a rather handsome bonus over what the general public adjudges the properties to be worth. South Side Elevated on its merits sold on the exchange during the day at 56 and on Tuesday at 56¼, as against the Blair price of 75 to be paid to the stockholders in cash. Metropolitan preferred sold yesterday at 63 and the day before at 58½, as against the Blair price of 75.

The talk that should the present agreements expire a higher price would be asked by the stockholders may be classified either as foolish or in the nature of a "bluff." The stockholders will be fortunate if the change is not in the other direction. The elevated railroads of Chicago have been operated through good and bad times and after all the years their market value is adjudged by the public to be as the prices quoted yesterday.

Possible Gold Imports.

Higher rates of discount prevailing here than in either London or Paris may lead to the importation of gold to this country during July. Demand sterling is now quoted at 4.86¼ and cable transfers 4.86, the lowest rate of the current year. Also six months money is now worth 4¾ in New York, with discounts in London below 2 per cent and in Paris 2¼ per cent. This has resulted in the drawing of finance bills by New York bankers, thus securing funds there for use here at higher rates.

Prevalent supply of cash in Europe removes objection to a natural gold movement to New York, this tending to relieve tension during the crop moving season. Nor have July imports been unknown. Last year the balance of exports was over $13,000,000, and in the two preceding years July exports reached nearly $6,000,000, but in 1906, 1905, and 1904 the import balance was about $20,000,000. Figures for July of the past ten years follow:

July.	Exports.	Imports.	Export Excess.

Sears-Roebuck Earnings.

Announcement is made that earnings of Sears, Roebuck & Co. are about 30 per cent larger than one year ago. It is denied, however, that there are to be important developments at the quarterly meeting of the directors on July 15. For some time there has been talk of a melon in the form of a distribution of common stock. It is understood the directors have authorized a further investment of surplus funds in securities.

Would Guarantee Bank Deposits.

There is still considerable interest at Washington as to the attitude the government, and particularly the treasury department, will maintain toward the position taken for the organization of the National Bank Audit company, with a capital of $1,000,000 and surplus of $500,000, for the purpose of guaranteeing deposits of the smaller banks of the country. Controller Murray has declined to comment on the matter, but says his ideas were fully expressed in his address before state superintendents of banking in Chicago a short time ago. At that time he said:

"I believe in just one kind of guaranty of deposits. I believe in the guaranty which comes from the controller of the currency doing his duty under the law, from the bank examiners doing their duty and from the executive officers and directors of the bank doing their full duty and in accordance with the oaths of office which they take. That is the only kind of guaranty of deposits in which I believe. That kind is practicable, and it does not cost the banks an extra dollar, nor permit depositors to lose a dollar."

Dividends Declared.

The San Diego Consolidated Gas and Electric company of San Diego, Cal., has declared a quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent upon the preferred stock, payable July 15 to stockholders of record as of the close of business June 30.

Local Bank News Notes.

Thomas E. Newcomer has been elected assistant cashier of the Fort Dearborn National bank. His former duties were to travel and represent the bank at various conventions.

Chicago Securities.

Illinois Brick shares sold off rapidly on the local exchange. The stock declined from 70 to 66. It was announced during the slump that the business of the company for June was exceptionally good. This probably accounts for the decline in the price of stocks.

The Chicago Pneumatic Tool had a similar experience with its earnings and the market price of its shares. The compnay began paying dividends on the basis of 8 per cent. The stock began to decline, and then the company announced that the business of the concern was growing to such an extent that the dividend would have to be reduced. It was cut in two. Then the business grew faster than before.

The next announcement was that because of the expansion of the company's trade the dividend would have to be discontinued. This was done, the price of the stock fell below 20. After a while the business ceased to be so good, the net earnings increased and the company was able to begin paying dividends. It is now paying them at the rate of 4 per cent. The Brick company is paying 8 per cent, and its stock is selling at 66.

Chicago Railways Series 2 declined to 15⅝. There was no special movement in the shares. Sears-Roebuck common advanced from an opening at 152¾ to 156⅜. The elevated stocks were more active than on the previous day, and Metropolitan preferred advanced 2½ points.

IN THE BOSTON STOCK MARKET.

BOSTON, Mass., July 6.—[Special.]—The continued outpouring of Amalgamated for New York account in the local market this morning naturally affected other copper shares so that the general tendency was toward lower levels. There was, however, no particular pressure and the losses in most cases were only fractional.

The market turned soon after noon and although trading was not particularly heavy, late in the day prices advanced easily throughout the list. Improvement in Amalgamated had a favorable effect on copper issues. Quite a few substantial gains were recorded. North Butte, Lake Copper, Hancock, Old Dominion, Copper Range, made gains of a point or more, while Lake, Butte Coalition, Shannon, Arizona Commercial were fractionally higher on good scattered buying. Shannon and North Butte were most active. Telephone recovered an early loss and showed a small fractional gain late in the day. Call, 3@4 per cent; time loans, short dates, 4@4½ per cent; time loans, six months, 4½@5 per cent; time loans, year, 4½@5 per cent.

STOCKS RECOVER FOLLOWING LOSS

GOLD IS COMING BACK.

[NEW YORK TIMES FINANCIAL LEADER.]

NEW YORK, July 6.—[Special.]—Following a sharp break in prices at the opening of business today the stock market made a complete about face, the recovery running without interruption to the close of the day and lifting quotations in active shares 3 to 4 points or so above the new low records scored in the first hour of trading.

This change for the better is explained in a news way by the engagement of $2,000,000 gold in London by a banking house in this city. The part the engagement played on prices was purely sentimental; it shook the confidence of a great many bearish traders in their market position and led directly to a volume of short covering which accounted largely for the magnitude of the day's recovery.

Of more importance in one respect was the appearance in the market for the first time in weeks of the genuine buying of securities by strong banking interests. Support from this quarter has been conspicuously absent so long that evidence of its workings, although obviously upon a cautious scale, was taken by professional traders as a sign that the market as a whole is approaching if not actually at the turning point.

Stocks Face Ordeal Soon.

Stocks have still to undergo the ordeal of a variety of developments timed for Friday and comprising the government's crop report, the publication of the June copper statistics, and Atchison dividend action, while still further along is an added test of the market under a possible change in the St. Paul payment.

Perhaps the inference to be drawn from the participation of bankers in the market today is that they believe the upshot of these different matters to have been practically discounted by the course of the market up to this time or that this so nearly is the fact as to make probable only minor recessions from the present level of prices for standard shares.

Happenings of direct interest to the financial markets today were, with the exception of the gold import movement, of minor importance. A group of railroad earnings, including those of the New York Central lines for May were submitted, which continued to reflect to the full the tendencies of earlier months in regard to heavy operating costs, and a number of states in the winter wheat and corn belt reporting on agricultural conditions, made extremely satisfactory showings. Late in the day advices from the northwest told of the breaking of the prolonged drought in the spring wheat states, but it is too early as yet to judge correctly the extent of the relief the rains will bring.

Significance in Gold Import.

In what has been said of the day's engagement of gold for import as a sentimental influence in the stock market, there is no disposition to belittle the underlying significance of the transaction. It is plain from the foreign exchange market position that without the interposition of special factors there can be little profit in the present engagement, but its real importance lies in the fact that it undoubtedly ushers in an era of gold importation following a long continued outflow of the metal from this country.

Discounts hardened in London today, but money is so easy there and trade conditions are such that there is every reason to look forward to many duplications of the present engagement whenever the money situation here makes this desirable.

Money on call steady, 2¼@2¾ per cent; ruling rate, 2⅝; closing bid, 2⅝; offered at 2¾. Time loans firm; sixty days, 3¼@3½ per cent, and ninety days, 3½@3¾; six months, 4¼@5. Close: Prime mercantile paper, 4¾@5 per cent. Sterling exchange steady at recovery, with actual business in bankers' bills at 4.83.60@4.83.80 for sixty day bills and at 4.85.60 for demand. Commercial bills, 4.83@4.83½. Bar silver, 53⅝. Mexican dollars, 44. Government bonds steady. Railroad bonds irregular.

IN THE FOREIGN STOCK MARKET.

LONDON, July 6.—Money was abundant today. The revival of the foreign gold demand and rumors of American inquiry for the metal hardened discount rates and lessened the hope of a reduction in the Bank of England rate of discount tomorrow. Trading was generally easy on the stock exchange under realizing and all sections suffered. Copper shares closed weak. American securities opened easy at irregular price changes. Realizing soon caused a general decline and losses ranged from ¼@¾d during the first hour. Then prices hardened a fraction, but in the afternoon New York selling depressed values sharply and the market closed uncertain, a fraction above the lowest.

IRON AND STEEL DULLNESS EXPECTED TO VANISH SOON.

Business Like That of Many Lines of Industry Affected by Conditions Existing Following Fourth of July.

Iron and steel, like a number of other lines of industry, was affected by the Fourth of July, business being almost at a standstill so far as new orders are concerned, a condition in which it is expected to remain for at least a day or two longer, when a natural reaction usually follows.

The pig iron output is still in excess of normal, although a number of furnaces have been going out from time to time with a view to curtailment. For the first six months of the present year the aggregate output was about 15,000,000 tons, including 200,000 tons of charcoal iron. The previous high record for the semi-annual output was made during the last half of 1909, when 14,773,125 tons were produced. During the present year there was a falling off in June of 90,000 tons over May.

So far this week no structural steel contract of any size has been let in the local field, but the Pacific Rolling mills was awarded the contract for 200 tons for a power plant to be built by the South Side Light and Power company at San Francisco.

The Otis and Great Lakes buildings are still pending, the projectors giving no indication of when they will take action on the bids that have been made.

DOUBLE RAIL RATE IS UPHELD.

Interstate Commission Finds Higher Charge Is Permissible When Shipment Is Over Two Lines.

Washington, D. C., July 6.—The interstate commerce commission today announced a decision to the effect that the Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie railway lawfully may maintain two rates of 40 and 20 cents a hundred pounds respectively on shipments of butter and eggs eastbound out of St. Paul and Minneapolis via Manistique, Mich. The lower rate is on shipments reaching concentrating markets over the defendant's own lines, the higher on shipments over other lines.

GROCERY STOCKS SOLD IN HURRY

ACTIVITY IN ALL LINES.

Preserved Fruits and Jellies in Particular Demand; Salmon of 1910 Pack Snapped Up.

Chicago recovered quickly from the reaction that usually follows a holiday like the Fourth of July. Wholesale grocery dealers reported yesterday that Tuesday's business was generally good, while that of Wednesday was much better than an average for this time of the year. Both city and out of town retail merchants were in the market in numbers and buying was heavy.

All lines felt the presence of the buyers, but preserved fruit and jellies were in particular demand both in spot and future orders.

The demand for all kinds of goods for future delivery was much better than usual.

Flour just now is at a point where jobbers predict another advance of 20c a barrel to the retailers before the end of the week if present tendencies continue a day or two, which would bring the price up to $6.60 per brl.

Drought Factor in Flour Trade.

Drought and the prices at which farmers are holding old wheat are credited with being responsible for existing conditions in the flour market. High quotations recently named by the millers were at first declared to be artificial, but jobbers say they are unable to buy flour at a lower level, the millers claiming they won't come down as long as they have to buy wheat at a premium.

A cablegram from Japan to a local firm states that it is impossible to buy basket fired tea there for less than 21c a lb. Shortage in the new crop makes prices firm with an upward tendency.

The Central Canneries company of San Francisco has withdrawn offers on all fruits except yellow cling peaches on account of the short pack of all fruits in that section.

No canned corn, either spot or future, is being offered by packers, while packers of tomatoes are loathe to take orders.

1910 Salmon Reach Market.

Two carloads of Columbia river salmon of the 1910 pack arrived on the local market on Tuesday, but were little more than a drop in the bucket. They were taken in a hurry at the prices named at the opening. No recession is possible under present conditions—an unusually strong demand and a pack short of normal.

Dried fruits remain firm under a steady demand, with prospects that future apricots and prunes will go higher as a result of exportations to Europe and a good demand at home.

Sugar.

CHICAGO, July 6—The demand for sugar grows stronger day by day with the continuation of warm weather. Prices are firm at the following ruling quotations to retailers: Standard, cane, $5.47@5.57; cut loaf, H. & E., $6.47; standard powdered, $5.60@6.00; extra C, $5.25; pure milk sugar, 12½@16c per lb in brl lots.

NEW YORK, July 6.—SUGAR—Raw firm; Muscavado, 89 test, $3.83; centrifugal, 96 test, $4.33; molasses sugar, 89 test, $3.58; refined sugar quiet.

NEW YORK, July 6.—COFFEE—Futures opened steady at unchanged prices to a decline of 5 points in sympathy with lower European markets, while the increasing primary movement seemed to be causing a little scattering liquidation. Offerings were light, however, and the market in the late trading recovered, with the close steady net unchanged to 1 point higher. Sales were reported of 4,500 bags. Quotations:

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Previous close.

March	6.90	6.90	6.90	6.90	6.90

Havre was unchanged to ¼ franc lower; Hamburg unchanged to ¼ pfennig lower. Rio unchanged; 7s, 4$6.75. Santos unchanged; 4s, 4$4.00; 7s, 3$9.00. Brazilian exchange 1-32d higher. Receipts at the two Brazilian ports, 41,000 bags, against 46,000 last year; Jundiahy receipts, 41,500 bags, against 40,500 bags last year. New York warehouse deliveries, 9,923 bags, against 4,485 bags last year.

Spot coffee quiet; Rio No. 7, 8⅝c; Santos No. 4, 9¾c. Mild coffee quiet; Cordova, 10@12½c.

Coffee.

CHICAGO, July 6.—Coffee continues in good demand. Reports from the different ports and a growing difficulty to secure desirable grades gives an upward tendency. Receipts of green coffee at Rio yesterday amounted to 8,000 bags; at Santos 8,000 bags.

BUSINESS IN PRIMARY COTTON GOODS JOGGING ALONG SLOWLY

New York, July 6.—[Special.]—Business in primary cotton goods market is jogging along slowly and there is nothing of an encouraging nature to be pointed out.

Print cloth, both converters and printers, are moving conservatively in the gray goods market. Further developments in the finished goods market are awaited and few efforts to purchase additional supplies just now are expected. Offers to purchase goods at prices below the lowest so far accepted by the mills are still received. Some buyers are offering to purchase 38½ inch six squares at 4⅝ cents, but have found no sellers at this price. Actual sales light.

Cotton middling uplands: Spot New York, 15.35c; Galveston, 14⅞c; New Orleans, 14 15-16c. Cotton futures: New York closing bid, July 15.26c, August 14.69c, October 12.65c. CARBON DIVIDEND TO STAND?

Officials of National Company Believe Conservatism of Directors Will Prevent Further Advance.

Cleveland, O., July 6.—[Special.]—The National Carbon company's annual meeting will be held in February. In official circles no change from the 6 per cent dividend rate on the common stock is considered probable. The only new matters the company has on hand at the present time are two new plants now building at Niagara Falls and Toronto. This new capacity is needed, but in view of the outlay and of present industrial uncertainties it is considered improbable that a directorate as conservative as that of the Carbon company will make a further advance in its dividend rate or in any way disturb its present capital standing after having so recently raised the dividend from 4 to 6 per cent annual basis.

FOR SALE—
MY MAGAZINE "INVESTING FOR PROFIT," which I'll send Free, is worth $10 a copy to any one who intends to invest any money in farm, garden, or orchard lands; who has money invested unprofitably, or who can save a few dollars a month, but who hasn't learned the art of investing for profit.
The one article, "FARMING FOR PROFIT," is literally worth its weight in gold for those who wish to realize the amazing profits of correct farming.
It explains HOW stupendous fortunes are made and WHY they are made—how $1 grows to $1,000.
To introduce my magazine write me NOW, mention this paper, and I'll send it SIX MONTHS FREE.

I APPRECIATE ACCOUNTS OF HONORABLE people [men employed or in business, ladies with allowances from their husbands or incomes from other sources] who want large or small sums confidentially, with or without security. My location [30 minutes from loop district] and my being the president of a large wholesale vehicle establishment [Bradstreet's and other agencies show its standing] and not a professional money lender, assures a privacy not possible to those who deal with brokers in downtown office buildings where money lenders congregate. My customer's name and address are known only to me; my employes know accounts only by serial number. Professional lenders demand high rates, usually asking so much that the average straightforward citizen realizes that the exorbitant charges for any time are burdensome. My average price, all charges positively included, is never more than 1, 2, or 3 per cent monthly, often less, depending on risk and amount loaned. Individual waiting rooms. Ask for WILLCOXE, care the Englewood Co., 1101-1103 E. 63d-st., corner Greenwood-av. Telephone Hyde Park 4333.

BANKERS TO THE PEOPLE—
YOU CAN borrow money of us in small sums as well as large. Men and women employed—business men, too—we give you the fairest terms in Chicago. LADIES of reputable family may EASILY BORROW on their own name and promise. Twelve years established. Close to State-st. stores. Our interest is 6 per cent per year. All our charges included are within the very MINIMUM WHICH YOUR PERSONALITY FIXES and consistent with justice. Straightforward and courteously we offer money to any MAN or WOMAN of honorable intention of repayment, with or without security. Tel. Central 7054 or call. Private office [also ladies' room] connected with banking room. Seventh floor, 122 Monroe-st., s. e. corner Clark. WEST & COMPANY.
